WILLIAM O. DEWITT JR. PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Cardinals since 1996, when he led the purchase of the team from Anheuser Busch, and he and his immediate family acquired controlling interest in the team. DeWitt oversees all baseball, operational, financial and league matters for the team. He is Chairman of the Major League Baseball Finance Committee, former Chairman of the Executive Council, a member of the Competition Committee and served on the Labor Policy Committee which reached agreement with the Players Association on the current five-year Collective Bargaining Agreement. During 2014, he served as Chairman of the Commissioner's Succession Committee. Mr. DeWitt is also a member of the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and

M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt's father began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Major League Baseball Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy. His uniform (number 1/8) was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. and DeWitt Capital Group. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis, and they have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

Under his leadership, the Cardinals have had a number of significant achievements, including the following:

- Opened a new spring training facility in Jupiter, Fla., in 1998.
- Purchased the Palm Beach Cardinals of the Florida State League (A) in 1998.
- Purchased the Springfield Cardinals of the Texas League (AA) in 2005 and opened the new Hammons Field in Springfield, Mo.
- Privately financed, built, and opened the new Busch Stadium in April, 2006.
- Hosted Major League Baseball's 2009 All-Star Game.
- Developed special events business highlighted by concerts by Dave Matthews Band, the Eagles, U2, Paul McCartney, Billy Joel, Metallica, international soccer matches and the National Hockey League Winter Classic.
- Surpassed 3 million in attendance 21 times since 1996, including the last 16 consecutive seasons.
- Won 12 Division Titles (1996, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2019), two Wild Cards (2011, 2012), four National League Pennants (2004, 2006, 2011, 2013) and two World Championships (2006, 2011).
- Won 74 postseason games - most amongst all National League teams since 1996.
- In 2019, became the only team in Major League Baseball to reach the League Championship Series in 10 of the past 20 seasons.
- Opened Ballpark Village, March 2014, with Phase II of Ballpark Village scheduled for completion in early 2020.
- Purchased the Memphis Redbirds of the Pacific Coast League (AAA), March 2014; and subsequently sold 75% of the team in April 2016, retaining a 25% interest.
- Signed a new 15-year rights agreement with FOX Sports Midwest that began in 2018 and includes an equity component as part of the overall transaction.

WILLIAM DeWITT, III

PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March, 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the team and its affiliates, including the Memphis Redbirds, Springfield Cardinals, Palm Beach Cardinals, Fox Sports Midwest, and Ballpark Village.

He led the effort to develop Ballpark Village, a mixed-use project adjacent to Busch Stadium which opened in 2014. In 2020 the Cardinals, along with their development partner The Cordish Companies, will open Phase II of the project which will include an office tower (The PwC Pennant Building), a 200 room boutique hotel (Live! by Loews), a 29-story luxury apartment tower (One Cardinal Way), a health club (Onelife Fitness), and additional retail and restaurants.

Before his appointment to team President, DeWitt was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that, he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training.

DeWitt, 52, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. EPA in Washington D.C. He earned an MBA from Harvard Business School in 1995. DeWitt is a board member of the Rawlings Corporation, and his charitable affiliations are Cardinals Care (board chair), Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri, the St. Louis Sports Commission, the St. Louis Regional Chamber, Downtown Now, and the Gateway Arch Park Foundation. DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (21) and son, Will (18). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK PRESIDENT OF BASEBALL OPERATIONS

John “Mo” Mozeleliak was named President of Baseball Operations on June 30, 2017, the first to be named to that position in franchise history. Mozeleliak had served as the team’s Senior Vice President and General Manager for almost 10 full seasons, since October, 2007. He was the 12th general manager in the over 125-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, and had previously held the position of Assistant General Manager for six seasons. His contract runs through the 2023 season.

Under Mozeleliak, the Cardinals have reached the postseason seven times (2009, 2011-15, 2019), including a franchise record of five-straight seasons from 2011-2015. During that run, the Cardinals won three-straight National League Central Division titles (2013-2015), and have won five N.L. Central Titles overall (also 2009 and 2019) under Mo’s leadership. The five-year postseason run began with St. Louis’ 11th World Championship in 2011.

The 2019 season was the Cardinals 12th-consecutive winning season, a streak that began when Mozeleliak was named General Manager prior to the 2008 season. The Cardinals 1,076 wins in those 12 seasons under Mozeleliak’s watch are third only to the New York Yankees (1,113) and Los Angeles Dodgers (1,098), while they and the Yankees are the only teams to have posted 12 consecutive winning seasons in that time period.

A consistent culture of retaining key players has resulted in several significant deals aimed at keeping the organization’s top talent in St. Louis. Since 2012, the club has worked out multi-year deals with Yadier Molina (2012 & 2017), Adam Wainwright (2013), Matt Carpenter (2014), Kolten Wong (2016), Carlos Martinez (2017), Paul DeJong (2018), Miles Mikolas (2019) and Paul Goldschmidt (2019).

Mozeleliak engineered a series of late season moves in 2011 that transformed the Cardinals and saw the team go from 10 ½ games back in late August to winning the franchise’s 11th World Championship. Baseball America named the Cardinals the 2011 Organization of the Year, the first time the franchise had received the honor. Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony La Russa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In 2012, the Cardinals fell just one win shy of capturing the N.L. Championship, and with the team’s success, Mo was honored by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum with the Andrew “Rube” Foster Award as Executive of the Year. The 2013 team won the National League Championship and returned to the World Series just two years removed from winning the World Series title in 2011. Following that season, the organization was recognized by Baseball America as the Organization of the Year - the second such honor in three years - and was honored by USA Today Sports as having the best franchise among Major League baseball teams. The 2014 team captured the Central Division title for a second-straight season and returned to the National League Championship Series for a fourth-straight year. St. Louis led all Major League Baseball teams in wins and reached the postseason for a fifth-straight season in 2015, the ninth time in franchise history a Cardinals team had won 100 games.

Mozeleliak, 51, is a 25-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of ’99 and 2000 under Mo’s direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeleliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo’s duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeleliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness and sits on the Mercy Hospital Foundation board. Mozeleliak lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH

VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Michael Girsch was promoted to Vice President and General Manager on June 30, 2017, becoming the 13th General Manager in franchise history. His contract as General Manager runs through the 2022 season, and he is responsible for handling the day-to-day work of the team, including coordinating the efforts of the team's baseball development group, contract negotiations, player evaluations and player transactions.

Prior to his appointment as GM, Girsch served as Assistant General Manager for seven seasons after being appointed to that position in January 2011.

From 2008-11, he served as the Director of Baseball Development, a newly created department focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting.

Before joining the Cardinals, Girsch, 43, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business.

He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (15), Claire (13) and Tommy (12).

MOISÉS RODRIGUEZ ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Moisés Rodríguez was named the team's Assistant General Manager on September 27, 2017. Rodríguez has been a part of the organization for 12 seasons, previously serving as the Director of International Operations. In his role as Assistant General Manager, Rodríguez assists both the President of Baseball Operations and VP & General Manager with Major League player transactions, contract negotiations and player evaluations, and helps oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amateur and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Before becoming Assistant GM, Rodríguez directed the team's amateur scouting effort overseas, and supervised the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy. During his tenure, the international scouting department identified Cardinal pitchers Carlos Martínez and Alex Reyes as well as the late Oscar Taveras. Under his supervision, the Cardinals moved into a newly built player development academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic in 2015.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodríguez worked for Major League Baseball in New York from 1998-2007, the last three-plus years as Manager of International Baseball Operations in the Commissioner's Office. During his tenure in the Commissioner's Office, he also specialized in the day-to-day handling of the waiver wire and rule enforcement related to clubs' Major and Minor League player movement transactions. His first position at MLB in 1998 was as an assistant in Media Relations and waivers for the National League office. He began his work in sports as an Assistant Director of Sports Information at the University of Connecticut.

Rodríguez, 46, was born in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, before moving to New York City. He received a communications degree from the University of Connecticut. He and his wife, Michelle, have two sons.

RANDY FLORES ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER/DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Randy Flores was promoted to Assistant General Manager on November 27, 2018. He has been the Director of Scouting since August 28, 2015, overseeing all aspects of the scouting department including the amateur draft.

Flores, 44, was part of the Cardinals 2006 World Series Championship team and spent eight seasons in the Majors. The left-hander played for St. Louis from 2004-08, appearing in over 200 games as a relief pitcher. He was drafted in 1997 by the New York Yankees from the University of Southern California, where he holds its all-time record for wins (42). Flores made his Major League debut in 2002 with the Texas Rangers and also saw big league action with Colorado (2002, 2009-10) and Minnesota (2010).

Prior to joining the Cardinals front office, he returned to USC, earning a M.Ed Postsecondary Administration in 2014. During graduate school he was USC's Pitching Coach (2013), worked as a college baseball analyst for ESPN and Pac-12 Networks, and founded a sports video technology company.

A native of Pico Rivera, Calif., Flores and his wife, Lindsey, reside in Olivette with their two daughters, Sloane (10), Rowan (8), and son Hawkins (2).

GARY LaROCQUE

DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gary LaRocque was named Director of Player Development prior to the 2014 season, and in this role oversees all aspects of player development. LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager and was named Senior Advisor to Player Development prior to the 2013 season.

LaRocque is in his 45th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998 as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager, VP Player Development & Scouting and was Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, LaRocque started his professional playing career as an infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and in 1979 began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers as a minor league coach. LaRocque was a manager in the minors through 1988 before moving into the Dodgers' scouting department from 1989-97.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary education (mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993. LaRocque was awarded the George Kissell Award in 2018 for his efforts as voted on by his peers.

JOHN VUCH

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

John Vuch is in his 33rd season in Baseball Operations and 42nd overall with the Cardinals. He was named to his current position following the 2013 season and he assists the VP/General Manager in all aspects of the Major League club, including taking the lead on arbitration cases and Rule 5 draft preparation, as well as handling contract negotiations for some of the 40-man roster players and minor league free agents.

Vuch held the title of Farm Director from September 2010 through the 2012 seasons, and during that time oversaw Championships for three teams [Quad Cities (A) & Johnson City (R) in 2011, Springfield (AA) in 2012]. The two championships in 2011 marked the first time since 1994 multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the 2012 Springfield Cardinal team was recognized as the Minor League Team of the Year. Under his leadership, the 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization and the Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America. At the conclusion of the 2012 season, the Cardinals minor league system was ranked #1 by Baseball Prospectus, Baseball America and ESPN. He served as Director of Minor League Operations in 2013 and 2007-10, and was responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system including minor league player personnel decisions. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985-87.

Vuch was awarded the 2009 Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA of America at their 51st annual dinner.

A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County and have three children: Jack (25), Hayley (22) and Anna (19).

LUIS MORALES DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS & ADMINISTRATION

Luis Morales enters his 10th season with the Cardinals and third as the Director of International Operations and Administration. He was promoted to his current role in November 2017 after previously serving as the Assistant Director of International Operations for the previous three seasons. Morales started with the Cardinals as an International Operations Intern in 2011. His main responsibilities in his position are coordinating the organization's amateur scouting effort overseas, and supervising the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy.

Prior to the Cardinals, Morales worked four years with the Cleveland Indians as a Coordinator, Venezuelan Scouting. He started his career with Leones Del Caracas in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Morales, 37, earned his Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Universidad Catolica Andres Bello in Venezuela and his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla.

Born and raised in Caracas, Venezuela, Morales currently resides in Jupiter, Fla.

MATT BAYER PROJECT DIRECTOR, BASEBALL DEVELOPMENT

Matt Bayer is in his ninth year with the Cardinals and first as Project Director, Baseball Development. As Project Director, he manages the day-to-day workflow of Baseball Development and serves as the communication link between Baseball Development and other departments within Baseball Operations.

Bayer started with the Cardinals in 2012 as a Baseball Development Assistant. He also served as Amateur Scouting Analyst and Manager of Scouting Analytics prior to receiving a promotion to his current role in November of 2019.

Before joining the Cardinals, Bayer, 30, earned a Bachelor of Science in Probability and Statistics, with a second major in Economics, from Washington University in St. Louis. Born and raised in Massapequa, New York, Bayer and his wife, Betty, reside in Webster Groves with their two children, Mary (3) and Bruce (1).

PATRICK CASANTA SYSTEMS DIRECTOR

Patrick Casanta enters his seventh season with the Cardinals and first as the Director of Baseball Systems, leading a group responsible for the use of data, software and technology across all areas of Baseball Operations.

Casanta joined the Cardinals at the end of 2013, starting as the club's principal Software Developer. After serving as the Manager of Baseball Systems for the previous three seasons, he was promoted to his current role in 2019.

Casanta graduated from De Smet Jesuit High School and earned both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Computer Science from Loyola University of Chicago.

He and his wife, Lauren, reside in St. Louis.

KEVIN SEATS

DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ANALYTICS

Kevin Seats is entering his sixth season with the Cardinals and first as Director of Baseball Analytics. In this role, Seats leads a group that leverages the ever-growing size and scope of baseball data to build the analytical models and tools that are used in other departments within Baseball Operations. He was promoted to this role in November 2019 after having previously served as a Baseball Development Analyst.

Seats, 31, is a native of Cahokia, IL. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he attended Saint Louis University, where he earned Bachelor's degrees in Mathematics, Physics, and Geophysics, and his Ph.D. in Geophysics from Stanford University.

Seats lives in Columbia, IL with his wife, Brittany, and children, Ellie (3) and Aubrey.

DR. ROBERT BUTLER

DIRECTOR OF PERFORMANCE

Robert Butler is in his fifth season in Major League Baseball with the Cardinals. As the Director of Performance, Dr. Butler oversees player training and care for the Cardinals organization and all affiliates.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, he served as an Assistant Professor and Associate Director of the Michael W. Krzyzewski Human Performance Laboratory at Duke University for 5-1/2 years. A native of Wilmington, Del., Butler graduated from Marietta College where he earned his Bachelor's in Biology, Springfield College where he earned his M.S. in Biomechanics and Movement Science, and the University of Delaware where he earned his Ph.D. in Biomechanics. Following his doctoral training, he completed a post-doc at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and also his Doctorate in Physical Therapy at the University of Evansville.

Butler (43) and his wife, Sarah, and children Madeline (12), Emelia (10) and Greyson (6), and dog, Blue, reside in Palm City, Fla.

BOB GEBHARD

SENIOR SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Bob Gebhard joined the Cardinals in 2017 as Sr. Special Assistant to Sr. VP/ General Manager John Mozeliak, and is in his 56th season in professional baseball. He came to St. Louis after 12 seasons with the Arizona Diamondbacks as Vice President & Special Assistant to the GM, the same role he held with the Cardinals from 2000-04.

Gebhard was on the ground floor of the Colorado Rockies franchise, joining the club during the winter of 1991 as the first General Manager in the team's history. He joined the Rockies from the Minnesota Twins where he won a pair of World Series rings in 1987 and 1991.

Gebhard was drafted by the Twins in the 15th round of the first June draft in 1965 and had an 11-year playing career with both the Twins and Montreal Expos. He was a player/coach in the Montreal organization from 1974-75, then coached in Montreal's system through 1986, including on the Major League coaching staff in 1982.

In 2012, Gebhard received the Roland Hemond Award from the Society of American Baseball Research (SABR) and in 2011 was named the recipient of the Sheldon "Chief" Bender Award from Minor League Baseball. In 2020, Gebhard and five others including notable skier Lindsey Vonn, will be inducted into the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame.

A native of Lamberton, Minn., Gebhard earned 16 letters in four sports in high school. His athletic career continued at the University of Iowa, where he co-captained the baseball team and played basketball.

Gebhard and his wife, Nancy, reside in Centennial, Colo., and have three children, Angie, Jenny and Casey, and eight grandchildren.

MATT SLATER

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM, PLAYER PROCUREMENT

Matt Slater joined the Cardinals in 2007 and was named Special Assistant to the General Manager, Player Procurement in December 2017 after previously serving as the club's Director of Player Personnel.

He is in his 30th year in Major League Baseball where over the course of his career, he has helped build division winners and playoff teams in Baltimore, Los Angeles and St. Louis. In his current role as senior talent evaluator, Slater works hand in hand with the President and General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past 12 years, Matt has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league. In addition, Slater continues to push the Cardinals organization forward in the emerging player procurement markets of Asia and Cuba.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. He worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. Slater got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old. Beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers' Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management, and holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He serves on the board of directors for Independence Center, a non-profit mental health facility in St. Louis. He resides in Chesterfield with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (19), Madison (16) and Jacob (16).

ADAM OLSEN

DIRECTOR OF MEDICAL OPERATIONS/ HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Adam Olsen was named Director of Medical Operations for the Cardinals on January 7, 2019. He begins his fifth season as Head Athletic Trainer after completing six seasons as their Assistant Athletic Trainer/Physical Therapist.

Prior to his time in St. Louis, he served for four seasons as the Medical/Rehab Coordinator for the Cardinals out of their Spring Training Complex in Jupiter, Florida.

Olsen is a native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and is a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. Olsen worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin – Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin E. Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

Olsen, 42, and his wife, Amy, reside in St. Louis with their daughters, Annabelle Frances (10) and Piper James (5), and their dog, August.

CHRIS CONROY

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris is entering his ninth season with the St. Louis Cardinals Major League staff, after 13 years in their minor league system.

Chris spent time with five different affiliates, including the Memphis Redbirds (AAA), where he spent seven seasons. During his minor league career, Chris was awarded the Eastern League Athletic Trainer of the Year, as well as the Pacific Coast League Athletic Trainer of the Year.

Along with being a certified athletic trainer, he is a certified strength and conditioning specialist, a performance enhancement specialist, a corrective exercise specialist, and is currently working on advanced SFMA/ FMS based treatment paradigms.

Born an Irish citizen, Chris (43) was naturalized as a United States Citizen on July 3, 2010. He and his wife Kristi, and two daughters Madelyn, and Cecelia reside in St. Louis.

JEREMY CLIPPERTON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremy is entering his fifth season with the Cardinals Major League staff, after serving four seasons with the Memphis Redbirds (AAA).

Before joining the Cardinals organization in 2012, Jeremy spent 11 years in the Seattle Mariners organization, including two in the PCL with the Triple-A Tacoma Rainiers. He also spent time at four other affiliates in the Seattle Mariner farm system and had one year (2001) in the Northwest League with the Spokane Indians in the Kansas City Royals Organization.

The Iowa native is a two-time award recipient, recognized by the Midwest League in 2006 and again in 2008 as the Minor League Athletic Trainer of the Year by the Professional Athletic Trainers Society, the highest Minor League award as the top athletic trainer in all of the Minor Leagues. He was also named the Southern League Trainer of the Year in 2008.

Jeremy, his wife Jessica, and son Calvin, reside in St. Louis Hills.

THOMAS KNOX

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, PERFORMANCE

Thomas Knox is in his fifth season with the Cardinals, and second as the Assistant Director of Performance. He served three seasons (2016-18) as Major League Physical Therapist.

Knox joined the Cardinals before the 2016 season after completing three seasons as Director of Player Performance and Rehabilitation for the NBA Washington Wizards.

Knox received a BS in Exercise Science in 2006 and Doctorate of Physical Therapy in 2009 from the University of Evansville. He completed a post-graduate residency in sports physical therapy through ProRehab in Evansville, Ind. Knox worked for EXOS (formerly Athletes' Performance) for three years as a performance specialist and physical therapist in Frisco, Texas and Gulf Breeze, Fla., whose clientele included professional athletes and members of the military special operation groups.

Knox, is a Board Certified Sports Clinical Specialist, a certified strength and conditioning specialist, certified in Functional Movement Systems and Kinetacore Dry Needling.

Born and raised in nearby Woodlawn, Ill., Knox currently resides in St. Louis.

LANCE THOMASON

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Lance Thomason enters his eighth season with the Cardinals organization and second in St. Louis as strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to joining St. Louis, Thomason served in the same capacity with Triple-A Memphis (2017-18), Double-A Springfield (2015-16), Single-A Peoria (2014) and Rookie-level Johnson City (2013).

Before the Cardinals organization, Thomason interned with the University of Wyoming Performance Department after graduation and also was a volunteer strength coach.

Thomason graduated from Evanston (Wyo.) High School and earned a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and Health Promotion from the University of Wyoming. He resides in St. Louis with wife, Crystal, son, Brooks (5) and daughter Everly (3).

JASON SHUTT

PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST & PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Jason Shutt begins his fifth season as a Performance Specialist with the Cardinals and his fourth in St. Louis with the Major League club. In 2016, Shutt was based out of the Cardinals Complex in Jupiter, Fla.

In his role as Performance Specialist, Shutt seeks to optimize player readiness, durability and physical performance. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he consulted with professional and Olympic athletes while at the Michael Krzyzewski Human Performance Laboratory at Duke University.

Shutt is a native of Uniondale, Ind., and received his Physical Therapy doctorate from Duke University.

CARDINALS MEDICAL TEAM

St. Louis based Mercy is entering its eighth year as the team's official medical provider. Mercy manages the team's orthopedic and sports medicine needs, as well as providing other medical services for the team, the Cardinals organization and front office.

CAREER NOTES:

Mike Shildt is entering his third season (second full season) as the Cardinals manager, having led the team to an N.L. Central Division title in 2019. Shildt was voted the N.L. Manager of the Year for 2019 by the Baseball Writers' Association of America, joining Hall of Fame managers Whitey Herzog (1985) and Tony La Russa (2002) as the only Cardinals managers to have won the award. He is the only MLB Manager of the Year to have never played professionally.

Shildt guided the Cardinals to their 12th N.L. Central title in his first full season at the helm, overseeing a transformation of the team's defense with record-setting performances, as the Cardinals became the first Major League team in history to go from worst to first in errors in back-to-back seasons. The Cardinals went 91-71 in 2019 while advancing to the N.L. Championship Series, and are 132-99 (.571 winning pct.) under Shildt since he was named interim manager in 2018.

Shildt was named the 50th manager in franchise history on July 15, 2018, serving on an interim basis after replacing Mike Matheny. After guiding the team to a National League best 26-12 (.684) mark in his first 38 games at the helm, Shildt was named manager on August 28, 2018. He was signed to a three-year contract extension thru 2022 in November, 2019.

Shildt was serving in his second season as a member of the Cardinals Major League coaching staff prior to his appointment as interim manager, and his first season as the team's bench coach. Shildt began the 2017 season as quality control coach on the Major League staff before taking over as third-base coach in June.

Shildt's 41-28 record (.594 winning percentage) to finish out the 2018 season, tied with the Milwaukee Brewers and Colorado Rockies for the top mark in the National League from his appointment on July 15. He posted the best 40-game start by a Cardinals first year manager going 27-13. In August of 2018, the Cardinals were a Major League best 22-6 (.786), their first 22-win August since 1946 (22-9) and the team's best record in the month of August since 1944 (25-8). Shildt's efforts were recognized by BBWAA voters, earning him a 4th place finish in the 2018 N.L. Manager of the Year voting.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Shildt had logged eight seasons as a minor league manager in the Cardinals organization, the most recent at the triple-A level with the Memphis Redbirds (2015-16). He compiled a career managerial record of 471-432 (.522) over his eight seasons in the minors, winning league championships in each of his three career playoff appearances.

Shildt served as a coach for the Pacific Coast League All-Star team in 2016 during the Triple-A All-Star Game that was held at BB&T Ballpark in his hometown of Charlotte, N.C.

Sixteen of his players off the Memphis roster made their Major League debuts during the 2015 and 2016 seasons. Shildt won his first league championship at Johnson City in the Appalachian League in 2010 and followed it up with another title in 2011. In his first season at double-A Springfield (2012), Shildt led the Cardinals to a team-record 77 wins and their first Texas League Championship defeating Frisco 3-1 after knocking off Tulsa 3-2 in the opening round. This marked his third consecutive title in his fourth year of managing in the minor leagues.

In 2011, Shildt's Johnson City team set a short-season franchise record with 45 wins, just a year after tying the previous mark of 42. While at Johnson City, Shildt compiled a 124-77 (.617) record over three seasons, averaging 41 wins per season and guided the team to their first championship since 1976. In his first year at the helm of Johnson City (2009), he led the squad to their best record in 13 years (37-30), a year removed from serving as the hitting coach for the squad in 2008.

Shildt began every season from 2004-07 serving as an area scout and player development instructor before moving on to coach for a Cardinals short-season team, first as hitting coach at New Jersey in 2004-05, bench coach in State College in 2006 and position coach for Batavia in 2007.

Shildt earned the George Kissell Award in 2010 to add to his 2010 Appalachian League Manager of the Year award after his success at Johnson City as well as serving as the Cardinals Minor League Field and Spring Training Coordinator, a position he held from 2008-12. Shildt managed the Salt River Rafter's of the Arizona Fall League to a 19-12 record in 2013, winning their final seven games, and finishing a half-game back of first place in the East Division.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, from 1999-2003, Shildt was an associate scout for the MLB Scouting Bureau and was head varsity coach at West Charlotte High School from 1994-96.

Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt, working as the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator at both UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville.

Shildt, 51, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Weddington, N.C. He was a three-year letter winner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the Orioles double-A team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr., and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard. He is also co-director of a Charlotte-based non-profit organization, Baseball for Life.

Shildt and his wife, Michelle, were married on March 6, 2020 in Jupiter, Fla.

CAREER NOTES:

Jeff Albert was hired as the St. Louis Cardinals hitting coach in November 2018 after the previous six years in the Houston Astros organization.

The 39-year old hitting instructor was the second hitting coach with the Astros in 2018 after serving as the minor league hitting coordinator from 2014-17 and 2013 as the roving hitting instructor.

Prior to his time with the Astros, Albert launched his professional coaching career with the Cardinals organization starting as hitting coach for the Batavia MuckDogs of the short-season A ball affiliate in the New York-Penn League. The MuckDogs won the New York-Penn League title in 2008 knocking off Jamestown 2-0 in the championship series.

Albert advanced to the Cardinals High-A Florida State League affiliate in Palm Beach where he served as hitting coach from 2009-12.

Prior to entering the coaching ranks, Albert played two seasons of Independent League baseball for the Washington (Pa.) Wild Things in 2003 and the Shreveport Captains in 2007.

Albert's college playing career was spent at Butler University where he lettered twice for the Bulldogs and helped lead them to their highest win total in program history with 34 wins in 2002 and again in 2003, a total which was not matched by another Butler baseball team until they won 34 again in 2018. In 2002, Albert led the team with 34 RBI garnering Second Team All-Horizon League honors at third base. He finished his collegiate career with a .284 batting average and 10 home runs.

His accolades off the field include a Master's Degree in Exercise Science from Louisiana Tech University where he was also involved in various baseball training and research, as well as strength and conditioning work with the school's baseball and softball programs.

Albert is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and runs swingtraining.net, which is a site dedicated to baseball training and analysis.

He resides in Jupiter, Florida.

CAREER NOTES:

Stubby Clapp enters his 2nd season as a member of the St. Louis Cardinals coaching staff after serving as the manager of the triple-A Memphis Redbirds of the Pacific Coast League from 2017-18.

Clapp won back-to-back PCL titles in his two years as manager of the Redbirds and won the Triple-A Championship in 2018 as Memphis crushed Durham 14-4 in the title game giving the Redbirds their first such title after finishing runner-up in 2000, 2009 and 2017.

In two years as the Memphis skipper, Clapp recorded a .619 winning percentage (174-107) including a franchise-best record of 91-50 in 2017.

Clapp has been recognized as Pacific Coast League Manager of the Year in 2017 and 2018. Baseball America recognized Clapp as their Minor League Manager of the Year in 2017 and he received the J. Roy Stockton/Bob Broeg Award for outstanding achievement in baseball from the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA.

Prior to 2017, Clapp managed two years (2011-12) in the Astros organization with Tri-City of the New York-Penn League leading the Valley Cats to a first place division finish in 2012 and runner-up in the championship series to Hudson Valley.

Clapp came to the Cardinals from the Blue Jays organization where he was a hitting coach for double-A New Hampshire (2015-16) of the Eastern League and before that with single-A Dunedin (2013-14) of the Florida State League. In 2014, Clapp received the Blue Jays' 2014 Bobby Mattick Award for excellence in Player Development.

Often referred to as the "Mayor of Memphis," Clapp became the first and only Memphis Redbirds player to have his number retired by the team in 2007. Known for his grit and hard play day in and day out, Clapp was beloved by fans for his energy and the backflips he routinely performed when taking the field.

In his Redbirds career, Clapp appeared in a total of 425 games. He sits at the top of the Redbirds' career leaders in walks (222) and triples (19), while also ranking second in runs scored (258) and third in games (425), at-bats (1,556), hits (418), doubles (87), and extra-base hits (128). He was a member of the Redbirds' first PCL Championship team in 2000, where he hit three homers and drove in 11 during the playoffs. Earlier that year, Clapp recorded the first hit in AutoZone Park history, with a single to center, and set the Redbirds' single-season record for triples with eight.

A graduate of Texas Tech University, the Windsor, Ontario, native was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 36th round of the 1996 First-Year Player Draft. He played for Johnson City (R) in 1996, Prince William (A) in 1997 and Arkansas (AA) in 1998 before making his debut with Memphis (AAA) on April 8, 1999 against Calgary at Tim McCarver Stadium.

Clapp made his Major League debut on June 18, 2001 against the Cubs. He appeared in 23 career games for the Cardinals that season, posting a .200 average with two doubles and one RBI.

Clapp played the 2003 season for the Braves' Richmond (AAA), followed by a 2004 campaign that was split between New Hampshire (AA) and Syracuse (AAA) in the Blue Jays organization. Clapp finished his career playing 2005-06 seasons for the Edmonton Cracker-Cats of the independent Northern League.

Following his playing career, Clapp spent 2007-12 in the Houston Astros organization: three seasons as the hitting coach for Lexington (A), one season as hitting coach for Corpus Christi (AA), before taking on his first managerial role with Tri-City.

Clapp has represented Canada in numerous international baseball competitions. He recorded a game-winning, bases-loaded single to beat the United States in the first round of the 1999 Pan American Games in Winnipeg. Clapp also played for the Canadian National team in the 2004 Olympics in Athens, 2008 Olympics in Beijing, and the 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classics. Clapp served as a coach in the 2013 World Baseball Classic and was third base coach for the gold medal-winning Canada national baseball team at the 2015 Pan American Games.

The 47-year-old was the third member of his family to be given the nickname "Stubby," along with his grandfather and father. He and his wife, Chastity, have three children: sons Cooper (aka "Stubby IV") and Cannan, and daughter Crosbie.

CAREER NOTES:

Bryan Eversgerd is in his third season as Bullpen Coach on the Cardinals' staff. Previously, he served five years (2013-17) as the pitching coach for Memphis (AAA).

In 2019, Cardinals relievers led the majors with 52 saves and ranked 2nd in the N.L. to the Los Angeles Dodgers (3.78) with their 3.82 ERA. The team's 71.2 save pct. led the senior circuit and ranked 3rd overall in the majors, while their collective .219 opponent's batting average paced the majors, and their 97 Holds ranked 3rd in the N.L.

Prior to arriving in St. Louis, Eversgerd's Memphis staff led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.77 ERA in 2017 while winning the league championship. The Redbirds' 3.77 ERA was the only sub-4.00 ERA in the PCL that season.

Prior to his stint at Memphis, Eversgerd spent two seasons (2011-12) in Springfield (AA) as pitching coach for the Double-A Cardinals. While in Springfield, Eversgerd's 2012 staff registered a 3.83 team ERA and surrendered the second fewest hits en route to the Texas League Championship. The staff went on to hurl a postseason best 2.48 ERA over nine games in the Texas League playoffs. Eversgerd was awarded the George Kissell Award in 2012 for his efforts as voted on by his peers among the Cardinals minor league coaching staffs.

Eversgerd has been the pitching coach for three Cardinals Minor League Pitchers-of-the-Year in Jack Flaherty (2017) and former Cardinals hurlers Shelby Miller (2011) and Seth Maness (2012). In 2013, Eversgerd was the pitching coach for 2013 National League Championship Series MVP Michael Wacha, who spent the majority of the year in Memphis and represented the Redbirds at the Triple-A All-Star Game.

His coaching tenure began at the Cardinals' Carolina League affiliate in 2001 at Potomac, before taking a two-year hiatus and returning as pitching coach for Peoria in the Midwest League. He remained in the Midwest League at Peoria and Quad Cities from 2004-07 before joining Double-A Springfield from 2008-09 and a year later at High-A Palm Beach in 2010.

Eversgerd began his playing career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994 at Florida. The left-hander also pitched for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 51, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987, playing college baseball at Kaskaskia Community College and leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Centralia, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, daughter, Kristen (22) and son, Jacob (20).

ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

CAREER NOTES:

Jiménez enters his first full season as the Cardinals Assistant Hitting Coach after joining the Major League staff on August 13, 2019.

Jobel began the 2019 season serving as the Hitting Coach for Memphis (AAA) after having spent the prior two seasons in the same role with Springfield (AA). The 2020 season marks his 15th in the Cardinals organization. Prior to Springfield, he had served as hitting coach at Peoria (A) for three seasons (2014-16.)

The 2016 Peoria squad led the Midwest League with 1,255 hits and co-led the circuit with a .266 average, thanks to three different Chiefs finishing in the Top 10 in batting average.

Jiménez served as hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2013 and began his career with St. Louis prior to the start of the 2007 season, when he began as hitting coach for the Venezuelan Summer League Cardinals from 2007-12.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Jiménez worked for six years (2001-06) with the Red Sox as a scout, outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic. Jiménez, 44, also served as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Marlins organization from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder in the Dodgers system for two seasons (1993-94), Jiménez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent five seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

Jobel and his wife, Stella, have two sons, Alex and Kristan. They make their off-season home in el Bosque Valencia, Venezuela

CAREER NOTES:

Mike Maddux is entering his third season as the Cardinals pitching coach after joining the club for the 2018 season after spending the previous two seasons (2016-17) serving in that role for the Washington Nationals.

Last season, Cardinals pitchers finished 2nd in the National League in ERA (3.80), opponent batting average (.238) and home runs allowed (191). Rookie Dakota Hudson ranked 3rd in the N.L. with his 16 wins and Jack Flaherty put together one of the best second halves in Major League history, finishing 4th in the N.L. Cy Young voting.

In 2018, newly acquired pitcher Miles Mikolas went 18-4 in an All-Star season, including a perfect 10-0 road record becoming one of nine pitchers in MLB history to post an unblemished mark on the road with double-digit wins. His .818 winning percentage led all National League pitchers and was the best by a Cardinals pitcher since Kyle Lohse set the franchise record with an .842 win percentage in 2012.

In his two seasons with the Nationals, their pitchers posted a 3.69 ERA, including a 3.51 mark in 2016 that ranked 2nd in MLB. His starting staff struck out an NL single-season record 1,012 batters in 2017, surpassing their mark of 987 in 2016. In 2016, the Nationals relievers posted the best bullpen ERA in MLB at 3.35.

Maddux was also integral in the coaching of back-to-back National League Cy Young Award winner Max Scherzer in 2016-17.

Maddux, 58, went to Washington from the Texas Rangers where the Rangers had earned four postseason berths. From 2010-13, the Rangers were one of just five clubs (along with ATL, STL, OAK, and TB) to post four consecutive sub-4.00 team ERAs, accomplishing that feat for just the second time in Rangers history (six straight, 1974-79). Prior to Maddux's arrival, the Rangers had not posted an ERA lower than 4.00 since 1990. During his first five seasons with Texas (2009-13), their 3.94 team ERA was Texas' lowest ERA over a five-year span since 1981-85 (3.92) and in 2014, his staff ranked second in the American league with 17 shutouts, second-most in Texas history.

Maddux joined Texas after six years (2003-08) with the Brewers as pitching coach where he oversaw a Brewers staff that ranked second in the NL with a 3.85 ERA in 2008, the lowest mark by a Milwaukee club in 16 years, en-route to securing the Brewers' first postseason berth in 26 years.

He coached three seasons as the pitching coach for Houston's Double-A Round Rock from 2000-02. The Express made the Texas League playoffs all three seasons in which he was the pitching coach winning the league championship in 2000, crowned as co-champs in 2001 with Arkansas and lost in the semi-finals in 2002.

Maddux enjoyed a 15-year Major League playing career, going 39-37 with a 4.05 ERA in 472 games (48 starts) with Philadelphia (1986-89), Los Angeles (1990, 1999), San Diego (1991-92), New York Mets (1993-94), Pittsburgh (1995), Boston (1995-96), Seattle (1997), Montreal (1998-99), and Houston (2000). The right-hander appeared in the postseason with Boston in 1995, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in two appearances vs. CLE in the American League Division Series.

"Mad Dog" is the older brother of 2014 National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee Greg Maddux. He played three years at the University of Texas-EI Paso and graduated from Rancho (NV) High School in 1979. Mike and his wife, Lise, and daughters, Makayla and Lexie, reside in Westlake, Texas. Maddux is an avid hunter, golfer, and fisherman and he hit a pair of hole-in-ones in the same round on Oct. 14, 2019 at the Army-Navy course in Washington, D.C.

CAREER NOTES:

Oliver "Ollie" Marmol is entering his fourth season on the Cardinals Major League Coaching Staff and his second as Mike Shildt's Bench Coach after serving the previous two years as the First Base Coach.

In 2016, Marmol completed his second season as manager at Palm Beach and fifth year managing in the Cardinals organization. He piloted his teams to the postseason in four of his five years managing in the minor leagues.

In 2015, his first season managing at Palm Beach, the Cardinals reached the postseason for the first time since 2008, winning the Florida State League South Division second half before being eliminated in the first round. Prior to 2015, the last time Palm Beach had reached the FSL postseason, Marmol was playing second base for the squad.

In 2014, Marmol led the State College team to the New York-Penn League Championship, defeating Hudson Valley in two straight games when facing elimination, then defeated Tri-City for the crown. The Spikes posted 48 wins for the second consecutive season, a year after Marmol led State College to the best record in the New York-Penn League at 48-27. He was awarded the 2013 George Kissell Award as voted on by his coaching peers in the Cardinals organization.

The former Cardinals minor league infielder has skippered his teams to a combined 268-225 record (.544), averaging 45 wins per season during his years with short-season clubs. He led the 2012 Johnson City squad to a 39-28 record and a playoff appearance in his first season as a manager. Marmol began his coaching career in 2011 as the hitting coach at the Gulf Coast League level under manager Steve Turco.

Marmol spent four years playing in the Cardinals system, finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons at the College of Charleston. He was drafted out of college in the sixth round of the 2007 June First-Year Player Draft by St. Louis.

Marmol, 33, resides in Jupiter, Fla. in the off-season with his wife, Amber, and their daughters Riley (9/15/17) and Kylie (8/29/19).

CAREER NOTES:

Willie McGee returns to the Cardinals Major League coaching staff for his third season and will be responsible for a variety of areas including outfield play, base running and hitting. Prior to 2018, McGee spent several seasons serving as a Special Assistant to the GM, assisting with instruction at both the Major and Minor League levels.

McGee, 61, is a decorated member of the Cardinals organization, a beloved figure among Cardinals fans and a member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame (inducted in 2014).

McGee, who came to the Cardinals organization in October of 1981 in a trade with the New York Yankees for pitcher Bob Sykes, emerged on the national scene in 1982 when he starred during the World Series with his spectacular catches and a pair of key homers that helped the Redbirds to their first World Championship since 1967.

As a key member of the Redbirds during the "Whitey Ball" era, McGee helped the Cardinals to two additional World Series appearances in 1985 and 1987 and in 1985 he became the first Cardinal voted the National League's Most Valuable Player since 1979 (Keith Hernandez), leading the Senior Circuit with his .353 batting average, 216 hits and 18 triples. His .353 batting mark and 216 hits from 1985 still stand as the Cardinals single-season records for a switch-hitter.

A four-time All-Star (1983, 1985, 1987, 1988), the fleet-footed McGee posted a career batting mark of .295 with 352 steals and 94 triples in 18 seasons with St. Louis (1981-90 & 1996-99), Oakland (1990), San Francisco (1991-94) and Boston (1995). He currently ranks among Cardinals all-time top-10 leaders in stolen bases (301-4th), triples (83-7th) and pinch-hits (59-3rd).

In July of 1990, McGee was traded to the Oakland Athletics and helped them to the American League Championship. That year he became the first player in Major League history to win a batting title (.335) in one league after having been traded to a team in the other league. After stints in San Francisco and Boston, Willie returned to St. Louis in 1996 and helped the Cardinals to the N.L. Central title before retiring after the 1999 season.

McGee won Rawlings Gold Glove awards for defensive excellence in 1983, 1985 and 1986 and was a National League Silver Slugger recipient in 1985.

A 1976 graduate of Harry Ellis High School in Richmond, Calif., McGee and his wife, Vivian, have five children, Nanuashika, Jessica, Whitney, Virginia, William, and eight grandchildren.

CAREER NOTES:

Warner enters his 30th season in the Cardinals organization and his second on the Opening Day Major League coaching staff as the third base coach. The 2020 season marks his fourth-straight year in some capacity on the Major League staff with two prior seasons (2017-18) being transferred onto the Major League coaching staff midway through the season following coaching transactions.

Warner has 11 years of managerial experience in the Cardinals organization, most recently as the manager of triple-A Memphis (2012-14) with double-A Springfield (2007-11) and high-A Palm Beach (2005-06) also under his tutelage. In 2003, his managerial career began with the rookie league Johnson City Cardinals of the short-season Appalachian League.

In 2005, Warner managed the Palm Beach Cardinals to the Florida State League playoffs, where the squad knocked off the Vero Beach Dodgers in three games (2-1) before winning the league championship in five games (3-2) over the heavily favored Lakeland Tigers. The resilient Palm Beach squad took the title game with home runs in the 9th and 10th innings tying and taking the lead on the road. Warner was named the 2005 George Kissell Award winner by his peers following his efforts.

Warner guided his teams to the postseason in five of his first eight years and 6-of-11 overall. His minor league managerial record stands at 734-730 (.501).

His coaching career began in 2000 serving as the batting practice pitcher for the St. Louis Cardinals before moving on to take a coaching role for double-A New Haven in 2001. In 2002-03, Warner was the hitting coach for short-season New Jersey (A) and then held the same post with single-A Peoria in 2004.

Following his days as a minor league manager, Warner took roles as the team's Minor League Infield Coordinator (2015-16) and then Assistant Field Coordinator (2017-18).

Originally a 17th round draft pick (441st overall) by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1991 out of the, now defunct, University of Wyoming baseball program, Warner played nine years in the Cardinals minor leagues covering 792 career games. He batted .267 with 40 home runs and 242 RBI playing a myriad of positions including all infield spots, outfield and made three relief appearances as a pitcher. He played in 238 games as a shortstop, his most at any position.

Warner, 51, resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife Laura, sons, Colin Michael (1/9/04) and Benjamin Anthony (1/25/10) and daughter Callie Marie (10/2/11). He wears uniform No. 75 to honor the late Darryl Kile (flipping the 5-and-7), as the Cardinals have not issued uniform No. 57 since Kile's untimely death in 2002.

JOEY PREBYNSKI RUN PREVENTION COACH

Joey Prebyski enters his second season as run prevention coach with the Cardinals. In his role, he works closely with the Major League coaching staff in game day preparation throughout the season and also conducts projects and studies aimed at enhancing player development processes.

Before joining the Cardinals, Prebyski spent three seasons (2016-18) as a professional scout with the Milwaukee Brewers. Prior to the Brewers, Prebyski worked with the Texas Rangers serving as instant replay consultant, writing Major League Advance Scouting reports, conducting statistical studies for the baseball operations department, and oversaw the use of video at the Major League level and in the Player Development system as well as within the Amateur, Pro, and International Scouting departments.

Prebyski, 37, was the Director of Baseball Operations at the University of Texas at Arlington from 2005-08, where he earned his undergraduate degree in Business Administration, along with a Master of Arts in Communication and an MBA at the school. A native of Mansfield, Ohio, Prebyski is actively involved with the Miracle League, Junior Achievement, & Big Brothers-Big Sisters. He resides in Clayton, MO.

PATRICK ELKINS RUN PRODUCTION COACH

Patrick "Packy" Elkins enters his 10th season in the Cardinals organization and his first as a member of the Major League coaching staff. His duties involve splitting time as a uniformed coach pregame, working with hitters alongside Jeff Albert and Jobel Jiménez, while also developing advanced scouting.

Prior to his moving into his current role, Elkins worked five years as a Major League Pro Scout in the Cardinals organization and as a 4th Coach in 2014, where he joined Manager Mike Shildt's staff in Double-A Springfield.

Elkins played four years of college baseball at Belmont University in Nashville, Tenn., where he graduated with a Marketing degree in 2010. He was later selected by St. Louis in the 37th round of that season's First-Year Player Draft. The infielder played the 2010 season under Shildt in Johnson City, 2011 in Quad Cities, and 2012 in Palm Beach with Jeff Albert as his hitting coach.

Elkins resides in Raleigh, N.C. with his wife, Brittany, daughter, Annie (3), and son, Joseph (1).

CHRISTOPHER (CHRIS) JOHN CARPENTER SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Chris Carpenter enters his second season as a Special Instructor with the Cardinals.

Following his retirement in 2012, after 15 seasons with Toronto and St. Louis, Chris has remained active in player instruction and evaluation for the Cardinals.

The New Hampshire native played nine seasons (2004-12) with the Cardinals and was selected as a National League All-Star three times (2005, 2006 and 2010). He made 18 starts for St. Louis during the postseason, including starts in both the 2006 and 2011 World Series.

The game that most solidifies Carpenter in Cardinals fans hearts may very well be Game 5 of the 2011 Division Series vs. Philadelphia when he pitched a complete-game, 3-hit shutout, clinching the Division Series on the way to the team's 11th World Championship. He had 3-0 mark with a 2.00 ERA in his four career World Series starts.

A member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame, Carpenter was voted the National League Cy Young award winner in 2005 after a 21-5 season, and National League Comeback Player of the Year in 2009. Carpenter's .683 winning pct. ranks 2nd on the Cardinals franchise all-time list and his 1,085 strikeouts rank 4th all-time.

Carpenter is the Cardinals all-time leader in postseason wins (10) and innings pitched (108.0).

JAMES (JIM) PATRICK EDMONDS

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Jim Edmonds enters his second season as a Special Instructor with the Cardinals. Edmonds has also worked for seven seasons on the Cardinals television broadcast team for FOX Sports Midwest.

An eight-time Gold Glove recipient and four-time All-Star, Edmonds was one of the best outfielders to play center field for the Cardinals. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in the inaugural year of the Hall opening in 2014. Edmonds played parts of 17 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Angels, Cardinals, Padres, Cubs, Brewers and Reds, and holds a career .284 batting average after playing in over 2,000 games. He ended his career just shy of 500 doubles (437), 400 homers (393) and 1,200 RBI (1,199).

The bulk of Edmonds career was spent wearing a Cardinals uniform, as he played for eight seasons with St. Louis (2000-07), hitting .285 with 241 home runs and 713 RBI. He helped lead the team to six playoff appearances, including the 2006 World Series Championship, and in 2000 and 2004 finished in the top five in National League MVP voting.

The left-handed hitting Edmonds was known for his highlight reel catches, perhaps none bigger than his diving catch in Game 7 of the National League Championship Series vs. the Houston Astros at Busch Stadium in 2004. One night after Edmonds forced Game 7 with a 12th-inning, two-run, walk-off homer, he snared a line drive in the left-center field gap with a diving catch and his back to the plate.

Edmonds, 49, has four children; daughters Lauren, Hayley and Sutton, and a son, Landon.

CAREER NOTES

- 2019 Rawlings Gold Glove Award finalist in center field, ranking 3rd among NL center fielders in SABR's Defensive Index (9.3).
- 2019 "Best Defensive Outfielder" in the National League, according to Baseball America's Best Tools Survey
- In 2019, led the National League in 5-star catches (4) and defensive jump (1.7), and ranked 3rd in Outs Above Average (13) according to Statcast. Finished 1st among NL outfielders in Ultimate Zone Rating (12.9) and 7th in Defensive Runs Saved (13) according to FanGraphs advanced metrics.
- His .956 zone rating in 2019 was the highest by an outfielder in Cardinals history since the category began being tracked in 1987, according to Stats LLC.
- Of his 27 career home runs, 20 have been hit away from Busch Stadium, with highs of three each at PETCO Park, Oracle Park and Miller Park.
- Was one of eight MLB players in 2019 to record double-digit totals in home runs, stolen bases, and hit by pitches. Only Bader and Mike Trout have done it the past two seasons (2018-19).
- Is one of 15 National Leaguers and the only Cardinal to post back-to-back seasons with double-digit home run and stolen base totals (2018-19).
- Named to both the 2018 Baseball America and Topps All-Rookie Teams at one of three outfield positions with Atlanta's Ronald Acuña, Jr. and Washington's Juan Soto.
- 2018 MLBPA Heart & Hustle Award nominee for the Cardinals.
- In 2018, led Major League Baseball in 5-star catches (7) & was T-1st in Outs Above Average (21) according to Statcast. Finished 4th in defensive runs saved (19) according to FanGraphs advanced metrics.
- Tied for the 2018 National League lead among rookies with eight outfield assists.
- 2017 Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year.
- Lived with then Brewers special assistant to general manager Craig Counsell and family in Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin while playing for the Lakeshore Chinooks of the collegiate summer Northwoods League after his freshman season at Florida in 2013.

St. Louis Cardinals All-Time Leaders

- The 2020 season is his 10th in St. Louis (2011-20), tying Ray Blades (1922-28, '30-32) and Al Brazle (1943, '46-54) for 8th-most among players to appear exclusively as a member of the Cardinals.
- Ranks among Cardinals all-time leaders in walks (641, 9th) plate appearance per walk (7.50, 3rd), multiple-walk games (132, 6th), extra-base hits (459, 14th), doubles (284, 14th), and home runs (148, 14th).
- Collected his 1,000th career hit on March 29, 2019 at Milwaukee. Is one of five players with 1,000 hits exclusively as a member of the Cardinals. Joined Stan Musial (3,630), Yadier Molina (1,963), Terry Moore (1,318) and Pepper Martin (1,227).
- Set the St. Louis franchise record for most doubles by a left-handed batter (55) in 2013, breaking the mark (53) held by Stan Musial since 1953. The 55 doubles were also a team record for a second baseman.

Home Runs

- His 24 career lead-off home runs are the most in Cardinals history and rank 7th among active Major Leaguers (30th all-time).
- Hit single-season franchise record eight leadoff home runs in 2018, breaking his previous record of five (2015) that was shared with Lou Brock (1967, 1970) and Ray Lankford (1994).
- Has hit 111-of-148 career home runs while batting in the No. 1 position in the lineup, ranking 4th among active Major Leaguers (T22nd all-time).
- His career high and team-leading 36 home runs in 2018 were the most hit by a Cardinal since Albert Pujols (37) in 2011 and the most by a Cardinals left-handed hitter since Jim Edmonds (42) in 2004. He finished the season ranked T-6th (Stan Musial, 1949) among Cardinals left-handed batters in single season home runs.
- In 2018, was the only Major Leaguer to lead his team in home runs (36) and start 100 or more games from the leadoff spot in the same season, and second Cardinal in franchise history, joining Jesse Burkett (10 HR, 141 GS) in 1901. (Elias).

Walks

- Has recorded six seasons of 30 or more doubles and 70 or more walks (2013-18). Only Stan Musial (14) and Albert Pujols (9) have more in Cardinals history.
- Is one of five players to draw 60 or more walks in each of the last seven seasons (2013-19), joining Mike Trout, Carlos Santana, Paul Goldschmidt, and Anthony Rizzo.
- Since 2017, is one of four Major Leaguers to record two 100+ walk seasons, joining Joey Votto (2017-18), Mike Trout (2018-19), and Carlos Santana (2018-19).
- Is one of five Cardinals with multiple 100-walk seasons, joining Stan Musial (3, 1949, '53-54), Albert Pujols (3, 2008-10), Miller Huggins (2, 1910, '14), Mark McGwire (2, 1998-99), and Jim Edmonds (2, 2000, '04).
- Ranked 2nd in the NL with a career-high 109 walks in 2017, and finished 4th in 2018 with 102 free passes.
- His 95 walks in 2014 marked the highest single-season total by a Cardinals third baseman in franchise history.

Defensive Accolades

- Is one of only seven players in Major League history to appear defensively in 200 or more career games at first base, second base and third base.
- In 2016, became the first player in MLB history to start at least 40 games each at first base, second base and third base during a season in which he hit 20 or more home runs.

Postseason Career

- Ranks among all-time Cardinals postseason leaders in pitches/PA (4.19, 1st), games (47, 7th), sacrifice flies (3, T1st), extra-base hits (15, T6th), and go-ahead RBI (7, 4th).
- Became first player in franchise history to homer in three consecutive games of a single postseason series (2014 Division Series Games 1-3 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers).
- Recorded eight extra-base hits during 2014 postseason, tying a MLB single-postseason record by a leadoff hitter, shared by Rickey Henderson (1989 Athletics), Lenny Dykstra (1993 Phillies) and Derek Jeter (2009 Yankees).

- Ranked 3rd on the Cardinals in walks (63), 5th in home runs (15), T6th in runs (59) and T2nd in sacrifice flies (5), while posting career-high six stolen bases at the age of 33.
- Hit 13 solo home runs (3rd on St. Louis) for the season, one two-run and one three-run.
- Hit game-winning solo homer (#13) in the 10th inning at Chicago Cubs (9/19) off Craig Kimbrel in 5-4 win in the first win of a four-game series sweep of the Cubs at Wrigley Field. (9/19-9/22) Marked his 4th career homer in extra-innings.
- Homered (#14) on 9/27 vs. Chicago Cubs and reached base safely four times. Marked 100th career solo homer and 147th homer of his career.
- Hit five homers and had 14 RBI in May, his highest monthly total of the season in both categories.
- Batted .267 (16-60, 10 RBI) in September, his highest batting average in any month of the season.
- Hit a pinch-hit walk-off single vs. Cincinnati (8/31) in Game 2 of doubleheader; his 7th career walk-off RBI.
- Passed Ken Boyer (634) for 9th all-time in walks (641) in Cardinals history at Milwaukee (8/26).
- Scored his 700th career run vs. Milwaukee (8/19), becoming the 21st Cardinal in club history to amass 700 runs.
- Moved past Jim Edmonds into 7th place in Cardinals history with 132 career multiple-walk games.
- Collected his 1,000th career hit on 3/29 at Milwaukee, becoming the 6th player with 1,000 career hits exclusively as a member of the Cardinals. Joined Stan Musial (3,630), Yadier Molina (1,963), Marty Marion (1,402), Terry Moore (1,318) and Pepper Martin (1,227).
- Collected season-high three RBI on final day of the season, hitting a three-run home run (#15) vs. Chicago Cubs (9/29). Was his first homer with more than one runner on base since 8/13/18 vs. Washington and his 21st career home run vs. the Cubs, his most against any MLB opponent

- Became the first Cardinal since Albert Pujols (2008-09) and the first Major Leaguer since Miguel Cabrera (2011, DET) to score 100 runs, draw 100 walks, hit 40 doubles and 30 home runs in a single season. It marked the 32nd instance all-time in MLB history, and first ever without hitting into a double play during the season.
- His career high and team-leading 36 home runs were the most hit by a Cardinal since Albert Pujols (37 in 2011) and the most by a Cardinals left-handed hitter since Jim Edmonds (42 in 2004). He finished the season ranked T-6th (Stan Musial, 1949) among Cardinals left-handed batters in single-season home runs.
- Was the only MLB player to lead his team in home runs (36) and start 100 or more games from the leadoff spot in the same season, and second Cardinal in franchise history, joining Jesse Burkett (10 HR, 141 GS) in 1901. (Elias).
- Ranked among NL leaders in home runs (T-3rd), doubles (42, T-4th), runs (111, 3rd), walks (102, 4th), intentional walks (17, 2nd), OBP (.374, 10th), SLG (.523, 9th), extra-base hits (78, T-3rd), total bases (295, 8th), times on base (253, 8th).
- Ranked 5th in AB/HR (15.67), his best season ratio, surpassing 20.50 in 2015 when he hit 28 home runs.
- Ranked 5th in the NL in pitches/PA (4.21) and PA/BB (6.64).
- Led the Cardinals with 156 games played (T16th NL).
- Tied for the NL lead (César Hernández, José Peraza & Trea Turner) in bunt singles (8).
- Led MLB with 50 extra-base hits on the road and the NL with 23 home runs hit on the road (Khris Davis, OAK, 25).
- Broke Cardinals record with 23 career lead-off home runs (Lou Brock, 21) and established a new single-season record with eight lead-off home runs.
- Surpassed Brock with his 22nd career lead-off home run vs. COL (7/31) off Jon Gray.
- Tied for the NL lead with Atlanta's Ronald Acuña, Jr., hitting eight leadoff home runs trailing only Cleveland's Francisco Lindor for the MLB lead.
- Hit Cardinals record eight home runs vs. Chicago in 2018, including six during a five-game series in July.
- Led MLB with 8 HR, 19 RBI and 14 runs scored over 19 games against the Cubs, tied Jim Edmonds for the most home runs by a Cardinal vs. CHI in a single season and had the most HR vs. the Cubs in a single-season since Greg Vaughn (9) with Cincinnati in 1999.
- Raised batting average from .140 on 5/16 to a season-high .283 on 8/4, batting .345 (92-267) with 25 HR, 46 RBI, 27 doubles, 61 runs and slugged .727; leading MLB in batting, slugging, home runs, hits, runs and doubles during period.
- Hit his 3rd career walk-off home run vs. MIL (4/10), coming in the 11th inning, his 3rd career extra inning home run and 5th career walk-off RBI.
- Hit 100th career home run (5/1), a game-tying shot in the 9th inn. vs. CWS off Joakim Soria.
- Went 5-for-5 with two home runs, three RBI and five runs (tied franchise record) on 6/26 vs. CLE, becoming the first Cardinals player in recorded history with that stat line (5 hits/5 runs/2 HR). Was his 5th career multi-home run game.
- Posted two multi-homer games, both on days going 5-for-5.

- Hit his 2nd career pinch-hit home run at SF (7/8) coming off Ray Black into McCovey Cove. Was the first Cardinals home run into San Francisco Bay since Larry Walker accomplished the feat 13 years to the day (7/8/05).
- Recorded historic day at Chicago Cubs (7/20) with 5 extra-base hits (3 HR, 2 2B), 7 RBI and 4 runs scored. Tied club record (Mark Whiten, 1993) with 16 total bases. Had the Cardinals' first three-homer game since Albert Pujols (2010) & tied Lou Brock's club mark with 21st career leadoff home run
- Reached base safely in career-high 35 straight games (7/8-8/17), 4th-longest on-base streak in MLB in 2018 and longest by a Cardinal since Matt Holliday reached base safely in 44 straight in 2015.
- Homered in six straight games (7/14-7/21), the longest streak in the NL and 2nd-longest in MLB (K. Morales, 7, 8/19-8/26). Tied Cardinals record held by Mark McGwire, which spanned from 1997-98, but was longest in one season.
- Became the first MLB player to reach the 30 home run/30 double plateau (8/7 at MIA).
- Tied Major League and franchise records after hitting four doubles at Colorado (8/26), the first Cardinal to do so since Joe "Ducky" Medwick in 1937.
- Went 19 games between his 34th (8/31) and 35th (9/21) home runs, his 2nd-longest homerless stretch behind 34 games in 2017.
- Faced five different pitchers vs. Milwaukee (9/24): 1-for-4, RBI double, hit-by-pitch.

2017

- Posted a career and team-high 109 walks, the 8th player in Cardinals history (15th instance) to post 100 or more walks. Ranked 2nd in the N.L. in walks. Was 6th-highest season walk total in Cardinals history.
- Appeared in a team-high 145 games, starting 110 at 1B, 16 at 3B and 13 at 2B.
- Led the Cardinals in doubles (31) and extra base hits (56).
- Hit three lead-off home runs (6/24 vs. PIT off Gerrit Cole, 9/20 at CIN off Rookie Davis, 9/26 vs. CHI off Jake Arrieta), bringing his career total to 15, 2nd-most in Cardinals history.
- Smacked 30 doubles and drew over 70 walks for the 5th consecutive season.
- Hit 30 doubles, 20 home runs, 100 walks, joining Albert Pujols (2008-10), Stan Musial (1949, 53-54) and Jim Edmonds (2004) as only Cardinals to achieve those marks.
- Had an extra base hit in 7 straight games (6/10-6/16), the longest streak by a Cardinal in 2017.
- Walked a career-high four times on 9/12 vs. CIN.
- Had a season-high 21-game on-base streak (6/22-7/18), his longest in-season on-base streak since 2013.
- Twelve of his 23 home runs tied the game or gave the Cardinals the lead.
- Of his 23 home runs, 12 were solo home runs.
- Hit first career grand slam vs. Toronto (4/27 - G1) off J.P. Howell, a one-out walk-off shot in the 11th inning. His 4th career walk-off RBI and 2nd career walk-off home run. Was Cardinals first walk-off extra inning grand slam since Tom Herr (4/18/1987 vs. NYM).

- Since 2013, only he (2013, '15, '17) and Mike Trout (2011-16, '18-19) have finished among the top three of their league MVP voting three or more times.
- Six-time National League All-Star (2013-18), a Diamondbacks franchise record, and the first Diamondback in team history to be elected and start multiple All-Star Games (2014-15).
- Is one of eight first basemen to earn both All-Star and Gold Glove honors in the same season on three or more occasions, joining Steve Garvey, Todd Helton, Keith Hernandez, Don Mattingly, Eddie Murray, Bill White and Adrián González (MLB.com).
- In 2015, joined Eddie Murray as the only two first basemen in Major League history with two Gold Gloves and a home run title through his age-27 season.
- 2013 National League Hank Aaron Award winner.
- In 2013, became the third NL player to boast a .300 average, 35 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 runs scored and 99 walks during their 25-year-old season or younger, joining Hall of Famers Mel Ott (1929 and 1932) and Eddie Mathews (1953).
- 2019 Darryl Kile Award recipient, voted on by his teammates.
- Five-time Diamondbacks nominee for MLB's Roberto Clemente (2014-18), Hank Aaron (2013-15, '17-18), and MLBPA Heart and Hustle awards (2014-18).
- Member of the 2017 Team USA World Baseball Classic Gold Medal winning team with pitcher Andrew Miller.
- Three-time (2015, '17-18) recipient of the Luis Gonzalez Award, given annually to Diamondback who best exemplifies the talents, spirit and heart of the Diamondbacks legend both on and off the field, as voted by his teammates, coaches and clubhouse staff.

Career

- Among players in Major League history with at least 750 career plate appearances against left-handed pitching, his career 1.016 OPS ranks 6th all-time. Active leader Giancarlo Stanton (1.027) ranks 3rd.
- He and Mike Trout are the only MLB players to score 75 or more runs in eight straight seasons since 2012.

- Since 2013, leads all Major Leaguers in intentional walks (101) and go-ahead RBI (190), while ranking 2nd in runs scored (696) and times on base (1,834); 3rd in on-base pct. (.397), OPS (.928), extra-base hits (473), and total bases (2,072); 4th in walks (653) and RBI (699); 5th in game-winning RBI (87); 6th in hits (1,151); 7th in doubles (240) and home runs (215), and 8th in slugging pct. (.531)

Home Runs

- Enters the 2020 season seven home runs shy of reaching 250 for his career.
- Since 2013, is one of six Major Leaguers to reach the 30-homer threshold at least five times, joining Edwin Encarnacion (7), Nelson Cruz (6), Manny Machado (5), Nolan Arenado (5), and Mike Trout (5).
- Has hit 60 of 243 career home runs (24.7%) in the first inning of games, most of any inning. Since his MLB debut in 2011, only Mike Trout (77) and Albert Pujols (64) have more.
- Has hit 39 career home runs on the first pitch of his at-bats, his most of any count.
- Since making his Major League debut in 2011, has hit 243 home runs and stole 127 bases. The only other Major League player to have as many home runs and stolen bases is Mike Trout (285 HR, 200 SB).
- Hit career high-tying three home runs at Milwaukee in the second game of the regular season (March 29, 2019). Marked the 21st three-homer game by a Cardinal (12th player), and only the 2nd time a Cardinals 2nd place hitter enjoyed a three-homer game (also Bill White on 7/5/61 at Dodgers in the Los Angeles Coliseum).
- The three-homer game was the first by a Cardinal in the month of March and only the 6th in MLB history to occur through the first two games of any season (since 1920).
- Homered in career-high six straight games from July 22-27, 2019, matching the Cardinals record shared by Matt Carpenter & Mark McGwire.
- Is the only right-handed batter to homer into the Allegheny River at PNC Park (2001-present). His 10th-inning, go-ahead grand slam on July 22, 2019 marked the 34th different player (52nd instance) a ball reached the river.

Stolen Bases

- Is one of only three first basemen in MLB history with 125+ home runs and 125+ stolen bases in their career, joining Jeff Bagwell (446 HR, 201 SB) and Andres Galarraga (387 HR, 127 SB) (stats as first basemen only).
- His 79.4% stolen base pct. (127-for-160) is the highest mark all-time among primary first baseman in MLB history
- Since 1974, his 127 career stolen bases tie Andres Galarraga for 3rd all-time among first basemen, trailing only Jeff Bagwell (201) and Rod Carew (175) (stats as first basemen only).
- His 127 career stolen bases lead all primary MLB first basemen since his MLB debut in 2011 (Eric Hosmer is 2nd with 67).
- Stole career high 32 bags in 2016, 4th-most by a first baseman (since 1976), and most since Gregg Jefferies stole 46 for St. Louis in 1993.

- Won all six of his decisions after the All-Star Break (T12th-most among NL pitchers).
- Led Major League Baseball with five wins in August, and also became the first Cardinals rookie left-hander to win five games in August (since 1913).
- Became the first Cardinals left-hander to begin his career with a 5-0 record since Allen Watson started 6-0 in his rookie season of 1993.
- As a starter, was 5-2 with 4.26 ERA in his 11 starts (57.0 IP). Pitched 6.0 innings or more in five outings (all quality starts).
- Appeared in 18 games as a reliever, going 1-0 with a 5.00 ERA (18.0 IP) and 14 strikeouts. Stranded 4 of 8 inherited runners, and ranked T16th among NL rookies with 7 Holds. Retired his first batter faced in only eight of 18 outings.
- Had more success away from Busch Stadium, going 3-0 with a 3.98 ERA (43.0 IP/ 19 ER) and 39 strikeouts in 13 games (seven starts) on the road.
- Initially recalled on 4/29 at Pittsburgh, but did not appear in a game (optioned on 5/4).
- Recalled on 5/31 (with RHP Mike Mayers and 1B Luke Voit) and made his MLB debut on 6/2 vs. Pittsburgh. Struck out Starling Marte (swinging) for his first MLB strikeout. Became the third Cardinals reliever and first left-hander to throw 3.0 hitless IP in his MLB debut (since 1908), joining Dick Hughes (3.0 IP; 9/11/66) & Ray Washburn (4.1 IP; 9/20/61). Also joined Ryan Sherriff (8/25/17 vs. TB) as the second Cardinal in last 20 years to toss at least 3.0 scoreless relief IP in his MLB debut.
- Appeared in a team-leading 14 games in June (T2nd in NL). Also ranked 2nd among MLB rookie relievers with 7 Holds in June, 2nd among National League pitchers.
- Did not allow a hit to the first 14 right-handed batters he faced until 6/25 vs. Cleveland (Rajai Davis, 9th inning single).
- Was the Cardinals most used reliever over a 15-game stretch (6/2-7/3), appearing in 15 games that ranked T4th-most in MLB over that period.
- Recalled on 7/24 and made his first career MLB start at Cincinnati that night...began start with 6.1 no-hit innings before Joey Votto singled in the 7th after the game was delayed by stadium fire alarms.
- He and Daniel Ponce de Leon (7/23 at CIN) became the first pair of rookie teammates to carry consecutive no-hitters into the 7th inning since 1964. Also joined Michael Wacha (6/3 vs. PIT) and Ponce de Leon as Cardinals to carry no-hitters 6.0 or more IP in 2018.
- Joined Daniel Ponce de Leon and Jack Flaherty as rookies to make three consecutive starts in a series at Cincinnati (July 23-25), marking the first time St. Louis started three rookies (Mike Busby, Matt Morris and Manny Aybar) since their final series of the 1997 season (Sept. 26-28 vs. Chicago), and the first time outside of expanded September rosters since August 8-9, 1959 vs. Philadelphia (Marshall Bridges, Ernie Broglio, Bob Gibson).
- Earned first MLB win vs. Colorado (8/1) in relief, striking out two during a scoreless 6th.
- Threw 5.0 scoreless IP to gain his first win as a starter at Kansas City (8/10), combining with Chasen Shreve (1.0) and Daniel Ponce de Leon (3.0) on a 7-0 shutout.

- Stretched win streak to three games with 6.0 shutout innings in 4-2 win over Washington (8/15), matching his career-high with six strikeouts.
- Blanked the Dodgers over his first 4.0 innings (8/20), improving his scoreless inning streak to 15.0, but took ND in the Cardinals 5-3 win at Dodger Stadium that featured 9th inning home runs from Jedd Gyorko & Matt Carpenter.
- Improved to 4-0 with a 12-3 Cardinals win at Coors Field (8/26). He became the Cardinals first left-handed starter to win a game at Coors Field since Kent Mercker (1999).
- Hurlled quality start in a no-decision in 5-3 walk-off loss at Detroit (9/7). Joined Rick Ankiel (6/10/00) as the 2nd Cardinals rookie left-hander to start a game at Comerica Park, and the 5th Cardinals rookie to start a game in Detroit in the regular or postseason, joining Paul Dean (10/8/1934 - W.S. Game 6), José Jimenez (6/4/1999 at Tiger Stadium) and Anthony Reyes (10/21/2006 - W.S. Game 1).

- Earned his sixth win at Atlanta (9/18), limiting the Braves to one run over 5.0 IP in St. Louis' 8-1 win. His lone run blemish was a Ronald Acuña solo homer in the 3rd inning.
- Hit safely in three straight games (8/26-9/13), 6th-longest hitting streak by a pitcher in 2018 (Max Scherzer, 6G)
- Smashed a two-RBI double over the head of Billy Hamilton vs. CIN (8/31).
- Recorded two RBI in back-to-back games (8/26 at COL and 8/31 vs. CIN), becoming the 21st Cardinals pitcher all-time with consecutive multi-RBI games and first since Adam Wainwright (4/27-5/2/16).
- Ranked T12th among MLB pitchers with 4 RBI, while co-leading rookie pitchers with Pittsburgh's Nick Kingham.
- Was 7-3 with a 3.42 ERA (68.1 IP/26 ER) and 76 strikeouts in 12 games (11 starts) over three stints with the Memphis Redbirds (AAA).
- Two-time Pacific Coast League Pitcher of the Week Winner: April 23-29 and May 21-27.
- Honored as the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Month for April, going 2-0 with a 2.45 ERA (25.2 IP) over four starts.
- Matched Memphis single-game club record with 16 strikeouts at Iowa (4/23) during 8.0 scoreless innings of six-hit ball. His 16 strikeouts matched Lance Lynn (9/10/2010 at OKC) and were the most in a PCL regular season game since Sacramento's Dallas Braden fanned 17 (8/27/07 vs. CSP).
- Optioned (7/6) and transitioned to a starting pitcher. Went 3-0 with a 2.70 ERA (13.1 IP) and 13 strikeouts in three starts.
- Rated as the Pacific Coast League's No. 19 prospect by Baseball America following the season.

2017

- Co-led the majors with nine saves (9-for-9) in month of July along with Kansas City's Ian Kennedy.
- His nine saves in July were most in a month in his career. Appeared in 12 games in July, his most in a month since career high of 14 in Sept. of 2014. Opponents batted .295 (13-44) in July, highest month since June 2018 (.312).
- Longest outing of the season was 2.2 scoreless innings at SD (6/30), with a season-high 41 pitches.

2019 POSTSEASON: Made four relief appearances in the postseason with three in the Division Series and one in the LCS...earned his first postseason win in Game 1 of the NLDS at ATL...took the loss in Game 3 of the NLDS allowing three runs in the 9th inning for a blown save...threw a scoreless appearance recording one out in Game 1 of the NLCS vs. WSH, extending his LCS scoreless streak to eight appearances.

- Made 18 starts and 15 relief appearances over an injury-plagued season with St. Louis.
- Missed a total of 63 games with three stints on the disabled list: right lat strain (5/9-6/4), right oblique strain (7/20-7/29), and right shoulder strain (7/31-8/21). Prior to the 2018 season, he'd never been on the D.L.
- Ended 2018 season with exactly 800 career strikeouts, and moved into 13th place all-time in Cardinals history.

- Fanned Milwaukee's Keon Broxton (swinging) for his 800th strikeout (9/26).
- Limited the opposition to a career-low .228 average against (100-439).
- Limited opposition to a .187 average (25-134) with runners in scoring-position, 5th-lowest in the NL in 2018 and 6th-lowest all-time in Cardinals single-season history. In 2015, he limited the opposition to .181 with RISP, 3rd-best in franchise history.
- Allowed just five home runs in 118.2 innings pitched. His 0.38 HR/9 IP ratio was the lowest in Major League baseball among pitchers with at least 115.0 innings pitched, while his .314 opponent slugging percentage was the 4th-lowest among NL pitchers.
- Induced team-leading 14 ground ball double plays, T14th-most in the NL. His 87 GDP induced since 2015 rank 3rd in MLB behind Martin Perez (88) and Kyle Gibson (97).
- Had most success against the NL West, going 4-0 with a 1.46 ERA (4 ER/24.2 IP), one save, and 27 strikeouts in eight games (three starts). Since 2015, ranks 1st in win pct. (.789, 15-4), 6th in ERA (2.91), and 9th in wins vs. N.L. West.
- Issued team-leading 60 walks, T14th-most in the NL. Co-led (Tyler Chatwood-CHI) the NL with 21 walks in June. His career-high 4.55 walks/9 IP was the 2nd-highest rate in the NL behind Robbie Ray (5.09) (min. 110 innings pitched).
- Ranked T4th in MLB with 11 hit batsmen, matching his career high from 2016. Hit a batsman in a club-record seven consecutive games (9/26/17-4/26/18), T4th-longest in Major League Baseball history. Hit a career-high 3 batters vs. NYM (4/26), becoming the first Cardinal with 3 HBP in a game since Jake Westbrook (7/29/13 vs. PIT).
- Led all of MLB with an 0.54 ERA in the month of April, his lowest career ERA in a single month and lowest April ERA in Cardinals recorded history (since 1900; min. 30 IP).
- Logged a team-leading 18.0-scoreless IP streak (4/10-4/21), the 17th-longest in the NL.
- Pitched 8.1 scoreless innings of four-hit ball with 10 strikeouts at Milwaukee (4/4) for his 1st win of 2018 before being removed after 114 pitches in the 9th inning.
- Recorded a pair of double-digit strikeout games, fanning 10 at Milwaukee (4/4) and 11 at Cincinnati (4/15). His 10 career double-digit strikeout games rank T4th in Cardinals history (Gibson 74, Carpenter 14, Carlton 13).
- Missed 23 games while on 10-day D.L. (May 9-June 4) with a right lat strain. It was first time in his career he was on the disabled list. Was leading the NL with his 1.62 ERA at the time of going on the disabled list.
- Activated (6/5) and was 3-4 with a 5.32 ERA (45.2 IP/27 ER), 26 walks and 42 strikeouts in his next nine starts.
- Made his first start since coming off the D.L. (6/5) vs. MIA and managed to pitch 4.0 innings. Walked 5 in that game, but also fanned 5 & moved past Chris Carpenter (356) for 4th all-time in career strikeouts at Busch Stadium III with 359. Failed to work into the 5th inning (13 outs or more) for the first time since May 14, 2016, ending his streak of 65 consecutive starts having done so.
- Walked five or more batters in three straight starts (June 5-16), first time by a Cardinal since 2005 (Jason Marquis).
- Snapped three-game losing skid with his 50th career win (6/26) vs. Cleveland, becoming the 10th-youngest Cardinal to reach the 50-win milestone (since 1900).
- Came away with his second straight losing start in the second half opener at Chicago (7/19). Five of his six runs allowed came in the 5th inning as the Cubs overcame a 3-1 deficit. Placed on the 10-day DL the following day (7/20) with a right oblique strain.
- Activated from the DL (8/21) and appeared exclusively in relief to end the season.
- Was 2-0 with a 1.47 ERA (18.1 IP), five saves, and 19 strikeouts in 15 appearances, with a slash-line of .177/.297/.226.
- Twelve of his 15 appearances were scoreless. Pitched multiple frames five times.
- Retired his first batter faced in 12 of 15 outings, and stranded all six of his inherited runners.
- Converted all five saves in five opportunities in September, T6th-most in the NL during the month.
- Celebrated his 27th birthday (9/21) by notching his 4th save in four attempts, striking out a pair.

CAREER NOTES

- Selected by MLB to represent the Cardinals on the 2018 National League All-Star team in Washington D.C., his first career MLB All-Star nod. Missed game to return home to Jupiter, Fla., with his wife Lauren, as they welcomed twin daughter (Madelyn) and son (Miles) on July 16, 2018.
- Finished 6th in the 2018 NL Cy Young Award voting.
- Is lifetime 13-10 with a 2.56 ERA (200.2 IP) at Busch Stadium. His 2.56 ERA ranks as the 4th-lowest in Busch Stadium III history (minimum 75.0 innings).
- Was 1st Cardinal pitcher and only the sixth NL pitcher (last Orel Hershiser in 1988-89) to lead the league in wins one season and losses the next. (Elias).
- 2018 Darryl Kile Award recipient, voted on by his teammates.
- Pitched three seasons in the Japanese Central League (2015-17) and was a combined 31-13 with 2.25 ERA in 62 starts for the Yomiuri Giants.
- Signed a four-year contract extension through 2023 on February 26, 2019.

Since Signing with St. Louis (2018-present)

- The Cardinals sport a 41-23 record (.641 win pct.) in his 64 total starts. Over that timespan, those 41 team wins are tied with Jon Lester (41-22 Cubs record) for most by any National League starting pitcher.
- Ranks among NL leaders in wins (27, 5th), starts (64, T3rd), innings pitched (384.2, 5th), quality starts (37, 7th), complete games (2, T3rd), shutouts (2, T1st), and opp. ground into double plays (41, 1st).
- Has walked just 61 batters in 64 starts (384.2 innings) for a 1.43 BB/9 IP. Only Hyun-Jin Ryu (1.32) sports a lower walk/9 IP ratio over that time span. Led the National League in 2018 (1.30) and finished behind only Ryu (1.23) in 2019 at 1.57.
- Leads all National League starting pitchers in most starts while issuing zero walks (22), one walk or fewer (49), and two walks or fewer (62).
- Only Mikolas (61 walks, 64 starts), Mike Leake (61 walks, 63 starts) and Hyun-Jin Ryu (39 walks, 44 starts) are the only MLB pitchers to issue fewer walks than starts (minimum 30 starts).

- Mikolas (29 walks, 32 starts) and Nathan Eovaldi (20 walks, 21 starts,) were the only MLB pitchers to issue fewer walks than starts in 2018 (minimum 20 starts).
- Co-led the National League in wins (18) with Max Scherzer and Jon Lester, becoming the first Cardinal to do so since Adam Wainwright (19 in 2013) and the first in franchise history to do so in his very first season with the Redbirds.
- His league-leading .818 win pct. (18-4) was the best by a Cardinal since Kyle Lohse paced the Senior Circuit in 2012 (16-3, .842).
- Was a perfect 10-0 on the road, becoming only the 3rd MLB pitcher (dating to 1908) to post a 1.000 road winning pct. while winning 10 or more games, joining Greg Maddux (13-0 for 1995 Braves) and Jimmy Key (10-0 for 1994 Yankees).

First Career Major League HitJune 30, 2013 vs. Chicago Cubs
(5th inning, double, off Edwin Jackson)First Career Major League Home RunJuly 19, 2013 at Houston
(6th inning, 2-run, off Bud Norris)

- Became the first Rays player to hit two triples in a series at Fenway Park (4/14-17).
- Drew a career-high four walks vs. MIA (5/2), tied for the most by a second baseman during the 2017 season with Chris Taylor, who pulled off the feat the same day vs. SF.
- Hit a solo home run off Mike Montgomery vs. CHI (9/19), the Rays only hit of the game and marked the 7th time since 1913, that a team's only hit of a game was a home run by the No. 9 batter in the lineup.
- Batted .320 (8-25) with two doubles, two home runs and nine RBI over his final eight games of the season to move his batting average above .200 for the season.
- Made only one error over his final 62 games of the season (159 total chances), tied for the fewest among qualifying MLB second basemen (Daniel Murphy & Jed Lowrie).
- Following the season, underwent core muscle surgery, performed by Dr. William Meyers in Philadelphia.

2016

- Established career-highs with 30 HR, 81 RBI, 29 doubles, 6 triples, 133 hits and 73 runs.
- His 30 home runs hit were one more than his total of 29 hit in his first three Major League seasons.
- Ranked T-5th in the American League, tying his career-high with six triples.
- Hit 27 of his 30 home runs vs. right-handed pitchers.
- Joined teammate Evan Longoria becoming the 3rd pair of Rays teammates to hit 30 home runs in a season (Longoria & Carlos Peña 2009; Fred McGriff & José Canseco 1999).
- Became the 17th player in Major League history to hit at least 30 HR while playing the majority of his games at shortstop, but the first of those who hit left-handed.
- Set the Rays record for home runs by a primary shortstop and the then-record for most while playing the position (19) before it was passed in 2019 by Willy Adames (20).
- Enjoyed three multi-home run games (8/13 at NYY; 8/16 vs. SD & 9/21 vs. NYY).
- Homered in three straight games (8/3-5 vs. KC & MIN).
- Began the season as the starting shortstop and finished as the primary first baseman. Started 140 games (SS-95, 1B-37, DH-7, LF-1). Was one of three players since 1913 to make at least 35 starts at shortstop and first base in the same season with Mark Loretta (MIL, 1999) and Dots Miller (STL, 1914).
- Hit 8 HR and 26 RBI in the month of August. Established his career-high in both categories and was the 4th-most RBI in the American League in August 2016. The 26 RBI were 5th-most by a Rays player in August in franchise history.
- Hit the fifth home run in Tropicana Field history to land in the Rays Touch Tank in right-centerfield since it opened in 2006 vs. NYY (7/31).
- Led all MLB players with five games hitting a double and a triple in the same game.
- According to STATS LLC, the eight times his home runs accounted for all the Rays runs in a game tied the MLB record (since 1974) by George Hendrick with the 1980 Cardinals.

2015

- Named American League Player of the Week (5/12-18) batting .429 (9-21) with 4 HR, 5 RBI and three doubles. Hit safely in all six games and collected a multi-home run game vs. BOS (5/16).
- Collected a career-high 13 stolen bases in 17 attempts.
- Was named the Seattle Mariners Unsung Hero Award winner, given out by the Seattle Chapter of the BBWAA to the player who makes significant contributions on and off the field with media, staff and fans.

2014

- Was on the Seattle Opening Day roster and played in 123 games during the season, starting 105 at shortstop, with two starts at second base.
- One of five American League shortstops to post double-digit home run totals (A. Ramirez 15, Bogaerts 12, S. Rodriguez 12, Zobrist 10).

- Played in 76 games his rookie season with Seattle after being promoted from Tacoma (AAA) where he had completed a streak of 22 straight games with a hit prior to his promotion.
- Made his Major League debut vs. CHI (6/28) and collected an RBI. Recorded his first MLB hit two days later when he hit the first of two doubles in a game, the first off Edwin Jackson.
- Named American League Player of the Week (7/16-22), collecting his first career multi-home run game at HOU (7/19) while tallying a career-high 5 RBI. Was first Mariners rookie to win the weekly award since Ken Griffey, Jr., in 1989.
- Posted a game with two doubles (6/30 vs. CHI), two triples (7/5 at CIN) and two home runs (7/19 at HOU) in his first 17 Major League games.
- Hit a career-high two triples at CIN (7/5).
- Hit his first and only career grand slam as part of his 4th career multi-home run game vs. OAK (9/28) off Jarrod Parker. Matched his career-high with 5 RBI in the game.
- Played for the U.S. Team in the Futures Game during All-Star Week in New York.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

CAREER NOTES

- The 2020 season marks Molina's 17th in the Cardinals organization (2004-20), tying Bob Gibson (17, 1959-75) for 3rd-most in franchise history, and trailing only Jesse Haines (18, 1920-37) and Stan Musial (22, 1941-44, '46-63).
- Only Stan Musial has played more seasons exclusively as a St. Louis Cardinal in their career (tied with Bob Gibson).
- Molina's 17th season with the same organization ties the most by any primary catcher in MLB history, joining Bill Dickey (Yankees, 1928-43, '46), Johnny Bench (Reds, 1967-83), and Jorge Posada (Yankees, 1995-2011).
- Is the longest tenured active Major League player to appear with the same franchise (17 seasons from 2004-20), ahead of Washington's Ryan Zimmerman (16, 2005-19), Boston's Dustin Pedroia (15, 2006-20), and teammate Adam Wainwright (15, 2005-10, '12-20).
- Made 15 straight Opening Day starts at catcher (2005-19), the most all-time by a Redbirds backstop and most consecutive at a single position by any Cardinal. His 15 Opening Day starts tie Lou Brock (15, 1965-79) for 2nd-most in franchise history and trail only Stan Musial (21, 1942-44, '46-63).
- Yadier (2006, 2011) and his two older brothers, Bengie (2002 Angels) and Jose (2009 Yankees), are the only trio of brothers to have all won a World Series ring.
- Signed a three-year contract extension on April 2, 2017, that runs through the 2020 season.

Teammates with Adam Wainwright

- Molina and Adam Wainwright have been a starting battery for 265 career regular season games, most in Cardinals history and 7th-most in Major League history (since 1908). Surpassed Bob Gibson & Tim McCarver's franchise record of 198 starts on June 15, 2016.
- The 2020 season marks the 16th (2005-20) Molina and Wainwright have been teammates, most in franchise history ahead of Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst (14 seasons from 1946-56, '61-63).
- The New York Yankees were the last Major League team to feature the same teammates for 16 or more seasons with Mariano Rivera and Derek Jeter (19 seasons; 1993-2013). The Atlanta Braves were the last National League team with John Smoltz and Tom Glavine (16 seasons; 1988-2002, '08), and Smoltz with Chipper Jones (16; 1993-2008).

All-Time Defensive Accolades

- Ranks among all-time Major League catching leaders and is the active leader in innings caught (7th, 16,327.2), games (7th, 1,947), starts (6th, 1,881), putouts (2nd, 13,434), total chances (2nd, 14,478), fielding percentage (11th, .995), and pickoffs (4th, 50).
- Also leads all active MLB catchers in caught stealing percentage (40.2), attempted basestealers caught (294), double plays (120), assists (972) since his debut in 2004.
- Led Major League catchers in caught stealing percentage on four occasions (2005, 2007, 2010, 2014).
- Since taking over as the Cardinals starting catcher in 2005, opponents have attempted only 1,219 stolen bases against St. Louis, fewest in the majors (Arizona is 2nd at 1,617).

- Started and played the duration of 133 career extra-inning games exclusively at catcher, most in Cardinals history and 16th all-time among catchers in MLB history (since 1908).
- Is one of three catchers in MLB history to have caught 100+ games in 15 seasons (2005-19). His 15 seasons of 100 or more starts behind the plate rank tie Bob Boone for 2nd-most in MLB history behind only Iván Rodríguez (16).

St. Louis Cardinals All-Time Leaders

- Ranks among Cardinals all-time leaders in games played (1,983, 4th), hits (1,963, 7th), doubles (379, 4th), RBI (916, 9th), at-bats (6,970, 4th), extra-base hits (542, 10th), and sacrifice flies (70, 1st).

Offensively Among MLB Primary Catchers

- Is the active leader and ranks among all-time catching leaders in Major League history in career at-bats (12th), hits (13th), doubles (T9th), total bases (17th), and RBI (17th).
- His career 17 four-hit games since 2004 are 3rd-most among primary catchers, trailing Joe Mauer (20) and Iván Rodríguez (19).
- Is one of just seven qualified catchers to record four seasons with a .300+ season batting mark (.305 in 2011; .315 in 2012; .319 in 2013; .307 in 2016), joining Ivan Rodríguez (7 seasons), Mike Piazza (7), Mickey Cochrane (7), Ted Simmons (6), Bill Dickey (5) and Buster Posey (4) (min. 502 plate appearances).
- Enters the 2020 season 37 career hits from reaching 2,000 and 84 RBI from 1,000, a feat accomplished by only eight primary catchers all-time in MLB history (Yogi Berra, Johnny Bench, Joe Torre, Ted Simmons, Carlton Fisk, Gary Carter, Mike Piazza, and Iván Rodríguez).
- Is Major League Baseball's 3rd-toughest catcher to strike out (once every 9.79 PA's) since his Major League debut in 2004, and ranks 23rd overall among all Major Leaguers during that time span.
- Since 2008, his 429 hits with runners in scoring position leads all Major League catchers (ranks 11th overall) and his .308 batting average (429-1395) ranks 2nd to Buster Posey (.312, 355-1138); his .281 average (189-672) with runners in scoring position and two outs, leads all catchers.
- His 212 RBI over the past three seasons (2017-19) leads all Major League catchers (J.T. Realmuto ranks 2nd with 200).

Busch Stadium III

- Holds the all-time Busch Stadium III record in games played (919), at-bats (3,183), hits (907), doubles (176), RBI (407), total bases (1,260), and singles (671).
- Is one of only four primary catchers in MLB history to hold their home stadium's all-time hits record, joining Jim Sundberg (582 at Arlington Stadium), Joe Mauer (637 at Target Field), and Buster Posey (650 at Oracle Park).
- Was the Cardinals starting catcher in the first game in Busch Stadium III history (April 10, 2006 vs. Milwaukee), opposite starting pitcher Mark Mulder.

2018

- Named to his 9th All-Star Game as an injury replacement for Buster Posey, most of any player on the National League squad. Was 0-for-1 in the game as a pinch-hitter flying out to the centerfield track.
- His ninth All-Star selection with the Cardinals tied him with Red Schoendienst, Albert Pujols and Bob Gibson among the franchise leaders.
- Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner at catcher, the ninth overall in his career.
- In November 2018 with teammate John Brebbia, played on the MLB roster against all-stars from Nippon Professional Baseball in the 2018 Japan All-Star Series, a seven-day series of games in the cities of Tokyo, Hiroshima, and Nagoya in Japan. The trip to Japan marked the 37th time overall Major Leaguers toured Japan for exhibition games in a series dating back to 1908.
- At age 36, Molina, was the oldest player on the US roster, and hit .500 (8-16) with a home run and double in four games.
- Winner of the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award, annually given by Major League Baseball to the player "who best represents the game of baseball through positive contributions on and off the field, including sportsmanship and community involvement. Joined Carlos Beltran (2013), Albert Pujols (2008), Ozzie Smith (1995) and Lou Brock (1975) as previous Cardinals winners.
- Missed 26 games (St. Louis was 13-13) due to pelvic injury with traumatic hematoma that he suffered after taking foul ball off the bat of Kris Bryant vs. CHI (5/5) on a 102 MPH pitch from Jordan Hicks. Also sat out six games (STL 3-3) in September (9/7-12) while on the active roster with a sore left hamstring.
- Surpassed Albert Pujols (1,749) on 4/1 at New York Mets and Enos Slaughter (1,751) on 4/3 at Milwaukee in games played during the first week of the season.
- Hit 20 home runs, his 2nd highest single-season total (22 in 2012) and joined Ted Simmons (1977, 79) as the only two St. Louis catchers with multiple 20 HR seasons. Became the 7th catcher in MLB history to hit 20 or more home runs at age 35 or older since A.J. Pierzynski (27, 2012, CWS).
- His 146th career homer on 9/25 vs. Milwaukee tied him with Enos Slaughter for 13th in Cardinals history.
- Upon hitting his 145th career home run on 9/22 vs. San Francisco, became the all-time home run leader in the Molina family (Bengie 144, José 39).
- Hit 17 of his 20 home runs on the road, ranking T-4th in the NL in road home runs - the most road homers hit by a Cardinals catcher in a single season.

CAREER NOTES

- After making his Major League debut in 2016, has missed the majority of the past three seasons (2017-19) due to injuries to his right elbow, right lat muscle, left pinkie finger, and right pectoral area.
- Rated as the Cardinals No. 1 prospect by Baseball America and MLB.com for four consecutive seasons (2016-19).
- Recognized as having the "Best Fastball" and "Best Curveball" in the Cardinals organization by Baseball America for three seasons (2017-19).
- His 54 career strikeouts in his first 13 games were the most by a Cardinals rookie since Luke Weaver's 60 (49.2 IP) in 2017. Later surpassed by Jack Flaherty in 2018.
- His 1.44 ERA in his first 13 career Major League games (2016, '18) is the best since the Reds' Pat Zachry posted a 1.34 mark in 1976 and the best by a Cardinals rookie since Marv Goodwin's 1.15 mark in 1917 (min. 50.0 IP).
- Is a career 3-0 with a 2.19 ERA vs. the Chicago Cubs. Was the only MLB pitcher with three wins vs. the Cubs in 2016 and the first Cardinals rookie pitcher with three wins vs. the Cubs since Brooks Lawrence went 3-0 in 1954.
- 2015 Cardinals Minor League Co-Pitcher of the Year with Austin Gomber.
- Selected as the starting pitcher for the World Team at the 2016 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game during All-Star Week in San Diego.
- Has struck out 32.3% of 1,677 total batters faced (542 strikeouts) over 394.2 career minor league innings pitched (12.4 K/9 IP).

- Posted double-digit strikeouts 14 times over 82 career minor league starts with a career-high of 13 at three different levels (vs. Dunedin at High-A-Palm Beach in 2015; vs. NW Arkansas at AA-Springfield in 2018; vs. Oklahoma City at AAA-Memphis in 2018).
- During his May 2018 rehab assignments while recovering from Tommy John surgery, tied Springfield's (AA) single-game strikeout record (13) and set a 116-year old Pacific Coast League record of striking out nine in a row for Memphis.

2019

- Made the Opening Day roster and pitched in four games out of the St. Louis bullpen during injury-shortened season.
- Allowed five runs with one strikeout and six walks over 3.0 innings before being optioned to Memphis (AAA) on 4/7.
- Appeared in 12 games (nine starts) between Memphis and Palm Beach (High-A) while suffering injuries to his left pinkie finger bone and right pectoral muscle.
- After 4/25 start at Omaha (2.2 IP, 3 R), broke the pinkie bone in his non-throwing hand after punching a wall in frustration.
- Placed on the seven-day Injured List with Memphis on 4/28.
- Re-assigned to Palm Beach on 5/23 and made a pair of starts.
- Returned to Memphis on 6/2.
- Strained his right pectoral muscle during his 6/23 start at Oklahoma City, and missed the remainder of the season.

2018

- Began the season on the disabled list returning from Tommy John surgery and made his first Major League start of the season at Milwaukee on May 30.
- Made only one Major League start, coming at Milwaukee (5/30), pitching 4.0 scoreless innings of three-hit ball with two walks and two strikeouts in a no-decision.
- Exited the game after 73 pitches and was placed on the 10-day disabled list the next day with a right lat strain ending his season.
- Underwent surgery on 6/6 by Dr. Anthony Romeo in Philadelphia to re-attach the tendon to the strained latissimus dorsi muscle in the upper right side of his back.
- His start vs. Milwaukee was his first Major League start and appearance since September 29, 2016 vs. Cincinnati, after missing all of 2017 and the first two months of the 2018 season.
- Was 3-0 with a 0.00 ERA tossing 23.0 scoreless innings allowing seven hits with 44 strikeouts in four rehab starts at every Cardinals active minor league affiliate.
- Made his first rehab start vs. Jupiter (5/9) while pitching for Palm Beach (A). Allowed four hits including two doubles, while pitching 3.1 scoreless innings with six strikeouts in a no decision.
- Struck out 12 batters over 5.0 scoreless innings allowing one hit and two walks covering 80 pitches in his second rehab start vs. Clinton (5/14) while pitching for Peoria (A). Was one strikeout shy of his career minor league high and had only four pitches put in play during the game.
- Matched the Springfield franchise record with 13 strikeouts over 7.2 scoreless innings of one-hit baseball in a 1-0 win, tossing 93 pitches vs. Northwest Arkansas (5/19).
- Fired 7.0 scoreless innings of one-hit ball on 5/24, extending his scoreless streak to 23.0 innings during his four rehab starts. Struck out 13 batters for the second consecutive rehab start, this time at Memphis (AAA), facing Oklahoma City (Dodgers).
- At one point, struck out nine straight to set the 116-year old Pacific Coast League record.

2017

- Missed the entire season following Tommy John ligament replacement surgery on his right elbow in February.

2016

- Appeared in 12 games (five starts) in St. Louis going 4-1 with a 1.57 ERA one save and 52 strikeouts in 46 innings.
- Made his Major League debut vs. CIN (8/9) in the 9th inning and struck out Adam Duvall as his first opposing batter en route to a perfect inning; marked his first relief appearance in professional baseball.
- Earned his first MLB win at Chicago (8/13) throwing 3.0 scoreless innings of relief allowing one hit with three strikeouts.
- Struck out a batter in every start or appearance with a season-high seven over 6.0 innings vs. Cincinnati (9/2).
- Won three straight decisions (9/13-24) with two starts.

CAREER NOTES

- The 2020 season marks Wainwright's 15th in the Cardinals organization as an active player (2005-10, '12-20), tying Red Schoendienst (1945-56, '61-63), Bob Forsch (1974-88), and Ozzie Smith (1982-96) for 5th-most in franchise history, and 3rd-most by a pitcher behind Jesse Haines (18 years, 1920-37) and Bob Gibson (17 years, 1959-75).
- Among players to appear exclusively as a Cardinal in their career, only Stan Musial (22, 1941-44, '46-63), Bob Gibson (17, 1959-75), and Yadier Molina (17, 2004-20) have been a Cardinal longer than Wainwright.
- Wainwright is tied with Boston's Dustin Pedroia (15 seasons from 2006-20) as the 3rd-longest tenured active Major League player to appear with the same franchise, trailing only Washington's Ryan Zimmerman (16, 2005-20), and teammate Yadier Molina (17, 2004-20).
- Wainwright (August 30, 1981) and Twins pitcher Rich Hill (March 11, 1980) enter the 2020 season as the two oldest active pitchers to have made a start during the 2019 season.
- He and Andrew Miller are the tallest pitchers in franchise history at 6-foot-7.
- Has faced every MLB team except St. Louis in his career.
- Threw a near perfect game on May 20, 2014 vs. Arizona, facing just one over the minimum; pitched a complete game one-hit (Paul Goldschmidt double) shutout as he walked none and struck out nine in the 5-0 win.
- Missed the entire 2011 season after elbow ligament replacement surgery on his right elbow on Feb. 28, 2011.
- His only career appearance at Busch Stadium II was his Major League debut (Sept. 11, 2005 vs. New York Mets), which was caught by Mike Mahoney (his only career game catching Wainwright).

Teammates with Yadier Molina

- Wainwright and Molina have been a starting battery for 265 career regular season games, most in Cardinals history and 7th-most in Major League history (since 1908). Surpassed Bob Gibson & Tim Lincecum's prior record of 198 starts on June 15, 2016.
- The 2020 season marks the 16th (2005-20) Wainwright and Molina have been teammates, most in franchise history ahead of Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst (14 seasons from 1946-56, '61-63).
- The New York Yankees were the last Major League team to feature the same teammates for 16 or more seasons with Mariano Rivera and Derek Jeter (19 seasons; 1993-2013). The Atlanta Braves were the last National League team with John Smoltz and Tom Glavine (16 seasons; 1988-2002, '08), and Smoltz with Chipper Jones (16; 1993-2008).

St. Louis Cardinals Career Leaders

- Ranks among Cardinals all-time franchise pitching leaders in wins (162, 4th), ERA (3.39, 6th), innings pitched (2,103.2, 6th), winning percentage (.630, 6th), appearances (383, 7th), starts (316, 5th), and strikeouts (1,776, 2nd) (minimum 1,500 innings pitched).
- Is one of five Cardinals to make 300 or more career starts, joining Bob Gibson (482), Bob Forsch (401), Jesse Haines (387), and Bill Doak (320).

Busch Stadium III

- Is the all-time Busch Stadium III leader in career wins (88), strikeouts (948), appearances (192), starts (161), and innings pitched (1,104.2). Also ranks 4th in ERA (2.83) and win pct. (.652) (minimum. 200 innings pitched).
- His career .652 win pct. (88-47) at home ranks 6th among active National League pitchers, while his 88 home wins rank 2nd to only Clayton Kershaw (.721, 93-36 at Dodger Stadium).
- Became the first pitcher to throw 1,000 career innings at Busch Stadium III on Sept. 16, 2018, and the 5th Cardinal to throw 1,000 innings at home stadiums, joining Bill Sherdel (1,087.1 at Sportsman's Park), Jesse Haines (1,554.0 at Sportsman's Park), Bob Gibson (1,182.0 at Busch Stadium II) and Bob Forsch (1,402.1 at Busch Stadium II).
- Needs 52 more strikeouts to reach 1,000 for his career at Busch Stadium III. Would become the 24th pitcher in MLB history to strike out 1,000 batters at a home stadium.

Career

- Among active Major League pitchers, ranks 9th in ERA (3.39), 8th in win pct. (.630), 8th in wins (162), 14th in strikeouts (1,776), 4th in complete games (22) and shutouts (10).
- His 74 career road wins rank T3rd all-time in franchise history (Bill Sherdel) and trail only Clayton Kershaw (76) among active National League pitchers.
- He's the first Cardinal since Steve Carlton to have three seasons with 10 or more road wins (Bob Gibson-7). Since 2000, only C.C. Sabathia (5), Justin Verlander (3), Bartolo Colon (3), Roy Halladay (3) Jon Lester (3), and David Price (3) have had three or more seasons of 10+ road wins.
- Since 2010, ranks 2nd in shutouts (10), 3rd in complete games (19), and 10th in wins (116) despite missing the entire 2011 season to injury and most of 2015 and 2018.
- Posted a sub-3.00 ERA in 2009 (2.63), 2010 (2.42), 2013 (2.94) and 2014 (2.38).
- Has two 20-win seasons (2010 & 2014) and two 19-win seasons (2009 & 2013).
- Has recorded 10 double-digit win seasons in his career, tying Bob Forsch for 3rd all-time among Cardinals, and becoming the lone active National League pitcher to do so.
- Recorded three 200+ strikeout seasons (2009, 2010, 2013).
- His career monthly win percentages in July (.788, 26-7) and September (.727, 32-12) are both tops in Cardinals history and rank 3rd-highest all-time in MLB history (minimum 33 decisions, since 1913).
- Is one of five Cardinals to win 30 or more career September games, joining Bob Gibson (44), Bill Sherdel (35), Jesse Haines (33) and Bob Forsch (32).

Defensive Accolades

- Winner of the 2009 and 2013 Rawlings Gold Glove awards as voted on by National League managers & coaches.
- Has committed one error or fewer in 9 of 10 full seasons (most was 2 in 2007) while recording seasons of perfect fielding percentages in 2009 (56 total chances), 2013 (NL-leading 61 TC), 2016 (41 TC), 2017 (37 TC), and 2019 (32 TC).

Awards

- In 2014, finished 3rd in the National League Cy Young vote after placing 2nd to Clayton Kershaw in 2013. Also finished 2nd in 2010 behind Roy Halladay.
- Finished 3rd in the 2009 National League Cy Young vote, despite receiving the most first-place votes of any player. His finish was just four points shy of teammate Chris Carpenter for 2nd place and 10 behind Cy Young winner Tim Lincecum (SF Giants) for the second-tightest vote in the history of the award.
- In his first All-Star Game appearance in 2010 in Anaheim, pitched a perfect 7th inning and fanned two in the N.L. win.
- Named to the 2013 N.L. All-Star team by his peers, but did not pitch.
- Selected as the starting pitcher for the National League in the 2014 All-Star Game in Minnesota. It was his third time selected to the All-Star Game, second appearance in the game (2010) and first as the starting pitcher. He was the first Cardinals pitcher to start the All-Star Game since Chris Carpenter in 2005.
- Two-time Comeback Player of the Year (2012 & 2015) and Baseball Man of the Year (2013 & 2014) by St. Louis chapter of BBWAA.
- 2015 recipient of the prestigious Hutch Award, presented annually to the active player who perseveres through adversity.
- 2008 Darryl Kile Award recipient, voted on by teammates.

Batting

- Winner of the 2017 Louisville Silver Slugger award after leading N.L. pitchers with a .262 average with 11 hits, 11 RBI (T1st) and two home runs.
- Offensively among active Major League pitchers, ranks 1st in career hits (136), RBI (71), doubles (37), total bases (207), runs (54), and extra-base hits (49), 2nd in homers (10), 3rd in batting avg (.199) and OPS (.527), 4th in slugging (.303), T4th in triples (2), 5th in sacrifice hits (60) and walks (24), and 6th in OBP (.225) (minimum 200 at-bats).
- Ranks among all-time Cardinals pitchers offensively in hits (7th), RBI (3rd), doubles (6th), total bases (5th), runs (7th), extra-base hits (3rd), homers (3rd), and sacrifice hits (T3rd).
- Is the only active Major League pitcher with multiple 10-plus RBI seasons (2016-17).
- Collected 29 RBI over a two-season span (2016-17), including 27 in games in which he pitched. That RBI total marked the most by a pitcher over two consecutive seasons since Steve Carlton had 28 for the Phillies from 1977-78, and the most by a Cardinals pitcher since Bob Gibson had 29 from 1970-71 (Elias).
- Has driven in at least two runs in 15 career starts (St. Louis is 15-0), most among active pitchers (Madison Bumgarner is second with 13). Eight of those starts have come since the beginning of the 2016 season. The last pitcher with at least eight starts of this type over a two-season span was Bob Gibson in 1970-71 (St. Louis 8-0) (Elias).

St. Louis Cardinals Postseason Career

- Has taken part in two World Series (2006, 2013), winning a championship in 2006.
- Has appeared in seven postseasons (2006, 2009, 2012-15, 2019), most by any Cardinals pitcher and tied with Albert Pujols for 2nd in franchise postseason history. Yadier Molina ranks 1st with 10 postseasons.
- Is the Cardinals all-time leader in postseason games pitched (27), strikeouts (115) and fewest walks/9 IP (1.53), while ranking 2nd in innings pitched (105.2) and T5th in saves (4) and wins (4).
- His 115 strikeouts rank 14th all-time in MLB postseason history and 5th among active Major League pitchers.
- During the 2013 postseason, his team-leading 34 strikeouts were one fewer than Bob Gibson's franchise single-postseason record (35) from 1968, tied Detroit's Max Scherzer for most among pitchers during the postseason, and T9th-most in MLB single-postseason history at the time.
- Went 2-0 in the 2013 Division Series vs. Pittsburgh. Pitched a complete game in the Game 5 win, allowing one run on 8 hits in the decisive 6-1 win at Busch Stadium.
- In 2006, earned saves in both the World Series and National League Championship Series clinching wins, and was on the mound for final out in all three postseason series.
- Sent the Cardinals to their 17th World Series after striking out Carlos Beltran (called) to end Game 7 at Shea Stadium.
- Fanned Tigers Brandon Inge (swinging) in World Series Game 5 to clinch the Cardinals 10th World Championship - the first time since 1988 that the WS ended with a strikeout.

NL Ranks: Wins (14, T6th), walks (64, 9th), percent of pitches taken (57.6%, 2nd), percent of swings put in play (42.7%, 2nd), lowest percent of swings and miss (19.5, 1st).

- Comeback pitcher of the year candidate made 31 starts in 2019, reaching at least 150 innings and 150 strikeouts for first time since 2016 (161 strikeouts in 198.2 IP) while recording his lowest ERA since 2.38 in 2014.
- His 14 wins were his most since winning 20 in 2014. Posted his 10th career double-digit win season, tying Bob Forsch for 3rd all-time among Cardinals, and becoming the lone active National League pitcher to do so.
- Was first Cardinal since Pete Alexander (16 wins in 1928 at age 41) to post 14+ wins at age 38 or older, and first in MLB since Mets Bartolo Colon (15 wins in 2016 at age 43).
- Made 23 starts with Yadier Molina behind the dish. He and Molina have been a starting battery for 265 games, 7th-most all-time in Major League history (since 1908).
- Went 9-4 with a 2.56 ERA (95.0 IP) in 16 starts at Busch Stadium, ranking T4th in the NL in wins and 7th in ERA.
- Received one run of support or fewer in 13 starts and zero runs in seven outings.
- Started the Mexico Series opener in Monterrey, Mexico (4/13), holding the Reds hitless over his first 5.0 innings on before allowing solo home runs in the 6th and 7th innings and being tagged with his first loss of the season, 5-2.
- Reached career win No. 150 on 4/24 vs. Milwaukee to finish a three-game series sweep of the Brewers at Busch Std.

 Jones (1994) and Smoltz (2000) missed seasons due to injuries*

- Struck out a season-high 10 batters in a 4-3 loss at Philadelphia on 5/28. His 10th career double-digit strikeout game and first since May 25, 2014 at Cincinnati (12 K's).
- Helped St. Louis complete a three-game series sweep of the Cubs with 8.0 scoreless IP in a 2-1 win on 6/2 at Busch Std. Walked a career-high 7, but allowed only 2 hits while throwing 126 pitches.
- Reached 2,000 career innings in 6/9 start, becoming the 10th active MLB pitcher and 6th Cardinal to reach that mark in club history (first since Bob Forsch, 1974-88). Andrew Knizner became the 15th different catcher of Wainwright's career that game.
- Missed 10 games (June 10-19) due to a left hamstring strain suffered while running the bases after hitting a double on June 9 at Chicago Cubs.
- After the All-Star break, shared the NL lead in wins (9-3) with Clayton Kershaw and teammate Dakota Hudson (also matching his career-best nine Post ASB wins in 2009).
- Allowed two runs over 6.2 innings for a loss in a 2-0 defeat to Oakland on 8/26 at Busch Stadium in his 300th career start. Marked his 184th career appearance at Busch Stadium III, tying Trevor Rosenthal (2012-17) for most all-time.
- Finished season by going 5-1 with a 2.97 ERA in six September starts, leading NL pitchers in wins during the month.
- Ended season one career win shy of tying Bob Forsch (163) for 3rd all-time in franchise history. Passed Bill Sherdel (1918-30, '32) for 4th in his 7/14 start vs. Arizona.
- Threw his curve ball 35.6% of his total pitches (1,025 of 2,876) in 2019, with the opposition batting .240 (60-250) with five home runs and 74 strikeouts. Only Rays RHP Charlie Morton (37.3%) & Yankees RHP Domingo German (36.1%) threw a higher pct. of curve balls in MLB (min. 2,000 total pitches). (Statcast)
- 8.1% of his curve balls (214) were called for strikes, highest in MLB (minimum 2,000 total pitches). (Statcast)
- Named the Cardinals nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award for 4th time in his career.

2019 POSTSEASON: Was 0-1 with a 1.62 ERA (3 ER/16.2 IP) and 19 strikeouts in three games (two starts) during the Postseason...surpassed Orlando Hernandez (107), Mariano Rivera (110) and John Lackey (114) for 14th place all-time in postseason strikeouts (115)...made one start and threw 7.2 scoreless innings in a no-decision in NLDS Game 3 vs. ATL; struck out eight, tying Jack Flaherty (twice) for the most innings with a postseason career-high of 11 strikeouts, but allowed three runs taking the loss in NLCS Game 2 vs. WSH...his 11 strikeouts ranked 4th all-time in a Cardinals postseason game...the double-digit strikeout figure marked his 3rd career in a postseason game, ranking 2nd in Cardinals history behind Bob Gibson (5) and one of four Cardinals all-time with a 10 K game...his consecutive 7.0-inning starts with eight or more strikeouts marked the first pitcher in Cardinals postseason franchise history to accomplish the feat...joined Bob Gibson (Game 1, 1968 WS) as the only Cardinals to throw 7.0 or more innings, issue one walk or fewer and strike out 11 or more batters.

- Made eight starts in an injury-shortened season, four of which came in September.
- Missed a total of 129 games with three stints on the DL: left hamstring strain (3/26-4/4) and right elbow inflammation (4/20-5/12 and 5/14-9/9).
- St. Louis was 4-4 in his starts.
- Pitched at least 6.0 innings on three occasions, and 7.0 innings once (two quality starts).
- Threw his curveball 35.8% of the time (262 of 732 total pitches), limiting the opposition to a .152/.146/.197 slashline.
- Activated on 4/5 and started the Cardinals home opener vs. Arizona (the 5th of his career). Took the loss after tossing 3.2 innings, his second-shortest home Opening Day start (2012 vs. Chicago).
- Passed career 1,900 innings pitched in his 4/11 start vs. Milwaukee, becoming the 15th active pitcher to do so.
- Earned his first win of the season in a 5-3 victory at Chicago (4/17) at Wrigley Field, allowing one unearned run with five strikeouts in 5.0 IP. Temperature at first pitch was 35°.
- Marked his 15th career win vs. the Cubs (T10th all-time in Cardinals history) and his 11th career win at Wrigley Field (3rd all-time in Cardinals history).
- Reached 1907.1 career innings in 4/17 start at CHI, passing Slim Sallee (1905.1) for 6th all-time in franchise history.
- Made six rehab appearances across three levels (8/13-9/1) while recovering from right elbow inflammation. Scattered 12 hits with 23 strikeouts over 17.0 scoreless IP between Palm Beach (High-A) Springfield (AA) and Memphis (AAA).
- Activated from the 60-day injured list (right elbow inflammation) on 9/10 vs. Pittsburgh and made his first start for St. Louis in 121 days. Allowed four runs in 5.0 frames in the Cardinals' 8-7 comeback win.
- Surpassed Todd Worrell (1985-89, '92) with his 349th career game, moving into 8th place all-time in Cardinals history. Struck out Corey Dickerson (swinging) for his 1,600th career strikeout.
- Struck out season-high nine over 6.0 scoreless frames in a 5-0 win over the Dodgers at Busch Stadium on ESPN Sunday Night Baseball (9/16). Pitched 6.0 or more innings in 12 consecutive starts vs. the Dodgers (8/10/07-present), currently T3rd-longest active vs. Los Angeles and trailing Curt Schilling (19) and David Cone (16).
- Became the first pitcher to throw 1,000 career innings at Busch Stadium III on 9/16, and the 5th Cardinal to throw 1,000 innings at home stadiums, joining Bill Sherdel (1,087.1 at Sportsman's Park), Jesse Haines (1,554.0 at Sportsman's Park), Bob Gibson (1,182.0 at Busch Stadium II) and Bob Forsch (1,402.1 at Busch Stadium II).
- Made four September starts, striking out 25 in 22.1 innings while going 1-1 with a 4.84 ERA (Cardinals were 3-1). Despite making fewer September starts than his teammates, finished 3rd on the team in innings and strikeouts.

2017

- Named NL Louisville Silver Slugger award winner, his first career. Co-led MLB pitchers in RBI (11, Carlos Martínez) and runs scored (7), ranked T2nd in extra-base hits (4) and home runs (2), T4th in doubles (2), and T7th in hits (10).
- Shared the team lead in wins (12) while making 24 appearances (23 starts) during an injury-shortened season.
- Was 8-1 with a 3.08 ERA in 11 home starts (64.1 IP). His .889 home win pct. ranked T2nd in the N.L. Was 5-0 with a 1.16 ERA (31.0 IP/4 ER) in five day starts at home.
- Was one of 12 N.L. pitchers to record a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage (37 total chances).
- Won 10+ games prior to the All-Star Break for the 5th time in his career despite beginning the year with three-straight losses for the the third time (2012, 2016-17) in his career.
- Fanned Jacoby Ellsbury (4/16 at Yankees) for his 1,500th career strikeout; part of a strike-them-out, throw-them-out double play as Yadier Molina nabbed Aaron Hicks attempting to steal second base.
- Joined Bob Gibson as the only Cardinals pitchers in history to reach 1,500 strikeouts.
- Collected career win No. 135 at Milwaukee on 4/21, pushing him past Dizzy Dean (1930, '31-'37) for 6th place on St. Louis all-time leaderboard.
- Matched career-high 4 RBI in win 4/21 at MIL (2nd of career, 9/20/16 at COL), highlighted by go-ahead, 2-run HR into leftfield second deck off Wily Peralta. Also added two-run single for his 19th career 2-hit game (9th all-time among Cards pitchers). The only other Cardinals pitcher with two wins in which he had at least four RBIs was Bob Gibson, (four times) (Elias).
- Picked up 2nd straight win in Game 2 of St. Louis 4/27 doubleheader sweep of Toronto, while passing Harry Brecheen's (1940, '43-'52) 1790.1 innings pitched for 8th all-time in Cards franchise history.
- Was 3-0, 2.64 ERA (30.2 IP) in five May starts, one of five pitchers with perfect win pct (min 4 GS).
- Allowed one run over a 4-start stretch (26.1 IP, 0.34 ERA) from 5/14-6/1 that included a 16.1 IP scoreless streak.
- Had six-game win streak 4/21-6/1 which was tied for the longest win streak in National League at the time.
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery on 10/3 to trim a small piece of cartilage from his right elbow (same procedure following 2014 season).
- For the third straight year, named Cardinals nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award.

2016

- Made a team-leading 33 starts, his most since 34 in 2013.
- Ranked among NL leaders in batters faced (847, 5th), innings pitched (198.2, 7th), starts (T3rd), hits (220, 1st) earned runs (102, 1st) and doubles allowed (48, 1st).
- Notched 8th career season with 10 or more wins, tying Bill Sherdel (1920-29) and Bill Doak (1914-22) for 4th-most in Cards history (Bob Gibson leads with 14). Has posted 10 or more wins in each season with 10 or more starts.
- Pitched at least 6.0 innings in 21 of 33 starts, and 18 were quality starts. St. Louis was 22-11.

- Finished 7th among NL pitchers with a 55.6% stolen base rate, allowing five steals in nine attempts.
- Named Rawlings NL Gold Glove Award finalist. Was one of six qualified N.L. pitchers to record a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage (41 total chances).
- Ranked 3rd in the NL in double plays induced (27) and 2nd in GDP/9 IP (1.22).
- Ranked 11th among NL pitchers in fewest HR/9 IP (1.00), yet yielded career-high 22 homers. Did not allow a home run over a nine-start stretch from 6/3-7/21 (66.2 IP), the longest homerless streak by a NL pitcher in 2016.
- Went 5-0 over a seven-start span (4/27-5/28), his five-game win streak tied for the longest by a Cardinal in 2016 (Wacha).
- Allowed seven runs (six earned) over 5.0 IP for a win in St. Louis' 12-10 victory at Angels (5/12), marking his 13th career outing allowing 7+ runs, but first picking up the win. It was also just the 4th time since 1984 a Cardinals starter had allowed 7+ runs and still received the win; since 1931, only teammate Lance Lynn (2013) did so pitching 5.0 innings.
- Went 3-1 with a 1.77 ERA (35.2 IP/ 7 ER) in July, ranking 7th in MLB ERA during the month.
- Was one of 18 NL pitchers to record a complete game shut-out, firing a three-hit shutout (120 pitches) vs. Miami (7/16).
- Posted an 18.0-inning scoreless streak from 7/7-7/21, the longest by a Cardinal in 2016.
- Led MLB pitchers in RBI (18), doubles (7), extra-base hits (10); ranked T1st in triples (1), T3rd in home runs (2) and T6th in hits (13).
- Ten of 13 hits went for extra bases (7 2B, 3B, 2 HR).
- Became first Cardinals pitcher in franchise history to record four three-RBI games in one season, and the first in MLB since Don Newcombe had four in 1955 (Wes Ferrell, 5, 1931, MLB record). His 18 RBI were most by Cards pitcher since Bob Gibson's 19 in 1965 and 1970.
- Hit a three-run triple in 4/27 outing at Arizona, his second career three-bagger (last: 10/2/09 vs. MIL, Braden Looper).
- Doubled and slugged his 7th career home run vs. PHI (5/2), a three-run shot into Big Mac Land. The last Cards pitcher with a homer, double and 3 RBI in a game was Chris Carpenter at Cincinnati (10/1/2009).
- Recorded an extra base hit in four straight plate appearances (triple, home run, double, double) over three-game period (4/27-5/7) to become the second pitcher since 1900 to record an extra-base hit in four consecutive at-bats (Snake Wiltse, Philadelphia A's, 8/10/1901 vs. the Senators, all in one game). (Elias)
- Hit a pinch-hit, game-winning, two-run double in the 12th inning of St. Louis' extra-inning 9-3 win over Pittsburgh at PNC Park (6/10).
- With double on 9/5 at PIT, became first pitcher in modern MLB history to produce extra-bases on nine consecutive hits, passing record owned by current teammate Mike Leake, who recorded extra bases on eight straight hits from 2014-15 (with Cincinnati) (Elias).
- While earning a win in his start at Colorado (9/20), was 2-for-2 at the plate with a double and career-high 4 RBI. Became the 25th pitcher in Cardinals history with 4+ RBI in a game and most recent since Jake Westbrook (8/31/2011).
- Named the Cardinals nominee for the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award.

BACKGROUND/PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Jenny, reside in St. Simons Island, Ga., with their four daughters, Baylie Grace (9/10/06), Morgan Addison (10/22/08), Macy James (11/11/11) and Sadee Faith (12/28/15) and son, Caleb Adam (2/8/19), who was legally adopted on 4/25/19.
- Graduated in 2000 from Glynn Academy in Brunswick, Ga.
- Named the 2000 Gatorade Player of the Year in Georgia, when he was also an All-State selection in football.
- As a football player, was named All-State as a place kicker and All-Region as a wide receiver in 1999.
- Signed a college letter of intent to play baseball at Georgia Tech University.
- Originally selected by Atlanta in the first round (29th overall) in the June, 2000 First-Year Player Draft.
- Voted by his teammates as recipient of the 2008 Darryl Kile award.
- Signed the largest contract for a pitcher in franchise history on March 28, 2013, when he inked a five-year deal that carried him through the 2018 season.
- Signed one-year free agent deals for the 2019 and 2020 seasons.
- Hobbies include gardening, golf, and fishing.

Philanthropic Efforts

- Four-time Cardinals nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award (2015-17, 2019), recognizing a player from each MLB club who best represents the game of Baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy and positive contributions, both on and off the field.
- Through his charity, Big League Impact, Adam currently works with over two dozen players to bring their charitable aspirations to life. At the end of 2019, approximately $4.5 million was raised by 150 players to benefit 60 charities.
- He and his older brother Trey formed Waino's World, Inc. in 2013, a non-profit fantasy football charity league in which more than $110,000 was raised for St. Louis area food bank Operation Food Search and international clean water engineering organization Water Mission.
- In 2014, the charity was renamed Big League Impact, which is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization whose mission is to save lives, restore dignity and instill hope in our local communities and around the globe.
- In 2014, six Fantasy Football leagues were launched by Wainwright, David Wright, Max Scherzer, Freddie Freeman, Justin Masterson and Skip Schumaker, collectively raising more than $450,000 to benefit 20 non-profit organizations.
- Expanded to eight cities in 2015, raising over $500,000 and passed the $1,000,000 mark in total funds raised.
- Big League Impact and its community of professional athletes, actors, musicians, and other public figures have raised over $3,000,000 for charitable causes and foundations through events ranging from annual Fantasy Football Leagues to karaoke sing-offs, March Madness Brackets, Digital Fantasy Contests, Dave & Buster's game nights, and donations from local philanthropists.
- On mission trips to Ethiopia, Haiti and Honduras, Adam identified a need for water and invested to provide sustainable aid.

- In Honduras, Big League Impact funded the construction of a clean water system servicing over 15,000 people.
- His trip to Ethiopia led to the purchase of an 11-acre plot that is now the site of a clinic and a dairy and crop farm.
- Partnered with Crisis Aid International to feed children in Africa who would have died of starvation. When he learned the organization cared for sex trafficking victims, Big League Impact provided aid to give victims a new opportunity.
- BLI and Food for the Hungry created Striking out Poverty to meet the needs of underserved communities. Global Ambassador Roberto Clemente Jr. works with BLI to provide aid across the Dominican Republic. In 2018, 11 players raised over $218,000 to fund baseball fields, water systems, farms and food programs.
- In 2017, launched the Striking Out Poverty initiative with Food for the Hungry, the first March Madness Bracket Challenge, and a karaoke event that raised nearly $50,000.
- In 2018, Big League Impact oversaw 25 player-led initiatives that cleared the $3,000,000 mark of total raised, and inked an official partnership with Yahoo Fantasy Sports—becoming its official charitable partner.
- BLI also hosted its first three Dave & Buster's game nights in Minneapolis, St. Louis, and Seattle, bringing out dozens of Big Leaguers who competed with fans while playing video game, skee-ball, and pop-a-shot basketball tournaments.
- In 2019, created the ALL WIN fundraising campaign to provide healthy meals across the St. Louis region. Funds generated by teammates and fans allowed Crisis Aid to feed 200 families for a year in South St. Louis as well as help Operation Food Search create a rural meals program.
- In 2019, Adam and country musician Garth Brooks established a partnership between their foundations on the Home Plate Program, to provide meals for children across all MLB Club markets.

SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to seeking baseball talent in four unique areas: professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area and scout the amateur ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyze and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

BEN JOHNSON

MANAGER

Ben Johnson enters his second year as manager of the Memphis Redbirds and second as a coach in the Cardinals organization. In his first season leading the Redbirds, Johnson's squad went 69-71, finishing 6.0 games out of first place in the American Northern Division. He took a team that was 40-60 on July 20 and did not lose consecutive games until the Redbirds were eliminated the final two days of the season, having a shot at the division in the last series of the regular season at rival Iowa.

The Redbirds clubbed a franchise record 200 home runs in 2019, outdistancing their previous high of 181 in 2004.

Johnson came to the Cardinals from the Durham Bulls, the Triple-A International League affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, where he spent the 2018 season as the third base coach working with the outfielders and base running.

The Bulls led the International League in home runs, slugging percentage, runs scored and finished second in hits on their way to the league championship.

Prior to his time with the Bulls, Johnson was a scout with the Arizona Diamondbacks (2014-17), coached high school baseball at Millennium High School in Goodyear, Ariz. (2011-13), and managed Independent League baseball in Arizona.

No stranger to the city of his new role, Johnson was born in Memphis, Tenn., and played high school baseball at Germantown High School with 10-year veteran Major League pitcher Paul Maholm. The high school also produced current Los Angeles Angels pitching coach Mickey Callaway.

Upon graduation from high school, Johnson was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 4th round of the June 1999 First-Year Player draft. During the 2000 season, he was traded with RHP Heathcliff Slocumb to the San Diego Padres in exchange for veteran catcher Carlos Hernandez and minor league infielder Nate Tebbbs.

Johnson made his Major League debut on June 26, 2005, vs. Seattle and would play 98 games over the next three seasons as a member of the Padres and Mets. He posted a career batting average of .230 with seven home runs and 26 RBI while playing all three outfield positions.

He was named the Padres Minor League Player of the Year in 2005 when he hit a career-high .312 with 25 home runs and 83 RBI as a member of the Portland Beavers. Johnson played 901 games over parts of 10 minor league seasons with the Cardinals, Padres, Mets and Tigers organizations batting .262 with 115 career home runs and 473 RBI. He played his final season in professional baseball in 2010 with the Erie Seawolves of the Eastern League in the Tigers organization.

Johnson, 38, is married to his wife Elizabeth and the couple has two children, Ethan (16) and Ruby (3). They reside in Phoenix, Arizona.

BRANDON ALLEN

HITTING COACH

Allen enters his fourth season in the Cardinals organization and his first as a hitting coach in Memphis (AAA) after serving in the same capacity in Springfield (AA) in 2019, Palm Beach (A) in 2018 and Johnson City (R) in 2017.

Last season, Allen mentored a lineup that featured Dylan Carlson, the 2019 Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year, who hit .281 with 21 HR and 59 RBI for Springfield.

Allen played professionally for 13 years that included parts of four seasons in the Major Leagues. The former left-handed hitter batted a combined .203 with 12 home runs and 41 RBI in 116 games between Arizona (2009-11), Oakland (2011-12), Tampa Bay (2012).

In 2011, Allen became only the second player in history to homer into the upper deck at the New Yankee Stadium (Russell Branyan being the first). In 2012, Allen was the Opening Day first baseman for the eventual A.L. West champions, starting the MLB opener on March 28 in Tokyo against the Mariners.

Allen, who earned a football scholarship to Rice as a linebacker and defensive end and had a baseball scholarship at the University of Houston, was originally drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the fifth round of the 2004 First-Year Player Draft out of Montgomery (Texas) High School. The 34-year-old resides in Indiana, Pa., with his wife Gabrielle.

DERNIER OROZCO

PITCHING COACH

Orozco enters his third season as pitching coach with Memphis and 15th in the Cardinals organization, serving at five different levels of player development.

The 2019 Redbirds made an outstanding run at the division during the final month of the season in which the Redbirds staff posted a 3.25 ERA in August, the lowest in all of Triple-A ball, and held opponents to the 2nd-fewest home runs in the Pacific Coast League (169) in a season which home run numbers were escalated across the board.

The 2018 Redbirds led the Pacific Coast League with a 3.54 ERA out-distancing second place Oklahoma City (3.92) and allowed the fewest hits, en route to the league championship and Triple-A National Championship. The Redbirds pitching staff was led by Dakota Hudson, the PCL Pitcher of the Year and 2018 Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

Orozco previously spent three seasons as pitching coach with Peoria (A), all of which included trips to the Midwest League playoffs, following two seasons with State College (A) in the New York-Penn League.

The Chiefs pitching staff combined for at least 10 shutouts in each of Orozco's three seasons, and the 2015 Peoria squad led the league in strikeouts (1,149) while boasting the league leader in ERA (Matt Pearce, 2.43), wins (Austin Gomber, 15) and strikeouts (Gomber, 140). In 2014, his State College pitching staff ranked second in the league in ERA (2.97) en route to the league championship while posting an outstanding 0.87 ERA over six postseason games, including two shutouts. The 2013 State College squad led the New York-Penn League in ERA (2.80).

Orozco began his time with the Cardinals as a coach in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006-08 before receiving the title of pitching coach in Venezuela in 2010. He was the pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009 and 2011.

Orozco played six pro seasons in the Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) in 2002, and went 4-2 over 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season.

Orozco, 39, resides in Venezuela in the off-season.

JOE KRUZEL

MANAGER

Joe Kruzel enters his second season as manager in Springfield, after serving in the same role for the 2017-18 seasons in State College. This is his seventh year managing in the Cardinals organization, previously serving as manager three years at Peoria (A) from 2014-16 and the 2013 season at Johnson City (R). Prior to managing, he spent five seasons (2008-12) as hitting coach for the Cardinals' Class-A affiliate in Quad Cities. The 2020 season marks his 13th season in the Cardinals organization.

In 2017, Kruzel led the Spikes to their fifth straight campaign of at least 40 wins and was the manager of the winning South club in the New York-Penn League All-Star Game. He also managed Peoria (A) to the Midwest League postseason in back-to-back seasons from 2015-16. Across five seasons as a manager in the Cardinals organization, Kruzel's squads have a record of 392-382 (.506), and he holds a career mark of 423-413 (.506), including one season in the Reds organization.

The 2019 Springfield squad was led by Dylan Carlson, who was named Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year and Angel Rondon, the Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

As hitting coach in Quad Cities in 2012, the team led Midwest League in home runs (109) and RBI (649).

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Reds organization. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds before moving on to the manager position at Billings (R) in 2007.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran collegiate coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (Ohio) University in 2005 as the Redhaws tied the school record with 45 wins and advanced to the Austin Regional. He also spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach from 1989-92 and then moved on to head coach from 1993-2003. Kruzel was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1999 and coached Mitch Maier in 2003, who was the only first round draft pick (Kansas City Royals) in Toledo history and consensus first-team All-American. In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 54, was elected into the Toledo City Athletic League Hall of Fame in 2018 and the Toledo Central Catholic High School Hall of Fame in April 2020. He resides in Hamilton, Ohio, with his wife Amy and three children A.J. (27), Jaime (23) and Abby (21). A.J. was drafted by the Cardinals in the 37th round of the 2013 draft, but did not sign. Jaime was a member of the University of Cincinnati dance team.

TYGER PEDERSON

HITTING COACH

Pederson enters his second season as hitting coach in the Cardinals organization and his first in Springfield after spending the 2019 season in Palm Beach.

Prior to coaching professionally, Pederson was the manager of the Duluth Huskies in 2018, leading the team to the Northwoods League Division Championship setting franchise records in wins, runs scored and stolen bases.

Other coaching experience includes working as assistant coach for Cal Poly-San Luis Obispo's baseball team in 2018 and as the graduate assistant coach at Hawaii Pacific in 2017. Pederson was a coach in Taiwan for Major League Baseball and managed the Orange County Rip tide to a California Collegiate League championship in 2017 earning CCL Manager of the Year honors.

The former multi-sport standout at Palo Alto High School, played college baseball at the University of the Pacific where he was team captain his senior year playing second base. In 2013, the Los Angeles Dodgers selected him with their 33rd round pick in the June 2013 First-Year Player Draft. Pederson played one year of professional baseball in the Arizona League before competing in Independent League baseball from 2014-16 with the San Rafael Pacifics, Vallejo Admirals and Rockford Aviators.

Pederson, 31, comes from an athletic family. He is the son of former Dodgers' outfielder Stu Pederson, and the older brother of Los Angeles Dodgers All-Star outfielder Joc Pederson. His sister, Jacey, plays soccer for UCLA and brother Champ works for the Golden State Warriors serving as a motivational speaker with down syndrome. He resides in Palo Alto, Calif.

DARWIN MARRERO

PITCHING COACH

Marrero enters his third season as pitching coach with Springfield following three seasons (2015-17) in the same role with State College (A) and the previous two years with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals (2013-14).

The 2019 Springfield pitching staff was led by Angel Rondon, the Texas League ERA leader and 2019 Cardinals Minor League Pitcher of the Year.

In the 2018-19 off-season, Marrero was the pitching coach for Panama which won the Caribbean Series and posted the lowest ERA in the tournament. This past off-season, Marrero was pitching coach for Venezuela in the Pre-Olympics.

In 2016, State College recorded a league-low 1.76 ERA in the New York-Penn League Playoffs on their way to capturing the league championship. State College led the league with nine shutouts and had the second fewest runs allowed (285) as a staff.

Two of the last five seasons, Marrero's pitching staffs have led the league in shutouts and ranked first or second in runs allowed.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Marrero was a pitching coach for the Sioux City Explorers in the American Association (2008). The Explorers staff boasted the Pitcher of the Year winner and the closer established a new league saves record. In 2005, he was pitching coach for the Capitales de Quebec in the Can-Am League.

Marrero's playing career lasted from 1998-2004 with the Montreal Expos organization, attaining his highest level at Double-A, as well as pitching eight seasons in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Marrero, 39, a Venezuela native, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Monica, and their three children, Darwin, Jr. (15), Nikary (12) and Sophia (11).

DANN BILARDELLO

MANAGER

Bilardello returns for his fifth season as manager of Palm Beach, 11th year managing in the Cardinals organization and 15th overall as a minor league manager. Bilardello led Palm Beach to back-to-back playoff appearances for only the second time in franchise history in 2017 and 2018. The club won the 2017 Florida State League South Division title, and were named co-champions of the league, as Hurricane Irma forced the cancellation of the league finals.

From 2012-16, Bilardello advanced a coaching level each season, starting with his third and final year in Batavia (A) in 2012, Peoria (A) in 2013, Palm Beach (High-A) in 2014 and Springfield (AA) for the 2015-16 seasons.

Bilardello piloted Springfield to winning the Texas League First Half North Division Championship at 41-29 in 2016. The club's 41 victories set a franchise record for most in the First Half in team history. He and his Springfield staff managed the North Division in the 2016 Texas League All-Star Game.

In 2012, Bilardello's Batavia squad posted a 44-32 record, finishing one game out of the wild card and two games behind the division leader after pulling off a nine-game win streak. His 2010 Batavia squad won the Pinckney Division crown in his first season at the helm.

The former Major League catcher brought four years of minor league managing experience from the Dodgers and Red Sox organizations. He coached Boston-affiliate Wilmington (High-A) in the Carolina League during the 2005 season after three years managing Dodgers affiliates, including a Pioneer League Championship with Great Falls (R) in 2002 before moving to South Georgia (A) in 2003 and Columbus (A) in 2004.

In 15 years of managing, Bilardello has a career record of 903-846 (.516) between his time with the Dodgers, Red Sox and Cardinals.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (9) and RBI (38). He hit his first MLB home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 60, resides in Naples, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter, Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as Palm Beach (High-A). Trey is a professional golf caddy on the PGA Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and volleyball for three years.

BRIAN BURGAMY

HITTING COACH

Burgamy enters his first season as hitting coach for Palm Beach after working in the same role at Johnson City in 2018. He was promoted into his current coaching role after serving as a 4th coach in the Cardinals organization in 2018.

The 2019 Johnson City squad won the Appalachian League championship powered behind an offensive effort in the postseason averaging nearly 6.0 runs per game with seven or more runs in 4-of-6 games.

The veteran of nine minor league seasons and seven years in foreign and Independent League baseball brings a wealth of experience to the organization.

Burgamy played in 1,952 games in his travels including 841 games as a member of the Padres, Phillies, Mets and Dodgers organizations compiling a career .253 batting average with 81 home runs, 369 RBI and an on-base percentage of .355 while slugging .400. He advanced as high as Triple-A Oklahoma City with the Dodgers in 2015.

Originally drafted by the San Diego Padres in the 9th round of the June 2002 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft out of Wichita State University, Burgamy led the Shockers with a .400 batting average in 2002 as they advanced to the Regionals. He was a teammate of current Chicago Cubs pitching coach Tommy Hotovy on that team.

Burgamy, 38, resides in Binghamton, N.Y., with his wife Suzanne, daughter Evelyn and son Wyatt.

RICK HARIG

PITCHING COACH

Harig begins his first season as pitching coach for Palm Beach and third as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He joined the Cardinals baseball operations department in 2016 after more than 30 years as a coach at the amateur level, as well as work in player development and scouting for several MLB teams.

Harig's Johnson City pitching staff issued the fewest walks in the Appalachian League in 2018 and the 2nd-fewest in 2019 en route to the 2019 Appalachian League championship.

In his coaching experience, Harig amassed more than 1,300 wins and nine state championships as an American Legion and high school coach, and he was a 2015 inductee of the Colorado Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame. A University of Colorado Boulder graduate, Harig taught high school math at Fairview High School from 1985-2016 to pupils such as former MLB pitcher Jesse Crain and Cardinals President of Baseball Operations John Mozeliak.

He also worked part-time for the San Diego Padres player development department in the mid-2000s and was a regional scout for various MLB teams for 15 years.

Harig also started his own company in 2007, working as a performance coach and keynote speaker who focuses on performance development. He resides in Boulder, Colo., with his wife Traci and his two sons, Joey (22) and Jackson (18).

ERICK ALMONTE

MANAGER

Erick Almonte begins his second season as manager of the Peoria Chiefs and third season as a manager in the Cardinals organization, previously serving as the Gulf Coast League manager in 2018.

The 2018 GCL squad led the league with 40 wins (40-16) while averaging a league-best 6.2 runs per game. The team advanced to the GCL Championship defeating the Phillies before losing in three games to the Tigers. Over two seasons as a manager in the Cardinals organization, Almonte has a record of 94-101 (.482).

Almonte enters his seventh year in the Cardinals organization previously holding posts as the hitting coach with 2017 Florida State League Co-Champion Palm Beach, which had the fewest strikeouts in the league (919). He also served as a coach with the Dominican Summer League entry from 2014-16.

Almonte played professionally for 17 years, which included parts of three seasons in the Major Leagues. He played in 55 Major League games batting .233 with two home runs and 14 RBI, and he was a member of the American League Champion New York Yankees teams in 2001 and 2003. He also played in 16 games for the National League Central Division Champion Milwaukee Brewers in 2011. Internationally, Almonte played for the Nippon Ham Fighters in 2005.

He was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Yankees in 1996 out of the Dominican Republic. His career included four MLB organizations: Yankees (1997-03), Rockies (2004), Tigers (2007-08) and Brewers (2009-12).

Almonte, 42, and his wife Nicole Noesi, reside in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic with their three children, Erick Manuel (15), Luis Gabriel (10) and Eva (6). His brother, Hector, pitched in parts of two seasons with the Marlins, Red Sox and Expos.

CODY GABELLA

HITTING COACH

Gabella enters his first season as hitting coach for Peoria after serving in the same role for State College in 2019 and Johnson City in 2018. This marks his fifth season in the Cardinals organization serving two seasons as a coach with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals (2016-17).

The 2019 State College squad led the New York-Penn League in batting, runs, hits, doubles, RBI, slugging and OPS. The 2018 Johnson City team led the Appalachian League with 75 home runs.

In 2017, the GCL Cardinals hit a club-record 29 home runs, surpassing the previous high of 25 set in 2012 and 2010. Gabella also coached current 2019 Cardinals Minor League Player of the Year, Dylan Carlson, in 2016 as the center fielder that won the GCL Championship.

Gabella played 47 games across two seasons of professional baseball in the San Diego Padres organization as an infielder from 2011-12, reaching as high as Lake Elsinore (High-A) in the California League.

He was selected by the Padres in the 43rd round of the 2011 First-Year Player Draft, out of Southeastern Iowa Community College. In 2010, he was selected in the 50th round by the Atlanta Braves, but did not sign.

Gabella, 28, graduated from MLBSB Scout School in 2014 and is the son of current San Francisco Giants scout Jim Gabella. He resides in Orlando, Fla., with his wife Cassandra and son Devin (2).

ADRIAN MARTIN

PITCHING COACH

Martin begins his first season as pitching coach for Peoria and fourth as a coach in the Cardinals organization, previously working in the same role at State College in 2019. He served as a coach with the Pacific Coast League champion Memphis Redbirds (AAA) in 2017.

The Toronto Blue Jays selected Martin, a former right-handed pitcher, in the 19th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft out of South Fork High School in Stuart, Fla. He pitched professionally for 12 seasons primarily in the Toronto and San Francisco organizations. He compiled a 36-16 record with a 3.74 ERA in 200 outings from 2003-10, reaching Las Vegas (AAA) in the Blue Jays system in 2009.

He also appeared in 22 games with Auburn in the New York-Penn League in 2005, going 1-1 with a 3.05 ERA.

Martin, 35, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Emmie and their son Maddux.

JOSÉ LEON

MANAGER

Leon enters his second season as manager of the State College Spikes, previously serving as hitting coach of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals in 2018. This marks his third season in the Cardinals organization.

Leon led State College to a 39-36 record in his inaugural season as a manager, finishing 1.5 games out of first place in the New York-Penn League Pinckney Division.

The 2018 DSL Cardinals led the league in batting with their red squad finishing with a .273 mark and the blue squad at .268. Malcom Nunez won the DSL batting crown hitting a remarkable .415 on the season.

The Cardinals drafted Leon in the 22nd round of the 1994 First-Year Player Draft as a right-handed hitting infielder out of Albergue Olimpico School in his hometown of Cayey, Puerto Rico. Leon remained in the Cardinals minor league system until 2000, including the 1998 season with Prince William (High-A) when he batted .291 with a career-high 21 home runs and 74 RBI.

He was traded to the Baltimore Orioles organization for Will Clark at the Trade Deadline of the 2000 season following an appearance for the World Team in the Major League Baseball All-Star Futures Game.

His MLB debut came with the Orioles in 2002, batting .247 with three home runs and 10 RBI in 36 games. Leon also played for the Orioles from 2003-04 before spending parts of the next five years in the Pirates and Reds organizations, in addition to the Mexican League, Atlantic League and Chinese Professional Baseball League.

Leon, 42, lives in Puerto Rico in the off-season and has a son Ian Luis (14).

JASON BROUSSARD

HITTING COACH

Broussard enters his first season as hitting coach at State College and second in the Cardinals organization, serving as a 4th Coach with Palm Beach in 2019.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Broussard was heavily involved in coaching in college baseball. He worked as an assistant coach at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale in the fall of 2018 and was an Assistant Coach from 2013-17 before being promoted to Associate Head Coach at Eastern Florida State College in 2017-18.

The University of Central Florida graduate also holds a Masters of Sports Science in the field of Sports Management from the United States Sports Academy.

Broussard, 27, resides in Melbourne, Fla.

DEAN KIEKHEFER

PITCHING COACH

Kiekhefer begins his coaching career with the Cardinals organization as pitching coach for the State College Spikes following a 10-year professional playing career including two seasons in the Major Leagues with 30 career appearances between the Cardinals and Athletics posting marks of 0-0 with a 6.38 ERA in 24.0 innings.

Twice drafted, Kiekhefer was originally selected by the Cleveland Indians in the 37th round of the 2007 MLB Draft out of Oldham High School (Ky.) before playing college baseball at the University of Louisville. He was then selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 36th round of the 2010 MLB Draft and signed.

The southpaw made his Major League debut with the Cardinals on May 14, 2016 at Dodger Stadium against Los Angeles, striking out four of six total batters faced, his career-high for an appearance.

Kiekhefer, 30, resides in LaGrange, Ky., with his wife Jacquelyn and children Cru (4) and Otto (2).

ROBERTO ESPINOZA

MANAGER

Espinoza enters his fourth season as manager in Johnson City and seventh in a coaching role in the Cardinals organization.

The 2019 Johnson City squad won the Appalachian League Championship by winning six games while facing elimination at the end of the season. First, by making the postseason with two wins against Kingsport to finish the regular season. The Cardinals then defeated Bristol in the semi-finals and Burlington in the Championship down 1-0 in each of the best-of-three series.

Over three seasons in Johnson City, Espinoza has compiled a 99-104 record as manager.

Prior to his managerial turn, Espinoza was hitting coach for the Appalachian League Champion squad in 2016.

In 2015, Espinoza was hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals following a year as the bullpen assistant in St. Louis when he helped catch bullpens and translate for Spanish-speaking players who needed to talk to the media.

The 2018 Johnson City squad led the league home runs, while the 2016 squad led in batting average (.281), hits (651), doubles (132), fewest strikeouts (469), and on-base percentage (.350) while boasting four hitters in the top seven in batting, which included batting champion Allen Cordoba (.362).

Espinoza's 2015 Gulf Coast squad led the league as a team in total bases (692), triples (22), RBI (239) and fewest strikeouts (345). The 2015 GCL Cardinals also produced their second straight batting champion in Cordoba (.342).

The former Cardinals minor league catcher was originally signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent out of Palo Negro, Venezuela, in March 2006.

He played five seasons in the Cardinals organization before an injury sidelined him during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, when he pursued a career in coaching. Espinoza played in 202 games, advancing as far as Palm Beach (High-A) in 2010.

Espinoza, 31, resides in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., in the off-season with his wife Johely and children Roberto Alexander (10) and Valeria (7).

RENEE CORTEZ

PITCHING COACH

Cortez begins his first season as pitching coach for Johnson City and third season in the Cardinals organization. He served as pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals from 2018-19.

Cortez was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by Seattle and pitched parts of seven minor league seasons in the Mariners organization (2001-07). The former right-hander split the 2011 season between Petroleros de Minatitlan of the Mexican League, and Edinburg Roadrunners and Rio Grande Valley WhiteWings of the Independent North American League.

Cortez, 37, a native of Valencia, Venezuela, also pitched in the Venezuelan Winter League from 2007-18.

DANIEL NICOLAISEN

HITTING COACH

Nicolaisen enters his first season as the hitting coach for Johnson City and in the Cardinals organization.

He comes to the Cardinals after coaching college softball for two seasons at Seton Hall University where he was the Volunteer Assistant in 2018 before being elevated to the role of Assistant Coach in 2019. The Pirates achieved several offensive accolades including the first player to bat .400 in 30 years in the program, two players broke the previous single-season doubles mark, boasted the top two hit collectors in Big East Conference play, and the leader in home runs per game.

Prior to his stint at Seton Hall, Nicolaisen was a Softball School Instructor at the Danish Softball Federation in Denmark.

The former outfielder played one season of college baseball at Neumann University in Aston, Pa., two seasons at Atlantic Cape Community College and was a member of the Danish Junior and Men's National Teams during his time in Denmark.

Nicolaisen, 26, a native of Ballerup, Denmark, resides in Jupiter with his wife Wendi.

JOE HAWKINS

MANAGER

Hawkins begins his first season as a manager for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals and his second overall coaching in the Cardinals organization serving as the hitting coach with the GCL Cardinals in 2019. The 2019 GCL Cardinals finished second in the league hitting 35 home runs and defensively, led the league in double plays turned (48).

Prior to joining the Cardinals, he was an assistant coach for the Saint Louis University baseball team in 2018 working as a hitting coach and recruiter. The Billikens won the Atlantic 10 title and advanced to the NCAA Regionals leading the conference in batting, slugging, on-base percentage, runs and RBI.

His coaching career started as the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator for Jefferson College.

Hawkins played college baseball at Missouri State University where he was a four-year letterwinner as a shortstop and team captain. The Missouri Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2015 set school records for assists and fielding percentage.

Following his time in college, Hawkins was drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 40th round after previously being drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 42nd round out of high school.

Hawkins, 27, a Canadian-born resident, is the youngest manager in the Cardinals organization. He resides in St. Louis with his wife Ashley.

GIOVANNI CARRARA

PITCHING COACH

Giovanni Carrara returns for his fifth season as pitching coach in the Gulf Coast League and his sixth overall season in the Cardinals organization, serving as pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals in 2015.

The 2018 GCL squad, which advanced to the league championship, led the league with 40 wins and had the league ERA champion in Perry DellaValle. The 2016 club captured the GCL Championship behind five wins and a 2.32 ERA from Franyel Casadilla, who also tossed five shutout innings in a game one, 3-0 win in the finals vs. the GCL Phillies.

Carrara was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela by the Blue Jays in 1990. He pitched in parts of 10 Major League seasons (1995-2006), appearing in games with the Blue Jays (1995-96), Reds (1996-97), Rockies (2000), Dodgers (2001-02, 2004-06) and Mariners (2003). He posted a 29-18 career record with a 4.69 ERA in 313 games (18 starts).

He posted a career-best 2.18 ERA in 2004 when he went 5-2 with two saves in 42 appearances as an integral part of the Dodgers bullpen. The Dodgers claimed the National League West Division that season, and Carrara made three post-season appearances before his team fell to St. Louis in the National League Division Series. Carrara pitched in a career-high 72 games at the age of 37 in 2005, winning a career-high seven games in a relief role.

Carrara, 52, represented Italy in the 2007 Euros due to his parents heritage from Italy. He resides in El Tigre, Venezuela, in the off-season.

BERNARD GILKEY

HITTING COACH

Gilkey enters his first season as a hitting coach with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals following a role on the Cardinals Core staff in the Baseball Operations and Player Development department.

The former Cardinals outfielder played 12 Major League seasons with five organizations (Cardinals, Mets, Diamondbacks, Braves and Red Sox). He compiled a .275 BA with 118 HR and 546 RBI over 1,239 career games. His finest season came with the Mets in 1996 batting .317 with 30 HR and 117 RBI, finishing 14th in the National League MVP voting.

Off the field, Gilkey made an appearance as an actor in the 1997 hit movie "Men in Black."

Gilkey, 53, resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife Patrice. The couple have two sons, Jaalen (24), who played college baseball at Central Arizona JC and Miles College, and Caeven (20) who played at High Point University.

TYLER WOLFE

HITTING COACH

Wolfe enters his first season as a coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals.

The Minnesota-native was a former infielder who was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 39th round of the Major League Baseball draft in 2016 out of Kansas State University.

He played 76 minor league games from 2016-17, advancing as high as Double-A in the Texas League at Corpus Christi, while carrying a career batting average of .205 with 3 HR and 26 RBI. The final two seasons of his playing career were in the Independent Leagues appearing in Sioux Falls, Schaumburg and Fargo-Moorhead.

Wolfe, 26, resides in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., with his wife Emily.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE CARDINALS BLUE (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Academy

Jubey, La Malena

Boca Chica, Dominican Republic

Academy Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez

Athletic Trainer: Kiomy Martinez

Strength & Conditioning: Chris Latimer

FRAY PENICHE

MANAGER

Peniche begins his 10th season as manager of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals Blue and has compiled a .514 record (.514) over that time managing his first eight seasons with the lone Cardinals Dominican entry.

Since splitting the Dominican Academy into two teams, Peniche's clubs have posted a .92-.44 record (.676) the highest winning percentage of any Cardinals minor league affiliate over the past two seasons.

The 2018 DSL Cardinals Blue squad made their first postseason appearance since the Cardinals Dominican Academy opened, while running off a franchise best 51 wins boasting the league batting champion in Malcom Nuñez.

Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Peniche spent 12 seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization, most recently as manager of the DSL Tigers (2007-10). Peniche began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (SS) in 1999, then moved on as a coach with the DSL Tigers from 2000-06. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Tigers and played four seasons in their minor league system. He spent three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers and one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers (R). Peniche, 43, resides in Santo Domingo Este, Dominican Republic, with his wife, Sandy, and two children: Aaron (20) and Fray Antonio (16).

B.J. ROPER-HUBBERT

HITTING COACH

Roper-Hubbert enters his second season coaching at the Cardinals Dominican Academy and first with the Dominican Summer League Blue squad. Last season, he was the hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League Red team. The Red squad ranked 6th in runs scored in the 45-team league, averaging 6.1 runs per game. They also ranked 2nd in the league in walks (415) and 6th in stolen bases (133), with a 77% success rate. Defensively, the club ranked T-4th with 62 double plays turned.

The Bermuda-native played college baseball at Alcorn State University where he was Southwestern Athletic Conference Newcomer of the Year in 2006 with a .404 batting average.

He was drafted by the New York Mets in the 32nd round of the June 2006 First-Year Player Draft and played three professional seasons in the Mets organization. Over those three years, Roper-Hubbert batted .224 with 11 home runs and 41 RBI over 132 games. The outfielder and catcher advanced as high as Advanced-A Port St. Lucie in the Florida State League.

In 2012, he was an outfielder for the Great Britain National team in the 2012 World Baseball Classic Qualifier team.

Roper-Hubbert, 34, resides in Ellenwood Ga.

BILL VILLANUEVA

PITCHING COACH

Villanueva returns for his fifth season as pitching coach of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals. He coached in Johnson City (R) for the 2015 season, and previously served in the same capacity for the DSL Cardinals from 2008-14. Villanueva joined the Cardinals organization in 2005. After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals' complex in Jupiter, Fla., in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

The 2019 DSL Cardinals Blue issued 233 walks (3.6 per game), the 5th-fewest among the 45 teams in the league.

Villanueva was the pitching coach when current St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Carlos Martinez won the 2010 Dominican Summer League ERA title with a 0.76 ERA.

A former right-handed pitcher, Villanueva signed with the Marlins in 1995 and pitched six seasons in their minor league system. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts). Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

The 41-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE CARDINALS RED (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Academy

Jubey, La Malena
Boca Chica, Dominican Republic

Academy Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez

Athletic Trainer: Luis Polanco

Strength & Conditioning: TBA

ESTUAR RUIZ

MANAGER

Ruiz enters his first season as the manager for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals team after working several years as a scout in Venezuela.

The former middle infielder played 146 games in the Orioles minor league system from 1990-92 for Bluefield in the Appalachian League and Kane County in the Midwest League. His career spanned from ages 17-19 posting a career batting average of .222 with 25 RBI.

Following his playing career, Ruiz worked for the Cleveland Indians organization, first as a coach in their Venezuelan academy from 1996-2002 and as an area scout in Caracas and the surrounding area from 2002-09. Two of his more prominent Major League signings were pitchers Hector Rondón and Jeanmar Gomez.

Prior to working for the Cardinals, Ruiz was the Infield Coach for the Seattle Mariners Venezuelan club. The 2012 club lost in the VZL finals.

Ruiz, 49, resides in Barcelona, Venezuela and has two daughters, Scarlys (27) and Stephany (25).

EDWIN MORENO

PITCHING COACH

Moreno will be serving his first season as a coach in the Cardinals organization and second as a coach overall after working as a pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Yankees in 2019.

The former right-handed pitcher played 11 professional seasons from 2000-10, making his Major League debut for San Diego in 2009. The right-hander went 1-3 with a 4.84 ERA (22.2 IP), with 15 strikeouts in 19 relief appearances for the Padres. Moreno was a Mid-Season All-Star for Portland (AAA) in the Pacific Coast League, and named a Mid-Season All-Star pitching for Petroleros de Minatitlán in the 2007 Mexican League, where he was 8-3 with a 2.71 ERA (103.0 IP) and 80 strikeouts in 17 games (14 starts).

Moreno, 29, resides in Venezuela.

LUIS CRUZ

COACH

Cruz will be serving his second season as a coach for the Dominican Summer League team.

The former Cardinals catcher and first baseman was signed out of the Dominican Republic as an 18-year old and played 287 career minor league games in the Cardinals organization over seven seasons.

He batted .264 with 14 home runs and 101 RBI playing as high as Triple-A Memphis in 2016, making an appearance in two games.

From 2017-18, Cruz played Independent League baseball in York of the Atlantic League and participated in the Dominican Winter League for Toros del Este.

Cruz, 26, is one of the youngest coaches in the Cardinals organization, and resides in Cotui, Dominican Republic in the off-season.

ISMAEL CASTRO

HITTING COACH

Castro enters his third season as hitting coach for the Dominican Summer League team and in the Cardinals organization.

An 11-year minor league veteran, Castro signed with the Seattle Mariners in 1999 out of Colombia and played as high as Triple-A Tacoma in 2006 where he batted .303 with 4 HR and 21 RBI in 49 games.

Overall in his minor league career, he played in 381 games carrying a .280 career batting average with 28 home runs, 164 RBI and was successful in 35 stolen bases out of 58 attempts. From 2007-10, Castro played Independent League ball for Macon, Nashua, Yuma and Chico.

In 2010, Castro helped Colombia win a Silver Medal at the South American Games and batted .333 for Colombia in the 2010 Pan American Games Qualifying Tournament.

He made two plate appearances for Colombia in the 2013 World Baseball Classic qualifying tournament, recording a pinch-hit single off Brazil. Castro, 37, resides in Cartagena, Colombia in the off-season.

PLAYER LIMITS:

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 26 (max. 13 pitchers) until September 1, when it will increase to 28 (max. 14 pitchers).

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 26-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

INJURED LISTS:

7-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is seven calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. Created specifically for players with concussion symptoms. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

10-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 10 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days, beginning on the day after the pitcher's or two-way player's last game. There is no limit on the number of pitchers that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

TWO-WAY PLAYERS

Players who qualify as "Two-Way Players" may appear as pitchers during a game without counting toward a Clubs' pitcher limitations. A player will qualify as a "Two-Way Player" only if he accrues both: (i) at least 20 Major League innings pitched; and (ii) at least 20 Major League games started (as a position player or designated hitter) with at least three plate appearances in each of those games, in either the current Championship Season or the prior Championship Season. The Club must designate that player as a "Two-Way Player" in advance of that game. Once a Club designates a qualified "Two-Way Player" that designation will remain in effect, and cannot change, for the remainder of that Championship Season and Postseason.

POSITION PLAYERS PITCHING

Any player may appear as a pitcher following the 9th inning of an extra inning game, or in any game in which his team is losing or winning by more than six runs when the player enters as a pitcher.

National League Postseason single-inning run record and tied the Major League mark. Also set the MLB postseason record for most runs scored in the 1st inning.*

In the deciding Game 5 of the 2019 National League Division Series in Atlanta, the Cardinals scored 10 runs in the 1st inning, a postseason record for the 1st inning and only the fourth 10-run inning in Major League postseason history.

The Cardinals set a team record with a 12-run seventh inning versus the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium on July 21, 2012, in which they also set a team record with seven doubles in the inning en route to a 12-0 victory.

DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man.

A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

TALE OF 10,000 TRIUMPHS

On June 25, 2018, the St. Louis Cardinals won their 10,000th regular-season game as a member of the National League with a 4-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians at Busch Stadium.

The Cardinals became the sixth N.L. franchise to reach that plateau, following the Braves, Cubs, Dodgers, Giants, and Pirates. The Yankees also boast 10,000 wins.

After playing in the American Association from 1881-91, St. Louis became a charter member of the newly reorganized N.L. in 1892. The club was known as the Browns (1892-98) and Perfectos (1899) before becoming the Cardinals in 1900.

From 2011-14, the Cardinals won four straight Division Series. Chris Carpenter threw a 1-0 shutout in Game 5 over Philadelphia in 2011 (upper left). The Cardinals rallied from a 6-0 deficit to defeat Washington at Nationals Park in Game 5 of 2012 (upper right). Adam Wainwright threw a complete game over Pittsburgh in 2013 (lower left) Game 5. Matt Carpenter homered in three straight games in the 2014 NLDS including a bases clearing triple (shown) off Clayton Kershaw to rally the Cardinals from a 6-1 deficit to a 10-9 win at Dodger Stadium in Game 1 (lower right).

THE PLOT

The St. Louis Cardinals won the first ever National League Wild Card game rallying to defeat the Atlanta Braves 6-3 at Turner Field in Atlanta. The Cardinals faced Braves starting pitcher Kris Medlen, who entered the game 10-1 with a 1.57 ERA, winning his last nine decisions with the Braves having won the last 12 games he started. Cardinals starting pitcher Kyle Lohse brought a 16-3 record into the game, the highest winning percentage (.842) by a pitcher in Cardinals history.

BRAVES STRIKE FIRST

The Braves struck first as David Ross hit a two-run home run in the bottom of the 2nd inning.

CARDINALS TAKE ADVANTAGE

St. Louis would break into the run column in the 4th inning, plating three runs courtesy of a Chipper Jones error that put two Cardinals on base for consecutive RBIs on a double by Allen Craig, a ground out from Yadier Molina and a sacrifice fly by David Freese.

HOLLIDAY'S HOME RUN

Matt Holliday smacked a solo home run in the 6th inning to give St. Louis a 4-2 lead. The Cardinals bullpen came on in relief of Lohse in the bottom of the 6th and wouldn't relinquish the lead.

CARDINALS CAPITALIZE ON MORE ERRORS

Errors by the Braves led to two more Cardinals runs in the 7th as Freese reached on a Dan Uggla error to lead off the inning. Daniel Descalso bunted pinch-runner Adron Chambers into scoring position and an error by Andrelton Simmons on Pete Kozma's ground ball scored Chambers and kept the Cardinals in scoring position. Rookie Matt Carpenter hit a pinch-hit infield single and Kozma, running on contact, scored all the way from second to give the Cardinals a 6-2 lead.

BRAVES INCH CLOSER

The Braves scored in the bottom of the seventh as pinch-hitter José Constanza tripled and scored on a Michael Bourn ground out.

THE INFIELD FLY

The Braves threatened again in the 8th inning with one out and runners on first and second base as Braves' shortstop Andrelton Simmons hit a pop fly to left field. Pete Kozma appeared to be under it before vacating for left fielder Matt Holliday. The ball dropped in, but left field umpire Sam Holbrook had signaled for an infield fly, automatically resulting in an out for Simmons, while the Braves runners moved up to second and third at their own risk. Jason Motte came on in relief following a walk to load the bases and struck out Michael Bourn to end the inning as fans littered the Turner Field playing surface with debris.

MOTTE PITCHES THE CARDINALS INTO THE NLCS

The Cardinals held the Braves scoreless in the 9th inning and won the game 6-3 to advance to the National League Division Series against the top-seeded Washington Nationals who they defeated in five games.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

In the 128-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 14 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owner's box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (21 numbers/22 individuals) have recognized more individuals among Major League Baseball franchises, while the New York/San Francisco Giants also have honored 14. The honored Redbirds' uniform numbers appear in two areas at Busch Stadium – on the left-field wall and below the main scoreboard in right-center field.

Uniform No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. The Cardinals subsequently retired No. 42 for Hall of Fame relief pitcher Bruce Sutter in 2006.

The most-recent Redbird so honored was manager Tony La Russa, who returned to Busch Stadium on May 11, 2012, for a pregame ceremony during which his No. 10 was retired before a sellout crowd. He also was presented a key to the city by St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay.

OZZIE SMITH SHORTSTOP

1

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 150 BATS: Both

THROWS: Right

BORN: December 26, 1954 at Mobile, Alabama

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But, after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success in the 1980s, and he became one of the city's most-popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly improved that figure to .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career-high six home runs and 54 RBI. He stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast – on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer – was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Glove Awards between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 5, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Among shortstops, Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375) and ranks second in total chances (12,905) and double plays (1,590). He led the N.L. in fielding percentage seven times and had a career .978 mark. In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove team, selected to honor the 50th anniversary of the Gold Glove Award.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games and started 11 of them. At the time of his retirement following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Midsummer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On the Cardinals' career lists, Smith ranks third in games played (1,990), at-bats (7,160), walks (876) and stolen bases (433) and seventh in runs (991) and eighth in hits (1,944).

Held in high esteem for his civic-mindedness, Smith received the Lou Gehrig Award (presented to the player who best exhibits the character and integrity of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field) in 1989, the Branch Rickey Award (in recognition of his exceptional community service) in 1994 and the Roberto Clemente Award (presented to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team) in 1995.

Smith was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2002, earning 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America, and an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

RED SCHOENDIENST

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right

BORN: February 2, 1923 at Germantown, Illinois

DIED: June 6, 2018 at St. Louis, Missouri

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and was involved with the organization for a total of 67 years.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club to fill in for left fielder Stan Musial, who was serving in the U.S. Navy. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. The following year, Musial returned to the Cardinals, and Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average – second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers (.344), 15 home runs and 79 RBI. In a surprising trade, Schoendienst was dealt to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman on June 14, 1956.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in pinch-hits (54), fifth in at-bats (6,841); sixth in games played (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); eighth in doubles (352); and ninth in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times he either led or tied for the league lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory over the Red Sox in 1967 and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, the longest in franchise history until Tony La Russa surpassed him in 2008. Schoendienst's 1,041 wins ranks second in franchise annals behind Tony La Russa (1,408).

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Midsummer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. From 1996 to 2018, Schoendienst served as special assistant to the general manager. Schoendienst was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

STAN MUSIAL

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial

BORN: November 21, 1920 at Donora, Pennsylvania

DIED: January 19, 2013 at St. Louis, Missouri

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63

NUMBER RETIRED: 1963

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games played (3,026), at-bats (10,971), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,950), walks (1,605) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks eighth with 35 pinch-hits. He has the most walk-off home runs in franchise history (12) and the second-most multiple homer games (37) behind Albert Pujols (42).

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season, beginning a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples en route to earning the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of four World Series teams (1942, 1943, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Midsummer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch-hit double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He still has the fourth-most hits in baseball history – behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Following his playing days, Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the Cardinals and served as general manager when they won the 1967 World Series over the Boston Red Sox.

Musial was the first player in Cardinals history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1969, receiving 93 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Musial was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Rogers Hornsby as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

More than anything else, the personable Musial was a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." In 2010, Musial was chosen by former President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER

OUTFIELDER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right

BORN: April 27, 1916 at Roxboro, North Carolina

DIED: August 12, 2002 at Durham, North Carolina

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained at first base as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of four straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average – second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves (.330) – and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history. The Cardinals won the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1949 and topped the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Telling. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On the Cardinals' career lists, he ranks third in triples (135) and RBI (1,149); fourth in walks (838); fifth in games played (1,820), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); sixth in at-bats (6,775); and seventh in doubles (366). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1985, and he was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

TONY La RUSSA MANAGER

10

FULL NAME: Anthony La Russa Jr.

BORN: October 4, 1944 at Tampa, Florida

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1996-2011

NUMBER RETIRED: 2012

Tony La Russa was tantamount with winning.

As manager of the Cardinals from 1996 to 2011, La Russa amassed 1,408 victories. He became the winningest manager in franchise history Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. La Russa also won championships in St. Louis: eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2006 and 2011 World Series. All told, the Cardinals made nine postseason appearances in La Russa's 16 seasons at the helm, and his teams finished first, second or third in the N.L. Central Division 13 times.

His finest hour may have been his last. Trailing the Texas Rangers three games to two in the 2011 World Series – and twice down to their final strike in Game 6 – the Cardinals rallied to force Game 7 and went on to capture the franchise's 11th world championship. It capped a magical two-month odyssey for the ball club, which had been staving off elimination seemingly at every turn since Aug. 25, when it trailed the N.L. wild card race by 10 1/2 games, and made the playoffs on the season's final day.

When La Russa announced his retirement Oct. 31, 2011, his 16 years of continuous service were the most among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he totaled 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755).

La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of two to win a World Series title in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

In Oakland, La Russa piloted the A's to four division titles, three American League pennants and the 1989 World Championship. He is the A's franchise leader with 798 wins. The 1983 White Sox won the A.L. Western Division to make their first postseason appearance in 24 years.

La Russa and Leo Durocher are the only managers in major league history to win 500 games with three different teams. La Russa was named Major League Manager of the Year in 1983 and 1996; A.L. Manager of the Year in 1983, 1988 and 1992; and N.L. Manager of the Year in 2002. La Russa is the only manager to win an All-Star Game in both leagues, and he had a 4-2 record in the Midsummer Classic.

A native of Tampa, Fla., La Russa played second base, shortstop and third base in the majors for parts of six seasons with the Kansas City A's (1963), Oakland (1968-71), Atlanta (1971) and Chicago Cubs (1973).

Nineteen years before becoming manager of the Cardinals, La Russa served as a player-coach for the organization's New Orleans Triple-A affiliate in 1977. He began his managerial career a year later in the White Sox minor league system with Double-A Knoxville.

La Russa is a 1978 graduate of the Florida State University College of Law. He passed the bar exam in 1979 and became one of five lawyer/managers in baseball history, joining Monte Ward, Hughie Jennings, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey.

In 2014, La Russa was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Elaine, are the founders of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation, which saves abandoned dogs and cats and finds them homes.

KEN BOYER THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: May 20, 1931 at Liberty, Missouri

DIED: September 7, 1982 at St. Louis, Missouri

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

Only one player in Cardinals history has hit for the cycle twice. Ken Boyer accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove Awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory and contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game, 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Midsummer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists, Boyer ranks third in home runs (255); sixth in RBI (1,001) and total bases (3,011); seventh in at-bats (6,334); eighth in runs (988); ninth in hits (1,855) and games played (1,667) and 10th in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for third in club history behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club on April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division the following year. But, in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got on track, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age. He was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

DIZZY DEAN PITCHER

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: January 16, 1910 at Lucas, Arkansas

DIED: July 17, 1974 at Reno, Nevada

NUMBER RETIRED: 1974

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the Gas House Gang. The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout in an 11-0 Game 7 win.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On the Cardinals' career lists, Dean ranks third in strikeouts (1,095); fourth in winning percentage (.641); sixth in complete games (141) and shutouts (23); seventh in wins (134); and 10th in innings pitched (1,738.1).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1953 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

LOU BROCK OUTFIELDER

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170

BATS: Left

THROWS: Left

BORN: June 18, 1939 at El Dorado, Arkansas

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79

NUMBER RETIRED: 1979

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he owns the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering Maury Wills' mark of 104 during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases, making him the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), becoming the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium. Brock's 3,023 career hits rank 28th on baseball's all-time list through 2019.

Upon his arrival in St. Louis, Brock paid immediate dividends, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) ranks as the third-best in World Series history, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox. Brock holds the Fall Classic record for stolen bases in a single series (7 in both 1967 and 1968).

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 – Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games played (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427) and hits (2,713); third in doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); and sixth in walks (681). His 21 career leadoff home runs are the second-most in club annals behind Matt Carpenter (24).

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a base-running consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (base running and outfield play) since 1995.

The six-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1985 and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Brock was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Bob Gibson, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

WHITEY HERZOG MANAGER

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog

BORN: November 9, 1931 at New Athens, Illinois

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90

NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his on-field managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October. At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 37th on baseball's all-time list through 2019. He was named the 1982 Major League Manager of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it. Herzog was voted the manager on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

BRUCE SUTTER PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter

HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: January 8, 1953 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84

NUMBER RETIRED: 2006

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made the split-fingered fastball famous, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969. Chants of “Bruuuuuce!” bellowed throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck out Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as “a fastball that winds up like a dead fish” because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and tied for 29th through 2019. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolands Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind Jason Isringhausen (217), Lee Smith (160) and Todd Worrell (129). Sutter was voted the relief pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

BOB GIBSON PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right

BORN: November 9, 1935 at Omaha, Nebraska

NUMBER RETIRED: 1975

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander ranks first in wins (251), games started (482), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,884.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for ninth in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente on July 15 broke Gibson's right leg. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18. In the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox, Gibson went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts to again be named series MVP.

The postseason dominance was a sign of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered merely two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight distance-going performances. Gibson totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, socking 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Glove Awards. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1981 and an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and voted the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. In 2015, Gibson was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Rogers Hornsby and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

"Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

ROGERS HORNSBY

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: April 27, 1896 at Winters, Texas

DIED: January 5, 1963 at Chicago, Illinois

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933

NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure.)

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby. And only two players have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, Hornsby batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On June 1, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees. He tagged out Babe Ruth attempting to steal second base for the final out of Game 7, calling the play that clinched the 3-2 victory "the biggest thrill of my baseball career."

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 26, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Hornsby ranks first in batting average (.359); second in triples (143); third in hits (2,110); fourth in runs (1,090) and total bases (3,342); sixth in doubles (367); seventh in home runs (193) and walks (662); and 10th in at-bats (5,881). His 30 career inside-the-park home runs are the most in club annals, while he is tied for third with seven grand slams behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1942. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. In 2015, Hornsby was voted by the fans as a member of Franchise Four, joining Lou Brock, Bob Gibson and Stan Musial as one of the most impactful players who best represented the history of the Cardinals.

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR. PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.

BORN: March 28, 1899 at St. Louis, Missouri

DIED: September 29, 1989 at St. Louis, Missouri

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of Busch Stadium II. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious for the ball club to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 8, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the city of St. Louis' most-popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996. August Jr. was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

“That’s a winner!”

JACK BUCK BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck

BORN: August 21, 1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts

DIED: June 18, 2002 at St. Louis, Missouri

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-59, 1961-2001

NUMBER RETIRED: 2002

He never swung a bat or threw a pitch, yet Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals – perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the “Voice of the Cardinals” on KMOX Radio for 47 years (1954-59 and 1961-2001). He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise’s most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson’s no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock’s 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire’s 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith’s game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to “Go crazy, folks! Go crazy,” still sends chills up Cardinals fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck’s signature phrase after every Cardinals victory was “That’s a winner.”

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked alongside another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cardinals third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the pleasure of calling games with his son, Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck received the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals baseball. He broadcast seven World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland A’s. “Unbelievable!” Buck exclaimed. “I don’t believe what I just saw.” Buck was CBS television’s lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1995, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram. Buck called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS television. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler’s Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of “At Your Service” on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck’s popularity extended well beyond his trademark gravelly voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis’ Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community. Late in his life, Buck became interested in writing poetry, and he authored a piece called “For America” that he read to the crowd at Busch Stadium prior to the Cardinals’ first game following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. Buck passed away June 18, 2002, and some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

A key factor in the Cardinals' consistent success has been the leadership of outstanding field managers. For proof, look no further than the franchise's 10 winningest skippers – eight of them have been inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

While it is recognized that some of the managers earned induction into baseball's ultimate shrine for their accomplishments away from St. Louis or for their playing careers, the fact remains that the Cardinals have regularly employed Cooperstown-worthy individuals.

Following is a thumbnail sketch of each of the eight Hall of Famers, listed by victories in a St. Louis uniform:

TONY LA RUSSA

1st – 1,408 wins / 1996-2011 / Hall of Fame 2014

La Russa became the winningest manager in franchise history August 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. The Cardinals won eight division titles, three National League pennants as well as the 2006 and 2011 World Series in his 16-year tenure, the longest in franchise history. Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he amassed 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755). La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of just two to win a World Championship in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

RED SCHOENDIENST

2nd – 1,041 wins / 1965-76, 1980, 1990 / Hall of Fame 1989

Schoendienst served as a coach on the Cardinals' 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 followed by another National League pennant in 1968 and went on to occupy the manager's office for 12 years. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Previously, Schoendienst played for the Cardinals from 1945 to 1956 and again from 1961 to 1963, becoming one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time. A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Midsummer Classic.

WHITEY HERZOG

3rd – 822 wins / 1980-90 / Hall of Fame 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Herzog. His teams won three National League pennants (1982, 1985 and 1987) and the 1982 World Series, the franchise's first championship in 15 years. Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980, and that December, in the dual role of field manager and general manager, he began to transform the ball club with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. Fans subsequently flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79).

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

BILLY SOUTHWORTH

4th – 620 wins / 1929, 1940-45 / Hall of Fame 2009

Southworth piloted Cardinals teams that won the World Series in 1942 and 1944, sandwiched around a third National League pennant in 1943. St. Louis won a franchise-best 106 games in 1942, followed by back-to-back 105-win seasons, marking the best three-year run in team annals. Furthermore, a Redbird won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award each of those years: pitcher Mort Cooper in 1942, outfielder Stan Musial in 1943 and shortstop Marty Marion in 1944. Southworth's winning percentage of .642 tops the Cardinals' record book. After leaving St. Louis, Southworth managed the Boston Braves from 1946 to 1951, capturing the N.L. pennant in 1948. His lifetime winning percentage of .597 (1,044-704 record) ranks fifth on baseball's all-time list, trailing Joe McCarthy (.615), Jim Mutrie (.611), Charlie Comiskey (.608) and Frank Selee (.598).

FRANKIE FRISCH

T6th – 458 wins / 1933-38 / Hall of Fame 1947

The 1934 Cardinals – the collection of swashbuckling players dubbed the Gas House Gang – won the World Series with a roster that featured seven future Hall of Famers. The leader of the posse was Frisch, who filled the two-fold role of second baseman and manager for six seasons. The 1931 National League Most Valuable Player posted a winning record in each of his four full campaigns, recording 95 victories in 1934 and 96 the following year. Frisch, who played in the major leagues for 19 years with the New York Giants (1919-26) and Cardinals (1927-37), finished with 2,880 career hits and a .316 batting average, the highest ever for a switch-hitter. He played on two World Championship teams with each organization and was a member of the first three N.L. All-Star teams from 1933 to 1935. Frisch later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates (1940-46) and Chicago Cubs (1949-51).

BRANCH RICKEY

T6th – 458 wins / 1919-25 / Hall of Fame 1967

Certainly, Rickey is most known for his role in Jackie Robinson breaking Major League Baseball's color barrier and for creating and sustaining the first significant farm system. But during his quarter-century as manager and vice president of the Cardinals from 1917 to 1942, Rickey transformed the once-downtrodden franchise into a bona fide winner. With Rickey as manager, St. Louis finished as high as third in the National League in 1921 and 1922, but a foundation was being laid that led to the franchise's first four World Championships (1926, 1931, 1934 and 1942) and two additional N.L. pennants (1928 and 1930). Rickey, who previously was manager of the St. Louis Browns from 1913 to 1915, went on to hold executive positions with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1943-50) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1950-55). He handpicked Robinson to become the first African American to play in the big leagues in 1947.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

JOE TORRE

9th – 351 wins / 1990-95 / Hall of Fame 2014

Torre was a standout catcher, first baseman and third baseman for the Cardinals from 1969 to 1974 and later manager during a time of transition. In 1971, he topped the National League with a .363 batting average and 137 RBI en route to being named Most Valuable Player. Torre batted .297 over the course of his 18-year career. Following managerial stints with the New York Mets (1977-81) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84), Torre returned to St. Louis to replace Whitey Herzog. He piloted the Cardinals to three winning seasons, including a second-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division in 1991. Toward the end of his tenure, Anheuser-Busch made plans to sell the franchise, and Torre moved on to the New York Yankees (1996-2007). His Bronx teams made the playoffs in each of his 12 seasons and won four World Series: 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000. Torre subsequently managed the Los Angeles Dodgers (2008 to 2010). His 84 postseason victories are the most all time.

MILLER HUGGINS

10th – 346 wins / 1913-17 / Hall of Fame 1964

Like Joe Torre, Huggins enjoyed his ultimate success as manager of the New York Yankees. A second baseman for the Cardinals from 1910 to 1916, Huggins took on managerial duties as well in 1913. The following year, St. Louis wound up in third place in the National League with an 81-72 record, its best finish since 1891. Huggins went on to manage the Yankees from 1918 to 1929, winning the franchise's first World Series in 1923. Under Huggins, New York won six American League pennants and two additional World Championships (1927 and 1928) with their Murderer's Row lineup that included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. It was Huggins who inserted Gehrig into the starting lineup on June 2, 1925, beginning his streak of 2,130 consecutive games played.

The two non-Hall of Famers on the Cardinals' top 10 wins list are Mike Matheny and Eddie Dyer.

In six-plus seasons from 2012 to 2018, Matheny amassed 591 wins to rank fifth. He became the first manager in Major League Baseball history to take teams to the postseason in each of his first four full campaigns. The Cardinals won three consecutive National League Central Division championships from 2013 to 2015 and captured the N.L. pennant in 2013

Dyer ranks eighth with 446 wins after piloting the Cardinals from 1946 to 1950. His .578 winning percentage is topped only by Billy Southworth among St. Louis managers at the helm for more than two seasons. Dyer's first team, which welcomed back players who served in World War II, captured the franchise's third World Championship in five seasons, and each of his next three squads finished second in the N.L. Dyer did not manage again after leaving the Redbirds.

Five other individuals who served as manager of the Cardinals are Hall of Famers: Roger Bresnahan (1909-12), Roger Connor (1896), Rogers Hornsby (1925-26), Bill McKechnie (1928-29) and Kid Nichols (1904-05).

TED ST. LOUIS CARDINALS: 1968-1980 SIMMONS

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR SELECTION
TO THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME
INDUCTION CLASS OF 2020.

FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY
FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY
FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY
FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY FLY

One of the greatest Cardinals of all time now is regarded as one of baseball's immortals.

Ted Simmons is a Hall of Famer. He received 13 votes from the 16-member Modern Baseball Era Committee on Dec. 8, 2019, and will be enshrined in Cooperstown, New York, on July 26, 2020. He will be the 50th person with ties to the Cardinals organization to be inducted.

Simmons was a switch-hitting catcher for the Cardinals and a fan favorite from 1968 to 1980 as part of a 21-year major league career. He slashed .285/.348/.437 overall with 2,472 hits, 248 home runs and 1,389 RBI. Among catchers, only Ivan Rodriguez has more hits and doubles, while only Yogi Berra has more RBI. Among switch-hitters, Simmons ranks sixth in RBI and 11th in hits. Simmons realized a 50.3 career Wins Above Replacement, one of nine catchers at 50-plus.

Simmons is the 19th catcher elected to the Hall of Fame and merely the eighth who debuted after World War II, following Roy Campanella (1969), Berra (1972), Johnny Bench (1989), Carlton Fisk (2000), Gary Carter (2003), Mike Piazza (2016) and Rodriguez (2017).

Simmons was an eight-time All-Star, including six times with the Cardinals: 1972, 1973, 1974, 1977, 1978 and 1979. He was voted the National League starter in 1978, ending Bench's streak of nine straight starts.

From 1972 (his first all-star season) to 1983 (his eighth), Simmons matched Reggie Jackson for RBI among all players and ranked fourth in doubles and fifth in hits. He drove in 90-plus runs eight times and batted .300 or better on six occasions while playing an average of 144 games per season.

Simmons placed in the top 10 in the league in batting average and RBI during six seasons. He was runner-up for the N.L. batting crown with a .332 average in 1975, when he had 18 home runs and 100 RBI and finished sixth in Most Valuable Player voting. Simmons boasted two other top-10 MVP campaigns (ninth in 1977 and 10th in 1972) and won a Silver Slugger Award in 1980 (its inaugural season).

For his career, Simmons drew 855 walks and struck out only 694 times in 8,680 at-bats.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Simmons ranks seventh with 929 RBI, ninth with 172 home runs and 10th with 2,626 total bases. He is third with 151 intentional walks and tied for third with seven grand slams – trailing only Stan Musial and Albert Pujols in both categories. His 1,439 games behind the plate are second to Yadier Molina in franchise history. Simmons holds season records for home runs (26 in 1979) and RBI (96 in 1972) by a catcher.

Acclaimed for handling pitchers with aplomb, Simmons caught two no-hitters – Bob Gibson at Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, and Bob Forsch against Philadelphia on April 16, 1978 – and 122 shutouts (eighth-most in baseball history).

On Dec. 12, 1980, the Cardinals traded Simmons, Rollie Fingers and Pete Vuckovich to the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for Sixto Lezcano, Lary Sorensen, Dave LaPoint and David Green. Simmons was instrumental in helping the Brewers reach the World Series for the first time in franchise history in 1982 against the Cardinals. In Game 1 of the Fall Classic – his first time back in St. Louis – Simmons socked a home run, and he hit another one the next night.

Simmons was selected by the Cardinals in the first round (10th overall) of the 1967 MLB June Amateur Draft. He made his big league debut a year later at age 19.

Nicknamed "Simba" for his shoulder-length hair that resembled a lion's mane, Simmons was voted the catcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2015.

Simmons played in Milwaukee through the 1985 season and then spent three years with the Atlanta Braves before retiring. He returned to the Cardinals as director of player development from 1988 to 1991 and was general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates for a year before becoming a coach, advisor and scout with several organizations.

LARRY ST. LOUIS CARDINALS: 2004-05 WALKER

TO THE NATIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME
INDUCTION CLASS OF 2020.

While Larry Walker crafted most of his Hall of Fame resume with the Montreal Expos and Colorado Rockies, the experience with his final employer – the Cardinals – can't be overlooked.

The Cardinals acquired Walker from the Rockies on Aug. 6, 2004, in exchange for three minor league pitchers: Jason Burch, Luis Martinez and Chris Narveson. The left-handed swinging Walker joined a potent lineup, batting second ahead of Albert Pujols, Scott Rolen and Jim Edmonds, and his veteran presence helped St. Louis to a pair of postseason trips.

It took Walker merely his first at-bat in a Cardinals uniform to realize the specialness of St. Louis fans. Introduced to a standing ovation at Busch Stadium II on Aug. 7, he proceeded to strike out as a pinch-hitter against Kris Benson of the New York Mets and then got another standing "O."

Over the next two weeks, Walker belted two grand slams – against Danny Graves of the Cincinnati Reds on Aug. 17 and Brian Meadows of the Pittsburgh Pirates on Aug. 22 – leading to, astonishingly, the first two curtain calls of his distinguished career.

Walker went on to bat .280 with 11 home runs and 27 RBI in 44 games for the Cardinals, who won 105 regular-season games and advanced to the World Series for the first time since 1987. He hit two round-trippers in each of the Division Series, League Championship Series and World Series while batting at a .293 clip (17-for-58) with 11 RBI in 15 playoff games. In Game 1 of the Fall Classic against the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park, Walker went 4-for-5 with two doubles, a homer and two RBI.

In 2005, Walker contributed a .289 batting average, 15 homers and 52 RBI in 100 games as the Cardinals posted a 100-62 record and captured their second straight National League Central Division title. He announced his retirement following Game 6 of the NLCS.

Walker was born in Maple Ridge, British Columbia, and spent his first six major league seasons in Montreal from 1989 to 1994. In his final season with the Expos, he batted .322 and shared the N.L. lead with 44 doubles. Walker subsequently signed as a free agent with Colorado, playing the next nine-plus years with the Rockies. He was named the 1997 N.L. Most Valuable Player on the strength of a .366 batting average and career highs of 409 total bases (most in the majors), 49 home runs (tops in the league), 130 RBI and 33 stolen bases. Three of the next four seasons, Walker led the N.L. in batting average – .363 in 1998, .379 in 1999 and .350 in 2001 – and from 1997 to 1999 he became the first player in the Senior Circuit to bat .360 in three consecutive seasons since Hall of Famer Rogers Hornsby did so from 1927 to 1929.

Over the course of his 17-year career, Walker batted .313 with a .400 on-base percentage and a .565 slugging percentage. He is the 17th Hall of Famer to slash .300/.400/.500 and only the fourth since Cardinals legend Stan Musial retired in 1963 (also Chipper Jones, Edgar Martinez and Frank Thomas). Walker amassed 2,160 hits – the first Canadian-born player to reach 2,000 hits – with 383 home runs, 1,311 RBI and 230 stolen bases. He was a five-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger Award recipient. A premier defensive right fielder, Walker won seven Gold Glove awards while recording a total of 154 outfield assists.

Walker's lifetime WAR of 72.7 ranks 56th all-time among position players, two spots ahead of his Hall of Fame classmate Derek Jeter of the New York Yankees.

Walker gained election into the Hall of Fame in his 10th and final year of eligibility via the Baseball Writers' Association of America, receiving 76.6 percent of the vote. He made remarkable advances over the last seven years, climbing from just 10.2 percent in 2014. Walker will be enshrined in Cooperstown, New York, on July 26, 2020, becoming the 51st person with ties to the Cardinals organization to be so honored.

CARDINALS HALL OF FAME

The Cardinals Hall of Fame was established in January of 2014 to honor those individuals who have had a significant impact on the tradition-rich franchise.

Twenty-two individuals were automatically selected for the Hall of Fame in conjunction with its formation. Members of the inaugural class included those Cardinals enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, primarily as members of the Cardinals organization, and those individuals whose numbers have been retired by the franchise.

The Hall of Fame currently consists of 43 members.

To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played for the Cardinals for at least three seasons and have been retired from Major League Baseball for at least three years. Eligible players are divided into two categories – modern players and veteran players. A veteran is a player who retired more than 40 years prior to the induction year.

Annually, the Cardinals convene a “Red Ribbon Committee” of experts to select six to 10 players to be placed on a ballot on Cardinals.com, where fans have the opportunity to vote for a period of six weeks. The two players with the most online votes will be inducted. The committee also picks a veteran player to be inducted. In addition, the Cardinals organization may choose from time to time to induct an important figure in franchise history, such as a coach, broadcaster or member of the front office, without a vote or committee selection.

Each member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame is permanently recognized in the Hall of Fame Gallery presented by Edward Jones, located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Hall of Fame Gallery is free and open to the public.

The sixth induction class of the St. Louis Cardinals Hall of Fame included pitcher Jason Isringhausen (2002-08), third baseman Scott Rolen (2002-07) and pitcher Mort Cooper (1938-45) on Saturday, August 18, 2018.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

MEDIA WEBSITE

Cardinals gamenotes, press releases and other information can be found at CardinalsPressbox.com.

Videos and information can also be accessed at the team's FTP site: <ftp://stanmusial.cardsnet.net>

Contact a member of the Cardinals communications staff for login and password information.

CREDENTIALS: Credentials will be issued to legitimate news-gathering agencies only and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made online at <https://credentials.mlb.com>. Requests should be made at least two working days prior to the game. Credentials are issued to working members of the press; no spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations could result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available four hours prior to the start of the game at the media window, 424 South 7th St., located at the southwest corner of the stadium, near Gate 2. Photo identification is required. The press entrance is to the right of the media window.

ADMISSION: All media should enter the stadium through the press entrance at the southwest corner of the stadium, Media / VIP Entrance. The stadium will be open to media four hours before game time. If an earlier entrance to the ballpark is necessary, please contact a member of the communications staff.

PRESS BOX: The broadcast level of the pressbox is located on Level 3 (Loge Concourse) and the upper pressbox is located on Level 4 (Terrace Concourse) of the stadium. The media elevator is located in the lobby of the media entrance and is designated for employees and press only. Media should take the elevator to either the third level (broadcast) or fourth level (writers/radio) to reach the pressboxes. The press box is for working members of the media only and is a non-smoking area.

MEDIA DINING: The media dining facility is on the main service level of the stadium. It is open for meal service one-and one half hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately one hour after the game begins. The dining facility is located down the hallway off the media entrance lobby, on your left at the end of the hall. A media meal is $10.

CLUBHOUSES: Both the Cardinals and visitors clubhouses are located on the lower level of the stadium. The Cardinals clubhouse is on the first-base side while the visitors area can be found on the third-base side of the stadium. All working media with clubhouse credentials have access to the clubhouses 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until the beginning of batting practice. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion.

FIELD: No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges. All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES: Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours prior to game time and on www.CardinalsPressbox.com. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available by request in the press box from club communications representatives. Digital versions of most Major League Baseball media guides can be viewed and are available for download at www.mlbpressbox.com.

CARDINALSPRESSBOX.COM: Gamenotes, team headshots, logos, press releases and MLB information can be found at this site. Accredited media agencies can sign up for an account to have access at all times to regular season and postseason data. Users must register for an MLB.com account to apply for access.

LOS CARDENALES SPANISH MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENCIALES: Credenciales se otorgarán únicamente a agencias noticiosas legítimas y deberán ser exhibidas de manera visible a toda hora. Todo tipo de petición de credenciales se tendrá que hacer online en credentials.mlb.com. Toda petición se deberá hacer por lo menos dos días laborales antes del juego. Las credenciales se otorgarán únicamente a los miembros de la prensa. Los esposos y esposas, los invitados o hijos de los miembros de la prensa no podrán tener pases y las credenciales no serán transferibles. Se le prohíbe a todo personal con credenciales solicitar autógrafos. Cualquier violación de las reglas podría resultar en una revocación inmediata de la credencial. Todas las credenciales para el juego estarán disponibles 4 horas antes del comienzo del juego en la ventanilla de los medios de comunicación en 424 South 7th St. localizada en la esquina suroeste del estadio cerca de la puerta 2. Una identificación con foto será requerida. La entrada de la prensa está a la derecha de la ventanilla de prensa.

ADMISION: Todos los miembros de la prensa deben ingresar al estadio por la entrada de prensa en la esquina suroeste del estadio, "Media/VIP Entrance." El estadio estará abierto a los medios 4 horas antes del juego. Si es necesaria una entrada más temprano al estadio, favor de contactar a un miembro del personal de comunicación.

PALCO DE PRENSA: Las transmisiones se hacen en el tercer nivel del palco de prensa (Loge Concourse) y la parte superior del palco de prensa está en el cuarto nivel (Terrace Concourse) del estadio. El elevador de los medios está localizado en el lobby de la entrada de los medios y esta designado únicamente para empleados y prensa.

MEDIA DINING: El salón comedor de la prensa está en el piso principal de servicio del estadio. Esta abierto una hora y media antes del juego para miembros acreditados de la prensa. El salón se encuentra abierto aproximadamente una hora después del comienzo del juego. El salón comedor está localizado al final del pasillo a mano izquierda, después del lobby de la entrada de los medios. El costo de la comida es $10.

CLUBHOUSES: El clubhouse de los Cardenales y de los visitantes están localizados en el nivel bajo del estadio. El clubhouse de los Cardenales está del lado de la primera base mientras que el de los visitantes se encuentra en el lado de la tercera base del estadio. Todos los miembros de la prensa con credenciales tienen acceso al clubhouse 3 horas y media antes del juego, hasta el comienzo de la práctica de bateo. Después del juego, a los integrantes de los medios que tienen credenciales con acceso al clubhouse, se les permitirá acceso durante no más de 10 minutos después de la conclusión del juego.

TERRENO: A ninguna persona se le permitirá paso al terreno, a menos que ese individuo tenga credenciales especiales para privilegios dentro del terreno. Todo personal sin uniforme deberá abandonar el terreno 30 minutos antes del primer lanzamiento.

NOTAS PARA LA PRENSA (Press notes): Las notas del juego y las estadísticas están disponibles en el palco de prensa aproximadamente dos horas antes del juego y en www.mlbpressbox.com. Las estadísticas y los resultados jugada por jugada, estarán disponibles después de cada juego.

GUIA DE MEDIOS: La guía de medios está disponible para los que la pidan en el palco de prensa de parte de los representantes de comunicación. La guía también se podrá acceder y ver en mlbpressbox.com. Una versión digital de la guía también está disponible para descargar.

MLBPRESSBOX.COM: Las notas de los juegos, fotos del equipo, logos, comunicados de prensa e información de MLB se pueden encontrar en este sitio de la web. Los medios acreditados pueden crear una cuenta para acceder a esta información a toda hora durante la temporada regular y la postemporada.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • RADIO

KMOX Radio begins their 63rd year overall and 10th consecutive as the Voice of the Cardinals. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005 and returned as the team's flagship station in 2011.

The club boasts a radio network of 145 stations covering 8 states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2020 games and 15 of the team's spring training games and 12 additional streamed only games. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary for home games. Rooney and partner Ricky Horton will broadcast on the road.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 49th season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcaster for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FOX Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series.

Mike's career was cut short by a kidney disease in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

Shannon has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter, and received the Sportscaster of the Year award for the state of Missouri from the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2002, 2003 and 2014. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his on air career and as a player on the field, and in May 2013 the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame named Mike a Missouri Sports Legend, the 26th such honor given. In 2009, he was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires and was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year in 2010. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his 15th season of broadcasting Cardinals games. A Richmond, Mo. native, Rooney came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV followed by 17 seasons in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privilege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 65, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma City 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds.

John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. Rooney's National Assignments over the years include the MLB Division Series, League Championship Series and World Series, Saturday Afternoon and Sunday Night Baseball for CBS Radio, the FOX TV Saturday Baseball Game Of The Week and ESPN Radio Saturday and Sunday night baseball assignments. Rooney has worked 20 MLB All Star Games on National Radio, called NFL games on CBS and Sports USA Radio and has broadcast 19 NCAA Tournaments on the National Radio Network, including 10 National Championship Games.

Over the years Rooney has been an announcer on various college basketball telecasts including the Big Ten, Conference USA, Big East and has been the Voice of the Missouri Valley Conference telecasts for the past five seasons. He has broadcast College Football Bowl Games including the Cotton, Orange, Fiesta, Sun, Independence and Capital One Bowls.

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004 and recipient of the 2018 Tom Hammond National Sports Media Award presented by the Kentucky Bluegrass Sports Commission. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters: Colleen and Rachel.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • RADIO

MIKE CLAIBORNE

Mike Claiborne will be covering his 37th year of St. Louis sports in 2020. He began his time at KMOX in February of 1981 co-hosting "Sports Open Line." His various duties in St. Louis have consisted of being a color analyst, providing play-by-play, a studio analyst and sideline reporter for St. Louis University Basketball, UM St. Louis Basketball, St. Louis Blues Hockey, St. Louis Rams, Fox Sports Midwest and the St. Louis Cardinals.

This is Mike's 13th year as a part of the radio Cardinals Broadcast team with Mike Shannon, John Rooney, and Ricky Horton. Their work together includes the pregame show, play-by-play and Player of the Game.

Mike currently lives in St. Louis and is the father of two daughters, Taylor and Alyx.

JIM JACKSON

Jim Jackson, the man who "turns the knobs and pulls the levers" for Cardinals radio, has served as the chief engineer and production coordinator for Cardinals radio since 1998 and has been part of three World Series (2006, 2011 & 2013) with the Cardinals radio broadcast team.

Jackson, a St. Louis native has served in his same capacity for the St. Louis Blues, St. Louis University Billikens and the St. Louis Rams and he has also worked for the Anheuser-Busch Bud Sports Productions group. In addition to working with current announcers Mike Shannon, John Rooney, Ricky Horton and Mike Claiborne, Jackson has worked alongside Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, Joe Buck, Joel Meyers and Wayne Hagin.

Jackson, who has five grown children and eight grandchildren, lives in St. Louis with his wife, Fran.

The Cardinals continue their partnership in 2020 with WIJR AM 880 La Tremenda to carry Cardinals Radio Spanish broadcasts. Polo Ascencio and Bengie Molina for the first time will provide play-by-play commentary for 79 home games this season.

POLO ASCENCIO

Polo Ascencio enters his 5th season as a Cardinals Spanish broadcaster. On September 29, 2016, he became the first Spanish play-by-play broadcaster in Cardinals history in a game that ended in dramatic fashion with a Yadier Molina walk-off single over the Cincinnati Reds.

Polo's career began in 2004 in radio and later on TV as a sports anchor for Univision. In 2006, he was a writer for the Los Angeles Dodgers Spanish website. Ascencio was a producer/reporter for the Los Angeles Dodgers and Time Warner Cable (2008-14), where he created and hosted of "Cubriendo Las Bases." In the winter of 2014, Ascencio was appointed play-by-play announcer for Aguilas de Mexicali in the Mexican Baseball Winter League.

The 2015-16 seasons were spent inside the radio booth with the Dodgers as a producer and statistician for both Spanish and English radio alongside MLB Hall of Fame members Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrin, doubling as a fill in for post-game shows. In 2017, Polo became the first announcer for Ke Buena Radio and the Saint Louis FC soccer organization of the United Soccer League.

In his career of over a decade now, Ascencio has covered all editions of the World Baseball Classic, NCAA football, BCS games, Copa America Centenario de Futbol, Liga MX soccer games, Major League Soccer, International soccer challenge matches and world championship boxing.

Born in Tijuana, Mexico, Polo resides in Santa Barbara, California with his wife Maribel and their children, Bianca and Jacob.

BENGIE MOLINA

Molina begins his 5th season with the Cardinals serving as Color Analyst for the Cardinals Radio Spanish Broadcasts. Molina was the Assistant Hitting Coach for the Cardinals in the 2013 season and the First Base/Catching Coach for the 2014 Texas Rangers.

Molina concluded a 13-season Major League career in the 2010 World Series. He posted a .274 career batting average with 144 HRs and 711 RBI. Molina spent most of his career with the Anaheim Angels, after signing in 1993 as a non-drafted free-agent. He made his Major League debut in 1998 with Anaheim and in his two best seasons for the Angels, 2000 and 2003, he had almost identical numbers: hitting .281, 14 home runs and 71 RBI. He signed as a free agent with Toronto in 2006, hitting 19 home runs and batting .284. He signed with the San Francisco Giants in 2007 and again hit 19 home runs with 81 RBI and then in 2009 he smacked a career-high 20 home runs with 80 RBI. He had a career-high 95 RBI with 16 HR in 2008.

Molina won a World Championship with the Anaheim Angels in 2002, playing in all seven World Series games while hitting .286. He also had the unique experience in 2010 of beginning the season with San Francisco before a mid-season trade to Texas, the two eventual World Series teams. Molina was a Gold Glove recipient in both 2002 and 2003. Molina is the older brother of Cardinals catcher Yadier Molina and two-time World Champion 15-year MLB catcher Jose Molina. The trio's father, Benjamin, Sr., was inducted into Puerto Rico's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame as a second baseman on October 27, 2002, the same day as Game 7 of the 2002 World Series in which Bengie started.

Molina, a Dorado and Vega Alta, Puerto Rico native, currently resides in Gilbert, AZ with his wife, Jamie, and daughter, Jayda. He also has two older daughters, Kyshly and Kelssy.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING • TELEVISION

FOX Sports Midwest is the television home for Cardinals broadcasts again in 2020, the third year of a new long-term media rights agreement that keeps Cardinals baseball on the regional sports network for years to come. FOX Sports Midwest will televise all regular-season Cardinals games and 15 Cardinals spring training games in 2020.

Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Rick Ankiel, Jim Edmonds, Brad Thompson, Ricky Horton and Tim McCarver, with Al Hrabosky as studio analyst and Jim Hayes, Scott Warmann and Erica Weston as pregame and postgame hosts and in-game reporters.

MIDWEST

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin will be entering his 23rd season as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on FOX Sports Midwest. A St. Louis native, McLaughlin called his first major league game at the age of 23 and his work in 2019 earned him an Emmy Award for outstanding play-by-play. His baseball assignments have included national telecasts of FOX Saturday Baseball. Dan has previously filled in on numerous Cardinals radio broadcasts working alongside Mike Shannon and Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, and he continues to produce daily radio and television features on the Cardinals Network and cardinals.com.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin does play-by-play for Saint Louis University and Missouri Valley Conference Basketball. He has also worked play-by-play for "FOX NFL Sunday" as well as calling college football and basketball for ESPN and FOX Sports, and was the studio host of St. Louis Blues hockey on both radio and television.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood University where he played baseball, Dan began his professional broadcasting career at KMOX Radio and in 2001, he won the A.I.R. Award as St. Louis' best sportscaster. He is a two-time winner of the Mid-America Emmy Award for play-by-play. McLaughlin, 46, was inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame in 2005, and in 2016 he received the prestigious Burnes/Broeg Award from the Missouri Athletic Club for his contributions to the city of St. Louis through sports.

Away from the booth, he serves on the boards and is active in numerous local charities including "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament" which has raised over $3 million dollars for children with disabilities. He also formed the "Dan Macnificent Kids" program, which provides tickets, food and items at select Cardinals games to special needs and underprivileged children and their families.

He and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son Luke, daughter Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

RICK ANKIEL

Rick Ankiel, an accomplished major league pitcher and outfielder, serves as an analyst on Cardinals pregame and postgame shows on FOX Sports Midwest.

Ankiel made his big-league debut with the Cardinals in 1999, at age 20. He started 30 games in 2000, winning 11 games with a 3.50 ERA and 194 strikeouts and finishing second in National League Rookie of the Year voting. He last pitched in the majors in 2004. Ankiel returned in 2007 as an outfielder, hitting 76 home runs over seven seasons with the Cardinals, Royals, Braves, Nationals, Astros and Mets. He became the first player since Babe Ruth to win at least 10 games as a pitcher and hit at least 50 home runs. He retired as a player in 2013.

In 2017, Ankiel published a memoir titled The Phenomenon: Pressure, The Yips, and the Pitch that Changed My Life.

Ankiel resides in Jupiter, Fla., with his wife Lory and sons Declan and Ryker.

JIM EDMONDS

Jim Edmonds will enter his fifth season with the Cardinals television broadcast team serving as game analyst broadcasting select games alongside Dan McLaughlin on FOX Sports Midwest. Edmonds will also return for his eighth season as a studio analyst on the Cardinals Live pre-game and post-game shows.

An eight-time Gold Glove recipient and four-time All-Star, Edmonds was one of the best outfielders to play centerfield for the Cardinals. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in the inaugural year of the Hall opening in 2014. Edmonds played parts of 17 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Angels, Cardinals, Padres, Cubs, Brewers and Reds, and holds a career .284 batting average after playing in over 2,000 games. He ended his career just shy of 500 doubles (437), 400 homers (393) and 1,200 RBI (1,199). The bulk of Edmonds' career was spent wearing a Cardinals uniform, as he played for eight seasons with St. Louis (2000-07), hitting .285 with 241 home runs and 713 RBI. He helped lead the team to six playoff appearances, including the 2006 World Series Championship, and in 2000 and 2004 finished in the top five in National League MVP voting.

The left-handed hitting Edmonds was known for his highlight reel catches, perhaps none bigger than his diving catch in Game 7 of the National League Championship Series vs. the Houston Astros at Busch Stadium in 2004. One night after Edmonds forced Game 7 with a 12th-inning, two-run, walk-off homer, he snared a line drive in the left-centerfield gap with a diving catch and his back to the plate.

RICKY HORTON

Ricky Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for a 17th season and will join the radio broadcast team for all road games. He will provide play-by-play and color commentary on FOX Sports Midwest and on KMOX/Cardinals Radio Network. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts during the 2007-10 seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play announcer and analyst, and Cardinals Live pre- and post-game analyst for FOX Sports Midwest. He provided color commentary on KPLR telecasts from 2004-2006. Horton has been a part of the Cardinals Radio broadcast team since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Ricky spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and he also worked with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies. He received the National Sportsmanship Award in 2008, the Mid American Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting in 2011 and he was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

Horton, 60, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children, Jen and Drew.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be part of the Cardinals television team for the 36th season and 24th season on FOX Sports Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to the broadcast booth. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 70, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including the St. Louis Zoo, Angel Arms and FOX Sports Midwest's work with The Mission Continues.

He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

TIM MCCARVER

Tim McCarver will be in his seventh year of broadcasting with FOX Sports Midwest as an analyst on select Cardinals telecasts. McCarver worked 28 consecutive MLB postseasons on network television dating back to 1984, providing analysis for a record 23 World Series and 20 All-Star Games. His work earned him three straight Emmy Awards for "Outstanding Sports Event Analyst" (2000-02) and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's 2012 Ford C. Frick Award.

McCarver teamed with Joe Buck a record 17 seasons as MLB on FOX's lead national baseball broadcast team. No baseball broadcasting tandem called more World Series (15) and All-Star Games (14).

He began his broadcasting career in 1980 and has the distinction of being the only MLB analyst to have worked for all four major broadcast networks. McCarver caught 12 seasons with the Cardinals and played in two All-Star Games (1966, 1967) three League Championship Series (1976-78) and three World Series (1964, 1967, 1968), winning championships in 1964 and 1967. He also played for Philadelphia, Montreal and Boston.

BRAD THOMPSON

Former Cardinals pitcher Brad Thompson serves as an analyst on Cardinals pregame and postgame shows on FOX Sports Midwest, and as game analyst broadcasting select games alongside Dan McLaughlin.

Thompson first joined FOX Sports Midwest in 2015 as part of the network's studio team, and he called regular-season games in the booth, alongside Dan McLaughlin, for the first time in 2018.

Thompson pitched in 201 games over six Major League seasons, primarily out of the bullpen, with the Cardinals and Kansas City Royals. He was an integral part of the Cardinals bullpen during the team's 2005 and 2006 playoff seasons, with a 2.95 ERA over 40 appearances in 2005 and a 3.34 ERA in 43 games in 2006.

Thompson has been a host of the afternoon drive-time show on St. Louis sports radio station ESPN 101 for six years.

A native of Las Vegas, Thompson attended Dixie State University. He resides in St. Louis with his wife, Andrea, son Dylan and daughter Lexi.

JIM HAYES

Jim Hayes serves as a host and reporter for FOX Sports Midwest, covering the Cardinals and St. Louis Blues for the network's pregame and postgame shows and live game coverage. In his 20 years in St. Louis, Hayes has become one of the city's most well-liked sportscasters, known for his wit and interviews with athletes.

Hayes came to FOX Sports in 2000 and began covering St. Louis-area sports in 2001. Hayes is a 1984 graduate of the State University College at Geneseo, N.Y. and a Mid-America Emmy Award winner. Hayes also co-hosts a morning radio show on St. Louis sports talk station KFNS 590 AM.

Hayes, wife Erin and son Tyler reside in St. Louis.

SCOTT WARMANN

Scott Warmann has served as the primary host of St. Louis Cardinals and St. Louis Blues pregame and postgame shows on FOX Sports Midwest since 2016. He also handles play-by-play duties for college sports, including the Missouri Valley Conference, Saint Louis University and SIUE events.

A St. Louis native, Warmann was also a sportscaster on KMOX Radio and a studio host for five seasons on the St. Louis Rams radio network, including the 1999 Super Bowl championship season.

Warmann is a Lindenwood University alumnus.

ERICA WESTON

Erica Weston serves as a reporter and anchor for St. Louis Blues and St. Louis Cardinals telecasts on FOX Sports Midwest. She joined the network in June 2018.

Weston came to St. Louis after nearly two years in Tucson, Ariz., where she worked as a sports anchor and reporter for ABC affiliate KGUN. Prior to this, Weston spent four years in Los Angeles where she worked in production for Dodgers, Lakers, Galaxy and Sparks telecasts on Spectrum SportsNet LA and Spectrum SportsNet.

Weston received her BA in public relations from Loyola Marymount University.

The Cardinals and Busch Stadium hosted the 2009 MLB All-Star Game, the first time St. Louis had hosted the mid-summer classic since 1966.

BALLPARK VILLAGE

Ballpark Village, located on 10-acres just north of Busch Stadium, is the first master-planned development designed around a new MLB ballpark. The $100 million first phase of Ballpark Village opened in March 2014 and represents one of the top restaurant and entertainment districts in the region. The 100,000 square foot, multi-story project is visible beyond the left center field wall and compliments the energy and excitement of the game day experience.

The first phase of Ballpark Village is anchored by Cardinals Nation, Budweiser Brew House, Fox Sports Midwest Live!, PBR St. Louis – A Cowboy Bar, Shark Bar and Drunken Fish.

Ballpark Village features five live performance stages, the largest retractable roof of its kind, the biggest indoor TV screen in the Midwest and an outdoor festival space that recreates the infield of the previous Busch Stadium in its exact historical location. Other food and eating locations at The Village include Tengo Hambre and The Fudger.

Cardinals Nation is a 34,000 square foot venue comprised of four key elements: a two-story restaurant and bar, an 8,000 square foot world-class Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum, a Cardinals Authentics retail store featuring game used memorabilia and a 334-seat roof top deck with spectacular game views and an all-inclusive experience unlike anything in baseball today. The Cardinals Nation restaurant is a high-energy, memorabilia-infused space that sets a new standard for sports-inspired restaurants with three separate patios, two large bars and large flat screen televisions. The Cardinals Nation rooftop seating deck is a ticketed seating location looking into Busch Stadium that includes food and beverage, a complimentary ticket to the Cardinals museum, Busch Stadium audio/visual feeds and access to other areas within Ballpark Village. Cardinals Nation allows Cardinals fans to stay connected to the team year-round.

The Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum within Cardinals Nation hosts the largest team-held collection in baseball and is second only to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in terms of size with over 16,000 memorabilia items and hundreds of thousands of archival photographs. With over 8,000 square feet on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, the Museum celebrates the rich history of baseball in St. Louis and the legacy of one of baseball's most storied franchises.

In the winter of 2018, the Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum opened a special one-year exhibit on the topic "Pain, Protection and Performance: The Evolution of Baseball Equipment, presented by Rawlings." The Museum showcases some of its incredible collection by hosting rotating unique exhibits each year.

The initial class of the Cardinals Hall of Fame was inducted Saturday, August 16, 2014. The plaques that adorn the gallery are located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Cardinals Hall of Fame Gallery is free to the public, so fans of all generations can celebrate players that represent the best of the 128-year history of one of baseball's most iconic teams. More info on the Cardinals class of Hall of Fame inductees and election process can be found in the history section.

At the heart of Ballpark Village is a central gathering place: Fox Sports Midwest Live!, which is a 20,000 square foot entertainment marketplace that features a 40-foot diagonal LED screen that provides St. Louis sports fans with the best sports viewing experience in the country. Also under the one-of-a kind 100 foot long retractable glass roof is a stage for live concerts, a 200-seat restaurant and a VIP seating area. FOX Sports Midwest, the television home of the Cardinals, produces more than 200 shows per year in its studio on the second level overlooking FOX Sports Midwest Live!.

BALLPARK VILLAGE PHASE II

A $260 million expansion of Ballpark Village is near completion, adding 700,000 square feet of new dining, entertainment, hotel, residential, retail and lifestyle amenities. Once complete this summer, Ballpark Village's second phase will complete a full build-out of Clark street, transforming it into one of the most unique city streets in all of major league sports and a vibrant 24/7 neighborhood for downtown St. Louis. The expansion, being developed by The St. Louis Cardinals and The Cordish Companies, includes a 29-story luxury high-rise residential tower, an 11-story Class A office building, an upscale hotel, a spectacular three-story glass retail pavilion, and 75,000 square feet of new ground floor retail space.

The residential tower called One Cardinal Way will be a modern 29-story luxury high-rise at the corner of Clark and Broadway. One Cardinal Way will be one of the most luxurious, amenity-rich apartment communities in the country. Its views of Busch Stadium, the Mississippi River, the St. Louis skyline and the Gateway Arch, and integration with Busch Stadium, offer a completely unique residential experience. Apartments are now leasing for Summer 2020 occupancy. Visit www.onecardinalway.com for more information.

The 11-story Class-A Office building anchored by PwC, The PwC Pennant Building, opened in October 2019 as the first new construction office building built in downtown St. Louis since 1989. The building, which also houses investment firm ButcherJoseph, and new home of FOX Sports Midwest, sits at the corner of 8th Street and Cardinal Way, a new street that runs through the new neighborhood between 8th and Broadway.

Live! by Loews – St. Louis brings an upscale hospitality experience to downtown. Located at the intersection of Clark and 8th Street, Live! by Loews celebrates the rich history of St. Louis, serving as a spectacular destination for sports fans, families, visitors, as well as a premier location for meetings and special events. The Live! by Loews hotel concept was developed jointly between two of the most prominent and respected names in hospitality and entertainment: Loews Hotels & Co and The Cordish Companies. Live! By Loews - St. Louis, which opened in February 2020, is in partnership between Loews, Cordish and the St. Louis Cardinals.

The expansion also features a signature three-story glass retail pavilion, anchored by Onelife Fitness, as well as 75,000 square feet of new dining, entertainment, retail and lifestyle space including Sports & Social St. Louis, Davio's Northern Italian Steakhouse, Baseballism, Salt + Smoke and Scott Credit Union. These new tenants join a strong lineup of existing concepts including Cardinals Nation, FOX Sports Midwest Live!, Budweiser Brew House, PBR St. Louis, the Crown Room, Prairie Farms Dugout, Tengo Sed, Shark Bar, Drunken Fish, The Fudger, the Bud Shop and the Majestic Store.

Ballpark Village has played a pivotal role in the revitalization of downtown since opening in 2014, creating more than 1,000 construction jobs and 1,700 new permanent jobs. The second phase stands to create 1,800 construction jobs and more than 1,000 new permanent jobs.

The construction of Ballpark Village represents the next step in the Cardinals' vision for downtown St. Louis that began with the opening of the new $411 million privately-financed Busch Stadium in 2006. The second phase project will bring the team's total investment in new construction in downtown St. Louis to well over $750 million since 2005.

CARDINALS CARE

Caring For Kids In The Community

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation with the mission of Caring for Kids in the St. Louis community. Established in 1997, Cardinals Care, with the help of Cardinals players, the Cardinals organization and the faithful fan base, has invested over $26 million to support child-focused programs. Cardinals Care focuses on three key initiatives:

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies, the flagship program of Cardinals Care, is a free baseball/softball league for kids who otherwise might not have the opportunity to play. In addition to providing uniforms and all equipment needs including gloves, bats and balls for each team, Redbird Rookies provides extensive off-field support in the areas of health, education, mentoring, cultural arts, and scholarship.

This season marks the 17th anniversary of Redbird Rookies, which serves nearly 2,500 kids in 14 leagues across the greater St. Louis community and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Through the program, participants receive on-field coaching, support and character development, and coaches and parents take part in clinics and workshops that introduce methods to support players on and off the field.

Redbird Rookies participants build literacy skills in a reading program, learn about healthy eating, attend a health fair and enjoy music and cultural events. Mentorship opportunities and the ability to earn college scholarships are an integral part of the program.

Cardinals Care Grants

Each year, Cardinals Care awards grants during a spring and summer cycle to local non-profits and community based organizations that support area children. In 2019, Cardinals Care granted nearly $420,000 to nearly 180 organizations.

To date, the foundation has awarded over $12 million in grants to worthy organizations.

Learn more at cardinals.com/grants.

Cardinals Care Funding

Cardinals Care is funded through the generosity of our fans, players and team, individual donations and various annual events.

- Winter Warm-Up, held over three days January, is the largest Cardinals Care fundraiser.
- 50/50 Raffle, presented by Hollywood Casino, is held every Friday, Saturday and Sunday home game. $1.31 million was raised in 2019, half of which went to Cardinals Care and the other half to fans holding each game's winning ticket.
- In-stadium Silent Auctions are held every Tuesday and Friday home game and in 2019 raised $104,000.
- The 2019 Ted Savage RBI Golf Classic was hosted by Mike Shildt and featured current Cardinals players and coaches, alumni, broadcasters and senior level executives. The Golf Classic raised over $70,000 to benefit Shildt's foundation, Baseball for Life, the St. Louis RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program and Cardinals Care.

Visit cardinals.com/community to learn more about Cardinals Care programs or to make a donation.

Cardinals Care Youth Ball Fields

As part of the Cardinals' commitment to the Redbird Rookies program and overall beautification of the greater St. Louis area, Cardinals Care has successfully built and revived 24 youth baseball fields in the St. Louis community to date.

CARDINALS CARE YOUTH BASEBALL FIELDS

Cardinals Care has built or renovated 24 ball fields throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

In addition to the charitable work of Cardinals Care, the Cardinals are committed to making a difference in the community and in the lives of those who call the St. Louis region home through a variety of programs and initiatives.

The Cardinals host an annual blood drive with the American Red Cross that last year collected 1,300 pints of blood with the ability to save 4,000 lives. Support of the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure through a Cardinals race team raised nearly $16,000 in 2019. Complimentary tickets are distributed to clergy members, and thousands of tickets and items are distributed to local organizations seeking fundraising assistance.

Player Involvement

While the players are known for their work on the field, they are also committed to giving back to the community. The impact of their charitable work is both local, national and international in scale.

Some players have their own foundations, others support causes close to their hearts and all have supported Cardinals Care in its efforts to enhance the lives of children throughout Cardinals nation.

Learn more at cardinals.com/playerscare.

Player Ticket Program

Through the Player Ticket program, players including Harrison Bader, Dexter Fowler, Paul Goldschmidt, Adam Wainwright, Kolten Wong and Manager Mike Shildt host groups of kids from area non-profit and community-based organizations at Busch Stadium.

In 2019, nearly 700 local children were hosted at a game as part of the Player Ticket Program. In addition to meeting with a player and watching batting practice, participants received a t-shirt and meal voucher, thanks in part to the support of Scott Credit Union.

Cardinals Wives

While the Cardinals players compete on the field, their generous wives, fiancés, and girlfriends join together to make a difference throughout the St. Louis community. Each year, the Cardinals Wives give back through a variety of fundraisers and events for area charities:

- The annual hospital visit day spread joy to 500 children last season
- Grab Bag fundraisers, held on two dates in 2019, raised $60,000 that was divided equally between four deserving organizations.
- Support of Make-A-Wish® Missouri and, in particular the annual Wives for Wishes event, raised $156,000 last June to help grant 15 wishes for local children battling life-threatening medical conditions.
- Over $10,000 was raised through a silent auction to benefit Hurricane Dorian relief efforts

Fredbird and Friends Elementary School Program

Each year, the Cardinals visit thousands of students at area schools through the Fredbird & Friends Elementary School Program.

Presented by FOX Sports Midwest, Fredbird and Friends is a free, traveling assembly designed to educate and entertain St. Louis area students in grades K-5.

Hosted by Fredbird and a Cardinals personality (Mike Claiborne, Al Hrabosky, Kyle McClellan and Brad Thompson), the program helps students answer the question, "What makes a good teammate?" through three key messages: Be Active! Be Responsible! and Be Yourself!

Community Ticket Program

The Community Ticket Program annually distributes over 40,000 complimentary tickets to non-profit and community-based organizations that may not otherwise have the resources or opportunity to attend a Cardinals game.

MLB Community Initiatives

Throughout the season, the Cardinals participate in a number of Major League Baseball league-wide initiatives that encourage youth participation in the game including PLAY BALL, the PLAY Clinic and Pitch, Hit & Run. Awareness and/or funds are raised for the Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Jackie Robinson Foundation, military appreciation and to help find a cure and support those fighting or who have battled prostate, breast and childhood cancer.
